From Father Simon

About six years ago, at a gathering of the priests of the Archdiocese of Chicago, Cardinal Cupich invited those gathered to take a hard look at the 'signs of the time' and encouraged us to prepare for the future. The obvious signs were declining numbers of those who are actively engaged in their faith, growing shortage of priests and failing infrastructure.

The inspiration for that day of prayer, reflection and discernment was the San Damiano Cross (pictured below). The story goes that while St. Francis of Assisi was praying before the icon of the San Damiano Cross, he heard Jesus call to him: "Go repair my Church, which, as you see, is falling completely into ruin."

At first, St. Francis initially took this to mean he was to repair the church buildings of San Damiano. However, he eventually discerned that Jesus was calling him to rebuild the spiritual life and vitality of the entire earthly Church. Likewise, we must see that the future of the Catholic Church is bigger than any of our parish buildings. It was here that the initiative 'Renew My Church' was set in motion.

Over the past few years many parishes have gone through this process. Some parishes merged with others, some closed and several stayed open. Our parish along with St. Mary of the Woods, will not experience structural change, however we are called to examine our parish strengths, challenges and opportunities in order to focus on spiritual renewal and build a culture of evangelization.

In the face of this, what does it mean to 'renew my church'? The Lord of the Universe speaks these words to us just as he spoke them to the saints before us. It seems like a tall order to renew the Church. Isn't that someone else's job? Our own little parish, maybe. But the whole Church? 'YES', and we will, because renewal always begins within our own hearts.

Through Renew My Church initiatives, the Archdiocese will re-commit our local Church to our gospel commission to make disciples, build vital communities of faith and inspire witness to bring the light and hope of Christ to a world in need. These mission imperatives guide all that we do in and through the efforts of renewal.

Our initiative of Renew My Church is focused on increasing the vitality of the faith communities of our parish and our neighboring parish, St. Mary of the Woods. Together with leaders from both parishes, called the Grouping Feedback and Discernment Team (GFDT), we will engage in a process of reflection, discernment and planning to consider how we can collaborate and combine resources so that we are better equipped to bring Jesus Christ to the world today. Over the course of the next three months, our parishes will discuss, share, pray and discern the best forms of collaboration to create a sustainable, vibrant and vital Catholic presence in our area.

The members of the GFDT of QAS includes the pastor, principal, Paul Arends, John Conway, Lauren Gaffey, Joe Onofrio and Erika Tate. In the second or third week of February, the entire parish will be invited to reflect on our own efforts to renew our faith and our active participation in the life of the Church and to share ideas and ways that will help our community be a witness to discipleship.

May God bless us and may the Holy Spirit guide and enable us to be true to our calling.

Blessings!!

Happy Catholic Schools Week!

Since 1974, National Catholic Schools Week has been the annual celebration of Catholic education in the United States. The theme for 2022 is "Catholic Schools: Faith. Excellence. Service." As we observe this special week, we call attention to the qualities and values that make Catholic schooling such an important ministry of Queen of All Saints Parish.

We are blessed that our parish has a school to call its own, and we are proud of our excellent school for its high academic standards, its distinctly Catholic environment, its strong commitment to Christ-centered values, its quality extracurricular and co-curricular offerings, and its family-centered community. We certainly appreciate all that the parishioners do to support and promote Queen of All Saints School.

QAS will observe the annual celebration week with Mass, open houses and other activities for students, families, parishioners and community members. Through these events, schools focus on the value Catholic education provides to young people and its contributions to our church, our communities and our nation:

Sunday: Celebrating our Parish
- ★ 11am Mass celebrated both in-person and live-streamed
- ★ Open House for prospective and new families 12:15-1:30pm

Monday: Celebrating our Faith Partners
- ★ QAS Trivia begins
- ★ Buddy faith-partner Zoom

Tuesday: Celebrating our Parents
- ★ Students honor their parents' investment in Catholic education

Wednesday: Celebrating those who support our school
- ★ Students honor volunteers and other QAS community members

Thursday: Celebrating our Students
- ★ Special assembly with guest speaker, sponsored by QASPA
- ★ Dress-down and no homework

Friday: Celebrating our Faculty and Staff
- ★ Students honor their teachers' dedication to QAS
- ★ Teacher Appreciation Lunch provided by QASPA

Saturday: Celebrating our Families
- ★ Plan a special meal, treat or activity that brings the family together

It will be a great week and an important time to reflect on what makes our school special. Thanks again to the parish for its continued support of its Catholic school.

Kind Regards,
Emily Carlson

Stewardship - A Time to Reconsider our Commitments

It's January of a new year. Christmas and all its attractions (both spiritual and material) is behind us. Perhaps now it's time to review our commitments to God and to each other, using the traditional stewardship terms of time (such as an hour a week to attend Mass), talent (helping those in our community who are in need) and treasure (giving back some of the material gifts we have been blessed to receive). Let's think in these terms:

Intentional - a well thought out, deliberate and honest discussion with ourselves to thank God for all his blessings by returning to him a portion of the time, talent, and treasure given to us

Planned - using this time of the year for our family to make stewardship of time and talent a regular part of our lifestyle and stewardship of treasure a part of our budget.

Proportionate - make a firm decision to give a certain percentage of our time and our income to our parish and to other charities.

Today's Readings

"Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared…
- Nehemiah 8:10

Ezra's instructions to the people show us that God does not forbid us from enjoying the good things in life. He wants us to be happy! However, God expects us to be grateful for all that he has given us and to generously share our blessings with those who are in need.

Now here's the hard part – to share all we have without expecting anything in return.

Women's Auxiliary Meeting - February 17

Our January meeting is cancelled. We will have our next meeting in February in the Holy Name Room at 7pm.

As members of the Women's Auxiliary (WAX), we strive to provide opportunities for women to connect with and support each other. We deliver programming and service activities that contribute to our QAS community, strengthen the bond of women, and give our young Catholic women a voice. All women of the parish are welcome, always. Questions, email WAX@qasparish.org.

The Sacrament of Baptism

Queen of All Saints rejoices in the incorporation of new members into the Body of Christ through the sacrament of baptism. If you are a registered parishioner, please come to the rectory during business hours to schedule your child's baptism, or visit our website for our baptism dates and the baptism registration form. The sacrament of baptism for infants is celebrated on Sundays. A baptismal preparation class for the parents is required. Please contact the rectory with any questions or for further details. If an adult or a school age child seeks baptism, special arrangements should be made with one of the priests.

The Sacrament of Matrimony

Queen of All Saints helps couples prepare not only for their wedding day, but also for the lifelong commitment of living a Christian marriage. Parishioners of Queen of All Saints Basilica who are baptized and free to marry in the Catholic Church may celebrate their marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica. Couples from Queen of All Saints seeking marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica should contact one of the parish priests at least six months prior to their intended date of marriage. The couple must meet with one of the priests before the date for the marriage can be confirmed.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament of the anointing of the sick is not just a sacrament for those who are at the point of death. As soon as one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him or her to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived. Therefore, any member of the faithful who is seriously ill because of sickness or advanced age may properly receive this sacrament.
