RCIA — Welcome to Sacred Heart!

At the Easter Vigil throughout the world, new members joined our faith in a process called RCIA, the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. Over the past year or more, these new members have completed study of our faith, reflected on and prayed for a deeper relationship with Christ, and waited patiently until they could join us fully at the Lord's Table. At Sacred Heart, 24 candidates took part in this process. We welcome and congratulate them! Please keep them in your prayers as they continue to live the Gospel message:

Alberto Alexander Amaya Amaya, Tatiana Alexandra Chiva, Daniela Contreras, Matthew Donnelly, Anderson Alberto Escalante Godínez, Alaina Espinoza, Liam Fitzgerald, Christina Gardella, Luis Gimenez, Keni Marveli Hernández, Owen Kilcullen, Alison Maddox, Andrea Orellana, Eric Ernesto Peña, Shenny Stephanie Ramírez, Michael Rieben, Alejandro Rodriguez, Isabella Rodriguez, Prince Duku Tandoh, Boris Mauricio Tino, Jessica Noemí Torres, Dunia Troches, Christy VanAssche, Samantha VanAssche

From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

Today we celebrate the Second Week of Easter or Divine Mercy Sunday. I remember when Pope St. John Paul II first instituted the celebration of divine mercy, I wondered to myself, "Why would he supplant the Second Sunday of Easter with a special kind of feast?" Well, if you look at the gospel reading, you see why immediately. After betrayal and abandonment, Jesus does not return with vengeance, anger or resentment. Instead, he comes back wishing only his followers peace. Amazing! After all He went through for us, and after the way we treated him, Jesus still is filled with Mercy.

This weekend, experience Divine Mercy after the 11:30 AM Mass. We will recite the chaplet during adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, remembering that God wishes us to be reconciled to him constantly.

Fr. Jerry Francik

On the Cover

Divine Mercy Sunday

In a series of revelations to Saint María Faustina Kowalska in the 1930's, our Lord repeatedly called for the celebration of the Feast of Mercy on the first Sunday after Easter. He promised an ocean of graces to be poured upon the world. Today, we know this feast as Divine Mercy Sunday, named by St. John Paul II at the canonization of St. Faustina on April 30, 2000.

How often have we doubted the Lord like Thomas in the Gospel? How often have we hidden in fear, unable to bear the shame of our sins, mistakes, and failures? No sin is unforgiveable, and no sinner is beyond redemption. We have all failed and are in need of God's mercy. It is for this very reason that Christ suffered, died, and rose again. Christ came to offer us His infinite love and mercy, and we can receive it in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

St. John Paul II said in his 2001 homily for the Sunday of Divine Mercy, "Divine Mercy! This is the Easter gift that the Church receives from the risen Christ and offers to humanity." Today we celebrate that Easter gift of God's unending, merciful love for all His children. This is at the heart of the Gospel. Let us never fail to seek the mercy that God desires to freely give us. Jesus, we trust in You.
