God knows that committing to a stewardship lifestyle is difficult. However, we were not designed to do it on our own, we need His help. Fortunately, God gave us the greatest gift of all, His son, Jesus. Through the gift of the Eucharist we join our sacrifice with the sacrifice of the Holy Mass and receive the strength and courage to be His joyful disciples.

Please consider creating a Catholic legacy of support for our Parish community and/or one of its Ministries that will last forever by contacting one of The Legacy Society members who appear on the inside front cover of this bulletin. You can also call Sue Larson at the Parish Office for more information.

Real Presence Real Future

Overcoming Anger
Joseph Zaino
St. Margaret of Cortona Parish & RPRF Commission Member

"The opposite of love isn't anger, it's apathy." While this quote rings true, when the result of anger is un-love, we have reached into a sinful area just as we do when we treat our faith with little concern. Thankfully, we have the perfect role model in Christ. Paul speaks of the sinful results of anger in today's second reading. The reaction of Jesus' adversaries to Him in today's Gospel precludes the anger that will lead to His crucifixion. While anger is a natural emotion, each of us must work to channel it into greater reflections of Jesus.

A CONTEMPLATIVE MOMENT

"Contemplation is very far from being just one kind of thing that Christians do: it is the key to prayer, liturgy, art and ethics, the key to the essence of a renewed humanity that is capable of seeing the world and other subjects in the world with freedom—freedom from self-oriented, acquisitive habits and the distorted understanding that comes from them."

- Rowan Williams in an address to The Roman Catholic Synod of Bishops in 2012

Feast of St. Lawrence

FEAST DAY

St. Lawrence is one of the most beloved saints of the early Church. In Rome, only Mary has more churches named after her. His love for Jesus is most evident in his martyrdom, which has contributed to his popularity. St. Lawrence was burned on a griddle leading him to being known as the patron of cooks. In Italy, his feast is celebrated with a late evening barbecue. But if you've barbecued enough this summer, Spain honors St. Lawrence with a more refreshing approach, gazpacho. Either option would make for a traditional celebration for St. Lawrence, the patron of cooks.

Visit feastday.co for more help celebrating the feasts and seasons.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

grades PreK-8

Peggy Kehres: pkehres@cotrna.org

CREED (grades PreK-5) and RISE (grades 6-8) are our parish's weekly religious education programs for children of the parish who attend area public schools. Our mission is to meet children at their level of development, teach them the love of Christ and the joy of His forgiveness and salvation, help them learn the truth of His Word, and encourage their growth within the body of Believers. We strive to help children know Christ, understand His Word, grow in their own spiritual walk, and be able to share the love of Christ with others.

Our staff and catechists are committed to nurturing the student's spiritual and moral growth with a strong foundation in the Catholic faith, so that they may live out the Gospel of Jesus in their daily lives. More detailed information about CREED and RISE can be found on the parish website.

Registration has begun!

Classes begin the week of September 25, 2021 and run through April 27, 2022.

All registration is done through the parish website: www.cotrna.org. Please follow the link provided. Once your registration is complete, you will be directed to the WeShare page for payment. (Children of all weekly volunteers are tuition exempt).

MAKE A DIFFERENCE

I can do things you cannot, you can do things I cannot; Together we can do great things. - St. Teresa of Calcutta

Come do great things! This fall, children in grades PreK-8 will be enrolled in weekly religious education to learn more about Jesus and the Catholic faith. At this time, classes are planned to be in-person and we need volunteers to share their faith and experience serving as Catechists.

Do you LOVE Middle Schoolers? Are you interested in learning more about walking with them as they learn more about Jesus and how He fits into their lives? Then plan to attend the Information/Organization Meeting being held on Sunday, August 15th following the 11am Mass (12:30-2:00) – lunch will be served. At this time, we will go over the plan for the coming year, the curriculum being used, and discuss the different roles available for volunteers.

Questions? Contact Peggy Kehres at pkehres@cotrna.org.

CIC (Christian Initiation of Children)

Classes are available for children, grades 3 and up, who have not been baptized and/or received the Sacrament of Eucharist and have had no previous religious education. If your child falls into this category, contact Peggy in the Religious Education Office at pkehres@cotrna.org for more details.

Communion Catch-Up

The past year has been a bit crazy and for many it was difficult to keep up with religious education. We know there are children in grades 3-5 that may have missed sacramental preparation due to the pandemic. Attending Communion Catch-Up will prepare them to receive their First Eucharist in April. In addition to your child attending a grade appropriate CREED class for the 2021-2022 school year, there will be 6 sacramental preparation classes held on Wednesday evenings from 6:00-7:00pm beginning in January. There is no registration for Communion Catch-Up – you will be given additional information once your child has registered for CREED.

Thoughts on the Journey

Suanne Gettings—Pastoral Associate

August 8, 2021 - Eph 4:30-5:2

Have you ever asked yourself, "Do I cause grief to the Holy Spirit?" I honestly don't think I've ever asked myself that question, at least until I reflected on the Scripture reading from Ephesians this week. Let's face it, it's easier to take the human course of least resistance when it comes to challenges that tax our egos. Can you hear it? "I have no intention of apologizing," or "I'm going to get even with them for the harm they caused my family," or maybe, "There is no way I'm going to allow him to see my children," or a very common remark made by most of us, "That jerk just cut me off" accompanied by a distasteful finger gesture flipping out the car window. We've all been there at one time or another, after all, we're human! Right? That's probably one of the many lines that give the Holy Spirit grief, because He is constantly working behind OUR scenes for true conversion - not only to believe in Christ, but to LIVE like Christ. When we cooperate with the grace of the Spirit, He will raise the bar, bringing us closer to a deeper life in Jesus where we will find true joy, happiness, and peace.

Looking back on episodes in my life that may have caused the Spirit grief and frustration, most of them centered around my desire to soothe my anger, to prove myself right, to put someone in their place, to make someone feel less relevant so that I could feel more important - none of which reflected a life in Christ. It was the death grip on my own will that stunted my growth in Jesus. As a result, I didn't get the satisfaction or results I desired. The adages, "you get what you pay for" or "no pain, no gain" not only apply to earthly efforts, but also apply to a life of faith. Basically, when you invest nothing, you get nothing. But, when you give a concerted effort to grow, you will see transformation and conversion.

St. Paul tells us in the Letter to the Ephesians,

"Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God... be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ."

This is a tall order that requires dying to yourself and personal sacrifice.

Somewhere along the line on my journey of faith, I came across a meditation by John Henry Newman, an English theologian, scholar, and poet. He was first an Anglican priest, later a Catholic priest, and eventually a cardinal. Newman's words, in addition to the Scripture passage, remind me that my mission is to live like Jesus: to live love, compassion, mercy, kindness, putting aside bitterness, malice, anger, and hatred. He speaks of our mission in working to build the Kingdom of God.

"God has created me to do Him some definite service; He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission - I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told in the next.

I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do good. I shall do His work. I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place while not intending it - if I do but keep His Commandments.

Whatever, wherever I am, I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him; in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him; If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him. He does nothing in vain. He knows what He is about. He may take away my friends, He may throw me among strangers, He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me - still, He knows what He's about. Therefore I will trust Him."

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Let living water flow

Jesus said, "Whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink" will be rewarded (Matt. 10:42). How much more so if we champion clean water rights for all. Have you ever tried to run a bath, only to have sludge emerge from the pipes? Have you visited a familiar lake and found its normally clear water unfit for swimming? Have you gotten sick from drinking from a contaminated spring, or developed a rash from washing in your own sink? Folks around the world and in parts of our own country have had this experience often. Take time to learn what you can do locally and globally to ensure access to what Pope Francis calls a "basic and universal human right"—safe drinking water.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 19:4-8; Ephesians 4:30—5:2; John 6:41-51 (116). "Elijah looked and there at his head was a hearth cake and a jug of water."

MEMORIAL OF TERESA BENEDICTA OF THE CROSS, VIRGIN, MARTYR

Pick up a page-turner of faith

Saint Teresa Benedicta of the Cross was born Edith Stein in 1891 and was killed at Auschwitz in 1942. She was a German Jewish philosopher who had been an atheist, although she had admired Christians she knew. She shocked everyone by becoming Catholic and, 11 years later, a Carmelite nun. Her conversion was prompted by an all-night reading of the autobiography of Saint Teresa of Ávila, a 16th-century Carmelite also of Jewish origins. Pick up a copy of the autobiographies of both these riveting saints —and see how they contribute to your own ongoing conversion.

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 10:12-22; Matthew 17:22-27 (413). "And they were overwhelmed with grief."

FEAST OF LAWRENCE, DEACON, MARTYR

Find your way to serve

Lawrence was one of seven deacons martyred in Rome under Emperor Valerian in 258. The word deacon—from the Greek word for service—describes the work of these early ministers: beginning with the first seven deacons mentioned in the Acts of the Apostles, appointed to serve the everyday needs of the flock while the apostles busied themselves with evangelization. Today's Catholic deacons are ordained; permanent deacons can preach at Mass and preside over weddings, Baptisms, and funerals—while transitional deacons later become priests. Learn more at nadd.org.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 9:6-10; John 12:24-26 (618). "Where I am, there also will my servant be."

MEMORIAL OF CLARE, VIRGIN

Hope lights the way

Saint Clare, founder of the Poor Clare order of nuns, is part of a long line of women and men who gave up everything for the sake of following Christ, and, in turn, inspired others to join them on their holy journey. Often meeting significant resistance, these brave souls persevered, driven by a passion to bring God's Good News to the world. "Like a shooting star against the dark sky of injustice and ignorance, founders of religious communities lit up the landscape with a burst of hope," says Precious Blood Father Joe Nassal. Saint Gaspar, the founder of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood, like Saint Clare hoped to free people from the chains of societal conformity. Clare chose to do it within the confines of a cloister; Gaspar, as an itinerant preacher. Both were being true to themselves and the gospel. Follow your own path toward hope.

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 34:1-12; Matthew 18:15-20 (415). "His eyes were undimmed and his vigor unabated."

MEMORIAL OF JANE FRANCES DE CHANTAL, RELIGIOUS

Love lifted her higher

Jane Frances de Chantal, a French widow who founded the Visitation Nuns in 1610, was a well-off, educated woman with administrative talent and deep faith who was widowed at age 28. Obliged to live with a cruel father-in-law, she coped by pouring herself into charity work and spiritual development, eventually teaming up with Saint Francis de Sales to found a religious community. Have you ever coped with difficulties by trying to become a better person? What trial in your life could nudge you toward greater goodness?

TODAY'S READINGS: Joshua 3:7-10a, 11, 13-17; Matthew 18:21—19:1 (416). "Moved with compassion the master of that servant let him go and forgave him the loan."

Friday, Aug 13, 2021

MEMORIAL OF PONTIAN, POPE, AND HIPPOLYTUS, PRIEST, MARTYRS

What unites is greater than what divides

Pope Pontian and Hippolytus were both imprisoned in Sardinia during Roman persecutions. Before their deaths in 235, Pontian and Hippolytus reconciled, because for a time the two were archenemies. Indeed, Hippolytus had been elected antipope by his followers who were in stark opposition to Pontian's tolerant stance on reconciling returning Christians to the church. In the end, Pontian and Hippolytus realized that their shared love of Christ far surpassed any differences. Finding one common element with an enemy is the first step toward reconciliation. Perhaps we can start with our shared humanity and work our way from there.

TODAY'S READINGS: Joshua 24:1-13; Matthew 19:3-12 (417). "I gave you a land that you had not tilled and cities that you had not built, to dwell in."

Saturday, Aug 14, 2021

MEMORIAL OF MAXIMILIAN KOLBE, PRIEST, MARTYR

Give a piece of your heart

Maximilian Kolbe shook up the rules for saint-making. At Kolbe's 1982 canonization, Pope John Paul II named him a "martyr of charity." No longer could one become a martyr only by being killed because of "hatred for the faith." Now one killed because of charitable work, as Maximilian was, could also be a martyr. This opened the door to sainthood for others who were murdered for their good work, like Notre Dame Sister Dorothy Stang of Brazil, the Adorers of the Blood of Christ sisters of Liberia, or the Maryknoll sisters of El Salvador. We are all called in some way to be martyrs, even if we give away only a part of our lives. Give away a piece of your life today.

TODAY'S READINGS: Joshua 24:14-29; Matthew 19:13-15 (418). "Let the children come to me, and do not prevent them; for the Kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

Jesus is Calling  Hear Us, O Lord

We pray in thanksgiving for the Sacrament of Holy Orders given to Father Eugene Joseph on Thursday, the 22nd of July, 2021. The following is taken from the Prayer of Consecration prayed at his ordination:

> Almighty Father, grant to this servant of Yours the dignity of the priesthood. Renew within him the Spirit of holiness. As a co-worker with the order of bishops, may he be faithful to the ministry that he receives from You, Lord God, and be to others a model of right conduct. May he be faithful to working with the order of bishops so that the words of the Gospel may reach the ends of the earth, and the family of nations, made one in Christ, may become God's one, holy people.
