LITURGY, SPIRITUALITY & PARISH NEWS

When Jesus says to Peter "whatever you bind" or "whatever you loose" in today's Gospel, he describes a distinct power that emerges from Peter's faith in Jesus. The capacity to bind or to loose suggests a new ability, both to restrain or block forces that harm the community of faith, and also to release or liberate energies that strengthen the community.

It might be helpful to observe, within your own parish or faith community, where God might be working now. Perhaps you can see persons and groups working to restrain toxic forces of resentment or fear. You might see those who are releasing new energies, and empowering the faithful to care for their neighbors. When we are grounded in a prayerful trust relationship with Jesus, we can receive this power to participate in God's work, to bind and to loose.

AWE AND PRAISE

In today's passage from Romans, Paul concludes his complex reflections on the Jewish people, the emerging Gentile churches, and God's work among them. Paul has struggled to understand the responses of both the Jewish and Gentile communities, with their mix of acceptance and rejection of Jesus. He warns the Roman church to avoid any sense of superiority over Jews or non-Christian Gentiles, for everyone is in need of God's mercy. Paul acknowledges the limits of his understanding, and gives way to prayers of awe and praise. He concludes by marveling at the limitless mercy of God, whose designs are ultimately mysterious.

Sometimes our own prayer can be like that of Paul. In conversation with God, we try to make sense of life, especially its difficulties. The full truth of what's going on in our lives or in our world eludes us, and so we work humbly with the truth that we can understand. If we believe our mysterious God is indeed trustworthy, we can open our hearts in praise, and allow God to shape our lives.

FAITH DIRECT®

eGiving through Faith Direct

In many parishes eGiving has become a convenient way of making contributions. We are offering you that opportunity through Faith Direct, the leading electronic giving program for Catholic parishes throughout the country. Faith Direct enables parishioners to make your Church contributions through either direct debit from your checking/savings account or through your credit/debit card. If you choose this method of giving there would be no need to write checks or search for envelopes. You would be able to apply the convenience of direct debit to your parish offerings in the same way as many of you now use it to make your mortgage, car or utility payments. Brochures with more information are available in the church vestibule and Parish Center.

You may sign up for the eGiving by visiting the webpage https://seasrh.org/donate

SAFEGUARDING OUR HEALTH

We thank all of you for your great cooperation in safeguarding your own health and the health of all our parishioners. Thank you for wearing your masks, sanitizing your hands and maintaining the proper social distancing. We remind you that if you are experiencing any sickness or symptoms please stay at home. You are doing us all a favor by doing so. Also, if you or anyone who accompanies you to Mass tests positive for Covid 19 or has symptoms and is waiting for results, please let us know so that we can do proper follow-up.

We are keeping track of all those attending each Mass for contact tracing purposes. With this information we will be able to contact all those attending a particular Mass if anyone at that Mass later tests positive for the coronavirus. If you have come to one of our Masses and do test positive, please, please let us know so that we can inform others. We all need to do our part to prevent the spread of this horrible disease.

We hope that we will never need to do this contacting. However, we want to be extra cautious in order to protect the health of all. Thanks again for your understanding and cooperation.

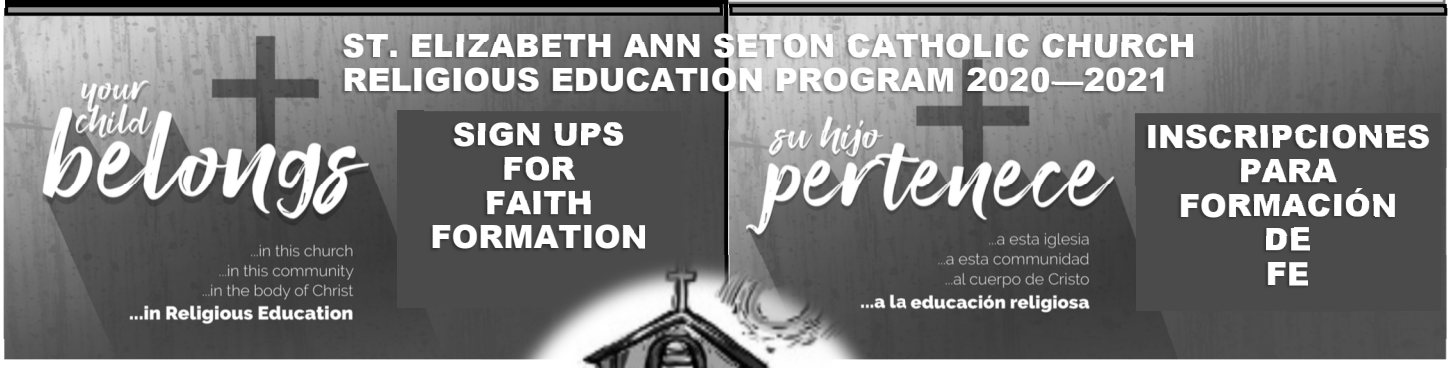
SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN

Did you know?

Get to know your child's online activities

More and more children will be relying on the internet to continue their education this year. For parents who have already instilled strict screen time guidelines, having children online for school can be cause for concern. Talk to your children about appropriate online behavior, how to know what sites they should and should not visit, what to do if they find themselves on an inappropriate site or in an exchange that makes them feel uncomfortable, as well as how they should handle themselves on social media and other online correspondence. Your child's teachers will likely have detailed plans for how to handle any online schooling. Talk to them about what apps or websites your child will need, and their plans for protecting children from cyber bullying, inappropriate contact, and other online dangers.

For more information, visit https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.



Religious Education

In these times of the coronavirus education is a real challenge. This is true in our public schools, our Catholic schools and here in our religious education classes. Complying with present directives, we will not be able to have in-person classes, at least at the beginning of our school year. However, we are here to support parents in the religious formation of your children.

Parents who are willing to work with us are encouraged to register their children by calling our Religious Education Office at (626) 965-5792 during office hours. We will supply you with the materials and support you need to begin this year's lessons. As soon as it is allowed and safe, we will begin having in-person classes. We will, of course, take all precautions to safeguard the health of all our students and catechists.

Please register your children as soon as possible so that we can know if there is sufficient response to go forward with our program. The deadline for registrations is August 31st. If you have any questions, please call our Religious Education Office at the number listed above.

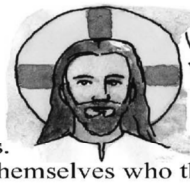
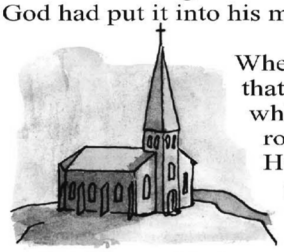
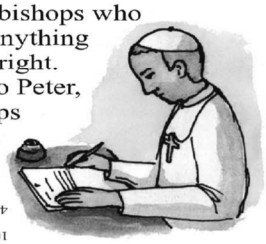
"You Are Peter."



Today in the Gospel reading, Jesus asked His disciples who people thought that He was. Everybody seemed to think He was someone special, but none of them knew who He really was. When Jesus asked the disciples themselves who they thought He was, Simon said that He was "the Christ, the Son of the living God!" Simon only knew this because God had put it into his mind.



When Simon had said this, Jesus said that his name would now be Peter, which means rock, and that on this rock He would build His Church. He made Simon Peter the first pope. He also said that the gates of Hell would not prevail against the Church. Jesus was assuring us that He would always protect the Church from error.



Now whenever the pope, or the bishops who are agreeing with the pope, teach anything about God, we know that they are right. Jesus gave the teaching authority to Peter, and he passed it down to the bishops through all the centuries until now. Isn't that pretty amazing?

EVENT AROUND THE COMMUNITY

CATHOLIC CEMETERIES & MORTUARIES

EVERLASTING FAITH. EVERLASTING LIFE.

What Will You Do?

If there's one thing we've learned these last few months, it's how quickly our lives, hopes and all our plans can be upended by forces beyond our control. Some things don't change, however, like the need to prepare for events we must all someday face.

Find out how you can make those plans now by enrolling in an online seminar, "My Father's House: What to Expect When a Loved One Dies, How to Prepare for Your Own Needs, From a Catholic Perspective." Presented by Catholic Cemeteries & Mortuaries, two events are scheduled: this Wednesday, Aug. 26, at 7 p.m., and Saturday, Aug. 29, at 11 a.m. Each program will last about 45 minutes, with a Q&A session to follow.

Everyone* needs this information, so sign up today! It's free of charge, but pre-registration is required.
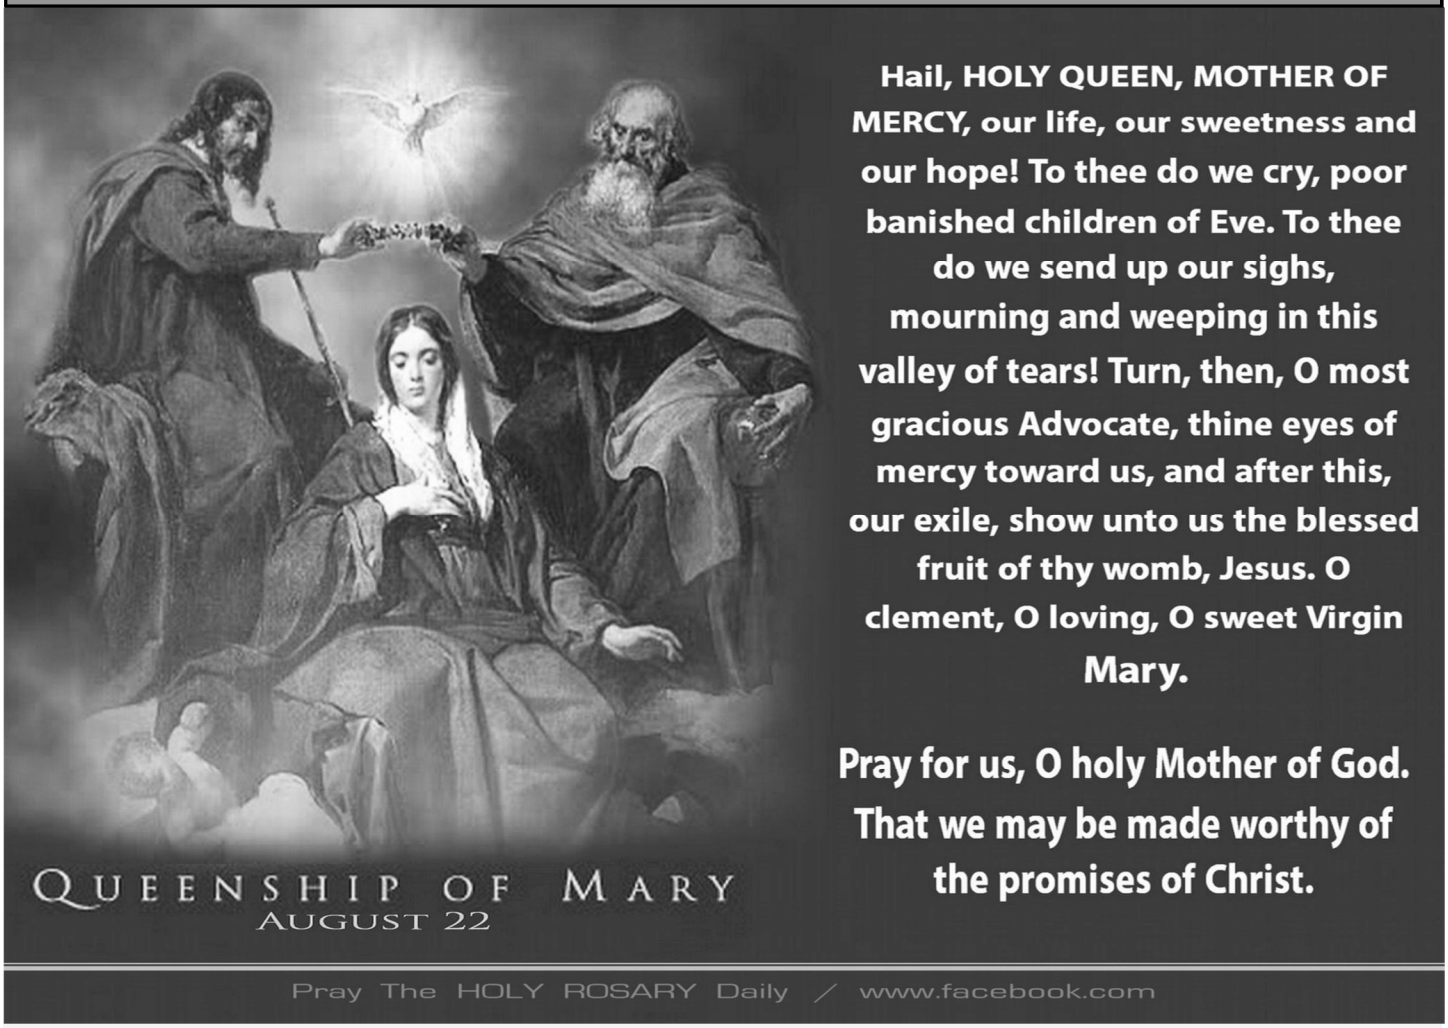
To enroll, call 213-637-7810 or email outreach@catholiccm.org/webinars.



August 22nd is the Feast of the Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This title of Our Lady, Queen of Heaven (Regina Caeli), is rooted in biblical history where the mother of Israel's king had the royal title of Queen Mother. Church Tradition holds that once Mary, the Mother of God, was assumed body and soul into heaven at the end of her earthy life, she was crowned as Queen of Heaven and Earth to reign alongside her Son, Jesus the King of Kings.
