"I will ask the Father, and he will give you . . . the Spirit of truth."

— John 14:16–17

THE REASON FOR OUR HOPE. "What is the reason for your hope?" Imagine somebody coming up to you and asking you that question. Not "What are you hoping for?" or "What are you hoping to do?" No, this isn't about our desires for possessions or aspirations for life, it's "Why do you hope?" Peter today tells us that we ought to be ready to give an answer to this question. Truth be told, few of us spend much time thinking about why we hope. Luckily, the scriptures today give us our answers. We hope because Christ suffered for us, in order that we might come to God. We hope because we know that, in the Spirit, God grants us another Advocate through Christ to remain with us always. No matter what we might hope for, whatever we might hope to do, we must always first know and proclaim the reason for our hope: the presence of God in Christ, with us through the power of the Spirit. Saint of the Week

SAINT RITA OF CASCIA (1381-1457) May 22

If you're ever in Philadelphia on May 22, forget parking anywhere near Saint Rita's shrine. Cars line streets and fill medians as throngs pack a candlelight vigil and six Masses, honoring this patroness of lost causes, hopeless situations, and—as her statue in countless churches built by twentieth-century immigrants testifies—difficult marriages, troubled homes, and alienated children. Wise people warn, be careful what you pray for. "Divine Savior," Rita prayed, "let me suffer like you!" Obedient to parents who refused her wish to become a nun, Rita married a man who returned her devotion with twenty years of abuse. When enemies murdered him, Rita's two sons swore revenge. Paintings depict her pointing the angry boys toward Christ crucified, whom she begged to restrain them. Within the year, both sons died. Alone now, Rita went to the convent but was refused. The nuns feared violence, since one of them was related to the murderer. Rita arranged peace between the families, made vows, and became much sought after as a counselor and intercessor for forty years on earth—and ever since in heaven. —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Protect young people from cyberbullying

Cyberbullying can happen at any time, on any online platform. It can take many forms – cruel direct messages, threatening emails, mean texts, shared photos, and more. Victims of cyber-bullying often suffer from anxiety and depression, and their self-esteem can be diminished. They may be reluctant to talk about bullying, so parents need to be on top of all their children's online activities. Asking questions and getting information about popular apps and sites will help, too.

Sexto Domingo de Pascua

"Yo le rogaré al Padre y él les enviará . . . el Espíritu de verdad".

— Juan 14:16–17

RAZÓN DE NUESTRA ESPERANZA. "¿Cuál es la razón de tu esperanza?". Imagina que alguien se te acerca y te hace esa pregunta. No "¿qué es lo que esperas?" o ¿qué esperas hacer?". No; no se trata de los deseos de poseer cosas o de aspiraciones en la vida, sino "¿por qué tienes esperanza?". Hoy Pedro nos dice que debemos estar dispuestos a responder esta pregunta. A decir verdad, pocos son los que se dedican a pensar por qué tenemos esperanza. Por suerte, las Escrituras de hoy nos ofrecen la respuesta. Esperamos porque Cristo sufrió por nosotros, a fin de que podamos venir a Dios. Esperamos porque sabemos que, en el Espíritu, Dios nos concede otro Defensor en Cristo que permanecerá con nosotros por siempre. Sin importar lo que podamos esperar, o lo que esperamos poder hacer, siempre debemos saber y proclamar la razón de nuestra esperanza: la presencia de Dios en Cristo con nosotros por el poder del Espíritu. Santo de la Semana

SAN CRISTÓBAL MAGALLANES Y COMPAÑEROS (año 1915-1937)
21 de mayo

Uno de los capítulos más gloriosos de la historia de la Iglesia en México se escribió durante la persecución religiosa conocida como La Cristiada (1926-1929). El entonces Presidente de México decretó la suspensión de culto y toda celebración litúrgica se convirtió en algo ilegal, en una resistencia y desobediencia a una Constitución anticatólica. El pueblo se levantó en armas y defendió su derecho. Más de 20 sacerdotes y tres laicos fueron canonizados por sufrir heroicamente el martirio y no tomar las armas. Son increíbles los tormentos que muchos sufrieron, pero más increíble aun es la fidelidad que mantuvieron hacia Dios. Aunque san Cristóbal Magallanes encabeza la fiesta litúrgica de hoy, el mártir cristero más conocido entre ellos es Santo Toribio Romo a quien nuestro pueblo lo ha identificado como el patrono de los indocumentados. De él se dice que encontró a un indocumentado en Tijuana y que lo ayudó a pasar a Los Ángeles y como gratitud le pidió que fuera a visitarlo a Santa Ana de Guadalupe, Jalisco. Al pagar el favor, le contaron la historia de su martirio.

Proteja a los jóvenes del acoso o "bullying" cibernético

El acoso (bullying) cibernético puede ocurrir en cualquier momento, en cualquier plataforma en línea. Puede tomar muchas formas, como mensajes crueles directos, correos electrónicos amenazadores, textos agresivos, fotos compartidas y más. Las víctimas de acoso cibernético a menudo sufren de ansiedad y depresión, y su autoestima puede disminuir. Es posible que se muestren reacios a hablar sobre el acoso escolar, por lo que los padres de familia deben estar al tanto de todas las actividades en línea de sus hijos. Los padres de familia pueden buscar ayuda, preguntando y buscando información sobre aplicaciones y sitios populares.

Proper Dress for Worship. Let us show proper reverence for the Mass and the Blessed Sacrament by remembering to dress respectfully. Going to mass is a special occasion, not just any ordinary event. Dressing respectfully for Mass reminds us that we are about to encounter our Savior and Redeemer, Jesus Christ, and this is a special occasion.

ARCHBISHOP GOMEZ CALLS ON CALIFORNIA CATHOLICS TO SUPPORT EXTENDING UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS FOR CHURCH WORKERS

Archbishop José H. Gomez is asking California Catholics to support extending unemployment benefits to Church workers under federal emergency legislation addressing dislocations caused by the coronavirus epidemic. Currently, non-profit employees in multiple states do not have access to state unemployment insurance. Faith communities are urging Congress to provide emergency disaster unemployment assistance to workers that are not covered by state unemployment insurance.

"As we know, the impact of the coronavirus emergency is being felt profoundly in our Catholic community. Nationwide, the Church has been forced to suspend worship services and close schools and other important offices and ministries, effecting tens of thousands of our employees," said Archbishop Gomez. "Please join me in asking Congress to extend unemployment benefits to Church workers who might need this relief. Let us stand together in solidarity for our brothers and sisters in this time of trial and need."

California Catholics are asked to contact Senators Dianne Feinstein and Kamala Harris, as well as local representatives, to make sure they are aware of this problem of non-profit employees in multiple states who do not currently have access to state unemployment insurance, and to ask that they support an effective solution.

CATHEDRAL SUNDAY MASS IN ENGLISH WILL BE AVAILABLE TO THE FAITHFUL VIA FOX 11 LOS ANGELES' AFFILIATE KCOP CHANNEL 13 DURING THE CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC

FOX11 Los Angeles will air the weekly English Sunday Masses, at 10 a.m., from the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, through KCOP Channel 13, an affiliate station of Fox 11 Los Angeles, during the COVID-19 (novel coronavirus) pandemic. The broadcaster aired the Easter Sunday Mass in English celebrated by Archbishop José H. Gomez, which provided thousands of families, especially those with no access to the Internet, the opportunity to gather as a family to celebrate Mass in their home.

Since the unprecedented decision to suspend the public celebration of Mass to prevent the spread of COVID-19, Archbishop José H. Gomez continues encouraging the faithful to keep participating in the Holy Mass via television, radio and online.

"Even though we cannot publicly gather in communion to celebrate our faith, I encourage our faithful to continue to participate in the Holy Mass via television, radio and online so that we may continue to pray together for the Lord's grace and mercy in our time of need," said Archbishop Gomez.

Univision Los Angeles, has been airing and will continue to air daily and Sunday Masses in Spanish at 7 a.m. from the Cathedral directly into homes over the air via Univision's local UniMás KFTR-TV, Channel 46 since the Archdiocese announced the closure of parishes on March 16.

Catholic media are also helping to bring Holy Mass directly to Catholic faithful airing Masses in English and Spanish on cable, radio and via the internet on Relevant Radio (930AM), The Catholic Channel on SiriusXM, Guadalupe Radio and El Sembrador TV and Radio (ESNE).

Catholics can find a listing of available livestreams and broadcasts of Masses in the Archdiocese at lacatholics.org/mass-for-the-homebound so that they may continue to pray at home with their families and join to the sacrifice of the Mass.

For more information on the efforts of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles to limit the spread of the pandemic, visit lacatholics.org/emergency/.

LA MISA DE LA CATEDRAL EN INGLÉS ESTARÁ DISPONIBLE PARA LOS FIELES A TRAVÉS DE KCOP CANAL 13 DE FOX 11 LOS ÁNGELES DURANTE LA PANDEMIA DEL CORONAVIRUS

FOX11 Los Angeles transmitirá al aire las Misas dominicales en inglés, a las 10 a.m., desde la Catedral de Nuestra Señora de Los Ángeles, a través de KCOP Channel 13, estación afiliada de Fox 11 Los Ángeles, durante la pandemia del COVID-19 (coronavirus). La televisora transmitió la Misa del Domingo de Pascua en inglés, celebrada por el Arzobispo José H. Gomez, la cual dio la oportunidad a miles de familias, especialmente a las que no tienen acceso a Internet, de reunirse como familia para celebrar la Misa en sus hogares.

Desde la decisión sin precedentes de suspender la celebración pública de las Misas para prevenir la propagación del COVID-19, el Arzobispo José H. Gomez sigue alentando a los fieles a continuar participando en la Santa Misa vía televisión, radio y en línea.

"Aunque no podamos reunirnos en público para celebrar nuestra fe, animo a nuestros fieles a seguir participando en la Santa Misa vía televisión, radio y en línea para que podamos seguir orando juntos por la gracia y misericordia del Señor en nuestro tiempo de necesidad", dijo el Arzobispo Gomez.

Desde que la Arquidiócesis anunció el cierre de las parroquias el 16 de marzo, Univision Los Angeles ha estado transmitiendo y seguirá transmitiendo las Misas en español diarias y dominicales a las 7 a.m., directamente desde la Catedral a los hogares, a través del canal local de Univisión, UniMás KFTR-TV, Canal 46.

Los medios católicos también están ayudando a llevar la Santa Misa directamente a los fieles católicos transmitiendo las Misas en inglés y en español por cable, radio y vía Internet en Relevant Radio (930AM), The Catholic Channel on SiriusXM, Guadalupe Radio y El Sembrador TV y Radio (ESNE).

Los católicos pueden encontrar una lista de transmisiones en vivo y a través de televisión de las Misas en la Arquidiócesis en lacatholics.org/mass-for-the-homebound para que puedan continuar orando en casa con sus familias y así puedan unirse al sacrificio de la Misa.

Para obtener más información sobre los esfuerzos que la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles está haciendo para ayudar a detener la propagación de la pandemia, visite lacatholics.org/emergency/.

CYBER SCAMMERS' LATEST TEXT SCAMS TARGETING ADLA SCHOOLS AND PARISHES

"Smishing" (SMS phishing) is a type of fraudulent activity that involves using SMS or text messages to trick people into giving up personal information so that money can be fraudulently obtained. Perpetrators use various techniques to gain the trust of a victim and may provide specific instructions, which if followed, could result in monetary loss to the victim. Perpetrators may impersonate someone you know that is in some position of authority (a priest, teacher, manager, police, or government agency).

DO NOT BECOME A VICTIM. If you receive such texts do the following:

- Take time to consider your actions before responding to suspicious text messages.
- If in doubt, call the published main number of the parish, school or administrative office from whom the text claims to have been sent to authenticate the text message.
- Do not respond to the text message if you doubt its origin.
