Welcome to Father Andrew Whiting, IVE

Father Andrew Whiting, IVE is originally from Alabama. He was ordained in May of 2014. Since his ordination to the priesthood he has been working in the Archdiocese of Washington as the secretary for the Archbishop Emeritus.

At every Mass, we have the great blessing of being able to receive the Most Holy Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. There are particular ways laid down by the Church of celebrating the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass or the Divine Liturgy as it is called in the Byzantine Tradition. In the Western Church, the predominant rite or external expression of worship and prayer is the Roman Rite. At Mass on Sundays and weekdays, you will see two books of the Roman Rite: the lectionary and the Roman Missal. The lectionary contains the cycle of readings that are read at Mass. The Roman Missal contains the prayers and other words said by the priest and the people's responses. The Roman Missal also contains rubrics that direct how things should be done. They are called rubrics because they are printed in the Roman Missal in red and the Latin word for red is "ruber."

There is a section of the Roman Missal, which is also published separately, called the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM). This section explains in more depth the rites or actions that are to be followed at every Mass. It also gives explanation as to why we do things a certain way in the Mass. I will close with the first two paragraphs from the GIRM:

1. As Christ the Lord was about to celebrate with the disciples the paschal supper in which he instituted the Sacrifice of his Body and Blood, he commanded that a large, furnished upper room be prepared (Lk 22:12). Indeed, the Church has always judged that this command also applied to herself whenever she decided about things related to the disposition of people's minds, and of places, rites, and texts for the Celebration of the Most Holy Eucharist. The present norms, too, prescribed in keeping with the will of the Second Vatican Council, together with the new Missal with which the Church of the Roman Rite will henceforth celebrate the Mass, are again a demonstration of this same solicitude of the Church, of her faith and her unaltered love for the supreme mystery of the Eucharist, and also attest to her continuous and consistent tradition, even though certain new elements have been introduced.

2. The sacrificial nature of the Mass, solemnly defended by the Council of Trent, because it accords with the universal tradition of the Church, was once more stated by the Second Vatican Council, which pronounced these clear words about the Mass: "At the Last Supper, Our Savior instituted the Eucharistic Sacrifice of his Body and Blood, by which the Sacrifice of his Cross is perpetuated until he comes again; and till then he entrusts the memorial of his Death and Resurrection to his beloved spouse, the Church."

PHÚC ÂM: Mc 6, 7-13 "Người bắt đầu sai các ông đi".
Tin Mừng Chúa Giêsu Kitô theo Thánh Marcô.
Khi ấy, Chúa Giêsu gọi mười hai tông đồ và sai từng hai người đi, Người ban cho các ông có quyền trên các thần ô uế. Và Người truyền các ông đi đường, đừng mang gì, ngoài cây gậy, không mang bị mang bánh, không mang tiền trong túi, nhưng chân đi dép, và đừng mặc hai áo. Người lại bảo: "Đến đâu, các con vào nhà nào, thì ở lại đó cho đến khi ra đi. Ai không đón tiếp các con, cũng không nghe lời các con, thì hãy ra khỏi đó, phủi bụi chân để làm chứng tố cáo họ". Các ông ra đi rao giảng sự thống hối. Các ông trừ nhiều quỷ, xức dầu chữa lành nhiều bệnh nhân. Đó là lời Chúa.

ENVIADO POR DIOS

En la época de Amós la vocación de profeta había adquirido una posición muy formal en Israel. Originalmente los profetas habían surgido como los portavoces de Dios cuando Israel ya no se veía guiado por las figuras religioso-civiles a quienes conocemos como los "Jueces", sino por los Reyes. Al correr del tiempo la monarquía de Israel se había apropiado los oficios de sacerdote y de profeta, estableciéndolos como órdenes, y reservándose el derecho de nombrar profetas oficiales para la corte real. Entonces, como ahora, cuando los que estaban en el poder escogían a los que iban a servirles de "conciencia oficial", a veces las cosas se torcían. Y entonces Dios escogía profetas de donde menos se les esperaba. Así fue como Amós recibió su llamado a profetizar. En el Evangelio del domingo pasado vimos cómo Jesús surgió como el Ungido del Señor aunque venía de un lugar que muchos consideraban poco probable. Y nosotros, cuando continuamos discerniendo nuestro propio llamado bautismal a ser discípulos, podemos estar seguros de que estamos, en las palabras de san Pablo: "destinados [para eso], por decisión del que lo hace todo según su voluntad" (Efesios 1:11).
