MISSION STATEMENT

Shepherd of the Valley Catholic Church is a welcoming parish family, who worships together as Disciples, receives Jesus in Word and Sacrament and proclaims the Good News. We commit ourselves to the joyful love of Christ. Our faith is expressed in service to all God's children. We go out into the world to share and invite others to experience the love of God.

NUESTRA MISIÓN

La iglesia católica Pastor del Valle es una familia parroquial acogedora, la cual rinde culto en unidad como discípulos, recibe a Jesús en palabra y sacramento y proclama la buena nueva. Nosotros nos comprometemos en la alegría del amor de Cristo. Nuestra fe es expresada en el servicio a todos los hijos de Dios. Salimos al mundo a compartir e invitar a todos a experimentar el amor de Dios.

"GOODBYE MY BELOVED" - Fr. Stephen Kenyon

There is an insight I heard many years ago that has stuck with me. And it seems fitting to begin with it here. The word "Goodbye" comes from a contraction of the phrase "God be with you" (God => Good, be with => b, you => ye). Think about that for a moment. "Goodbye" is really a blessing which at its core says, "I can no longer be with you, so may God be with you to guide and lead you." It is a blessing which entrusts the other person to the care of the Lord. So, my beloved, dear brothers and sisters, whom I have come to know and love these last two years, I want to say to you Goodbye: May God be with you.

There is a lot of sadness in leaving, but what gives me comfort is knowing that you remain in the Lord's faithful hands, that He remains your Shepherd, and that it is He who refreshes your soul. These last two years have blessed me so much. I think back over wonderful memories, rich lessons learned, and the faces of so many that I now hold dear in my heart. I am really, really going to miss you all. Even though I am not moving far away, and I will probably see many of you from time to time, nothing will replace seeing you all on a regular basis and getting to share in life together.

So I want to leave you with some last thoughts from a father's heart. There are many things I suppose I could say, but while I was praying for you these three things kept coming up.

1. Live life in a way that does not make sense unless our faith is true. If our faith is true then it makes an impact on how we live our lives. The message of the Gospel is the greatest news in all history. We have been saved, rescued when all seemed lost. God Himself became a man and died for our sins. That message should change our lives, it should cause us to live in a completely new way. How we spend our time, how we spend our money, our moral choices, our big life decisions - everything should be impacted by the extraordinary news of the Gospel. But sometimes we find ourselves living in a way that looks very similar to how those live who have no faith. We can live ordinary secular lives most of the week, with the only difference being Mass on Sunday. Those without faith look at our lives and it doesn't look much different from how they live. So here is the challenge: live in a way that your friends without faith won't understand. Live a life that looks odd to those who live without faith in God and without hope for heaven. Live an extraordinary life where every decision reveals the truth that the God of all creation loves you and laid down His life for you. Don't settle: live a radical life for Jesus.

2. Know the mercy of God, especially in confession. I can think of few joys greater in this life than the beautiful moments when I hear those words, "I absolve you from your sins..." Becoming a Saint is not about always being perfect, never failing. Rather, becoming a Saint is about time and time again receiving God's mercy. It is in mercy that we know who we are and become who we are meant to be. And the greatest place that we encounter the infinite mercy of God is in confession. Don't let anything ever keep you from confession. We need His mercy more than food or water or even air. A good recommendation is to try to go to confession every month. Go to confession often and you will rest always in His mercy, filled with peace beyond understanding.

3. Remember daily that you are the Lord's beloved. In this life it is easy to forget the most important thing of all: the overwhelming love of God for you. We get busy, we get distracted, we start to trust the way the world sees things. We need to remind ourselves daily that our identity is found in the love of God. Who are you? You are the Lord's beloved. And if you remember that then little else will matter. You don't have to earn that love, you don't have to prove yourself first, you don't have to be perfect before God loves you. He simply loves you. Remain in that love. Through daily prayer, and by constantly remembering the cross on which that love was shown, keep the truth of His love always in your mind. Beloved, never forget His love!

May God who has begun this good work in each of you bring it to completion. Thank you for blessing me more than words can say. Know of my prayers for you, and please pray for me. And may the Good Shepherd, the Faithful and True Lord, keep and guard us all until heaven we go.

In Christ,
your father who loves you,
Fr. Stephen

"ADIÓS QUIRIDO" - Fr. Stephen Kenyon

Hay una frase que escuché hace muchos años que se me quedó grabada . Y parece apropiado comenzar con esta frase aquí. La palabra "Adiós" proviene de una contracción de la frase "Dios esté contigo" (A => Dios, => Dios este contigo). Piense en eso por un momento. "Adiós" es realmente una bendición que en su esencia dice: "Ya no puedo estar contigo, así que Dios esté contigo para guiarte y orientarte". Es una bendición encomendar a la otra persona al cuidado del Señor. Entonces, mis queridos hermanos y hermanas, a quienes he llegado a conocer y amar estos dos últimos años, quiero decirles adiós: que Dios esté contigo.

Hay mucha tristeza al irme, pero lo que me consuela es saber que permanecen en las manos fieles del Señor, que Él sigue siendo tu Pastor y que es Él quien refresca tu alma. Estos dos últimos años me han bendecido muchísimo. Pienso en los maravillosos recuerdos, valiosas lecciones aprendidas y los rostros de tantos que ahora aprecio en mi corazón. Realmente los voy a extrañar a todos. Aunque no me voy a mudar muy lejos, y probablemente veré a muchos de ustedes de vez en cuando, nada reemplazará verlos a todos regularmente y compartir la vida juntos.

Así que quiero dejarlos con algunos últimos pensamientos del corazón de un padre. Hay muchas cosas que supongo que podría decir, pero mientras oraba por ti, estas tres cosas seguían apareciendo.

1. Viva la vida de una manera que tiene sentido a menos que nuestra fe no sea verdadera. Si nuestra fe es verdadera, tendrá un impacto en la forma en que vivimos nuestras vidas. El mensaje del Evangelio es la noticia más importante de toda la historia. Hemos sido salvados, rescatados cuando todo parecía perdido. Dios mismo se hizo hombre y murió por nuestros pecados. Ese mensaje debería cambiar nuestras vidas, debería hacernos vivir de una manera completamente nueva. Cómo gastamos nuestro tiempo, cómo gastamos nuestro dinero, nuestras elecciones morales, nuestras grandes decisiones de vida, todo debería verse afectado por la extraordinaria noticia del Evangelio. Pero a veces nos encontramos viviendo de una manera muy similar a como viven aquellos que no tienen fe. Podemos vivir vidas seculares ordinarias la mayor parte de la semana, con la única diferencia de la misa del Domingo. Los que no tienen fe ven nuestras vidas y no se ven muy diferentes de cómo viven. Así que aquí está el desafío: vive de una manera que tus amigos sin fe no comprendan. Viva una vida que parezca extraña para aquellos que viven sin fe en Dios y sin esperanza en el cielo. Vive una vida extraordinaria donde cada decisión revele la verdad de que el Dios de toda la creación te ama y entregó Su vida por ti. No te conformes: vive una vida radical para Jesús.

2. Conoce la misericordia de Dios, especialmente en la confesión. Puedo pensar en pocas alegrías más grandes en esta vida que los hermosos momentos cuando escucho esas palabras, "Te absuelvo de tus pecados ..." Convertirse en un Santo no se trata de ser siempre perfecto, nunca fallar. Mas bien, convertirse en santo se trata de recibir una y otra vez la misericordia de Dios. Es por misericordia que sabemos quiénes somos y nos convertimos en quienes estamos destinados a ser. Y el lugar más grande donde encontramos la infinita misericordia de Dios es en la confesión. No dejes que nada te impida confesarte. Necesitamos Su misericordia más que la comida, el agua o incluso el aire. Una buena recomendación es intentar confesarte todos los meses. Acude a la confesión con frecuencia y descansarás siempre en Su misericordia, lleno de paz más allá de la comprensión humana.

3. Recuerda a diario que eres el amado del Señor. En esta vida es fácil olvidar lo más importante de todo: el amor abrumador de Dios por ti. Nos ocupamos, nos distraemos, empezamos a confiar en la forma en que el mundo ve las cosas. Necesitamos recordarnos a nosotros mismos todos los días que nuestra identidad se encuentra en el amor de Dios. ¿Quién eres tu? Eres el amado del Señor. Y si recuerdas eso, lo demás importa. No tienes que ganarte ese amor, no tienes que demostrar tu valor primero, no tienes que ser perfecto antes de que Dios te ame. Él simplemente te ama. Permanece en ese amor. A través de la oración diaria y recordando constantemente la cruz en la que se mostró ese amor, mantén la verdad de Su amor siempre en tu mente. Amado, nunca olvides Su amor.

Que Dios, que ha comenzado esta buena obra en cada uno de ustedes, la lleve a su término. Gracias por bendecirme más de lo que las palabras pueden expresar. Mis oraciones por usted y ,por favor, ore por mí. Y que el Buen Pastor, el Señor Fiel y Verdadero, nos guarde y cuide a todos hasta que vayamos al cielo.

En Cristo,
Tu padre que te ama,
Fr. Stephen

FAITH FORMATION

BIBLE STUDY: Psalms: The School of Prayer

At the heart of the Bible are the Psalms, prayers from God that help us learn to pray. The Holy Spirit inspired them. Israel sang them. Christ himself prayed them, as did our Blessed Mother. These sacred hymns become our heartfelt response to God's loving and wondrous deeds for us. Their words captivate the imagination and draw us into a deeply personal encounter with God.

Shepherd of the Valley will begin an eleven-week Bible study Psalms: The School of Prayer in July (date, time and location to be announced later). Participants will meet every week to view an engaging video presentation followed by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship. For more information or to register, visit ascensionpress.com, or contact Terry Marks at 541-210-3840 or tgskram@hotmail.com for more information. Join us to study how to establish a deeply personal dialogue with God through the Psalms.

OUTREACH MINISTRY

DO YOU REALLY WANT TO MAKE A HUGE DIFFERENCE IN SOMEONE'S LIFE ON A WEEKLY AND ETERNAL BASIS?

This ministry is so rewarding, very few ever leave it. Visiting the ill and homebound of our Parish with holy communion, once a week, is profoundly fulfilling and you will make long lasting relationships that will change your heart forever.

What does it entail? Joyce will give you an hour and a half training. You can shadow another minister until you feel comfortable being assigned your own homebound person. You bring communion to your person once a week. You can visit as many people as you would like. Most have 1-3 persons they see long term.

Most get visited after mass, but other times are possible too that fit your schedule. If you want to bring Christ to others in the most important way we lay people can, please step out and call Joyce Marks! 541-664-1050x107 or email me at joyce@shepherdcatholic.com.

CALLING ALL EMMANUEL PROJECT CRAFTERS!

Are you a knitter or Crocheter and would like to give the gift of your talent as an act of Mercy?

We have an active group of "behind the scene" ladies who craft all year so that during the Christmas season we can gift the poor, lonely, forgotten, society's marginalized, homebound and ill with beautiful handmade hats, scarves, lap robes and fingerless gloves. We do this through a program called "Emmanuel Project".

You do it on your own time, at your leisure and we have LOTS of donated yarn for you to work with. The ladies will meet periodically and socially to touch base and for fellowship.

If this sounds like something you would like to do, contact Diane (pronounced Dionne) at 541-224-4844. Last year they donated gifts for 186 people!
