Blessed Lord, accept this burning candle as a sign of my faith and love for You. Like this candle, I am ready to be used in your service without asking why and to what purpose. Even as this candle, I wish to stand in Your presence and to be consumed in the light and warmth of our Love. Please hear my prayer and, if it is Your will, grant my petition. But above all, make me loyal and faithful to You in all circumstances of my life. Amen.

Let Us Pray! O Lord, giver of life and source of freedom, I know that all I have received is from your hand. Gracious and loving God, You call us to be stewards of Your abundance, the caretakers of all you have entrusted to us. Help us to always use Your gifts wisely and teach us to share them generously. We pray with grateful hearts, in Jesus' name. Amen.

BULLETIN HOLDERS

Copies of our bulletin can now be picked up outside any of our church buildings or offices. Look for the little white pick-up boxes at or near the entrances.

We almost never talk religion at family gatherings for the sake of Peace but there come times when the truth must be spoken and we must challenge one another.

If we truly love one another we will continue to challenge one another and allow ourselves to be challenged. But we must do it in the spirit of Faith, Hope, and Love and not anger, unkindness and with foul language. Only then can we speak the truth and work together to live Christ's Command to, "Love One Another."

Today, we celebrate what will become our new parish feast day, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. As I thought about my article this week, I could not help but to feel overwhelmed by everything that has been happening in our world with the pandemic, our nation with the unrest, riots and injustice and even in our own parish community with the constant changes that are part of merging and reorganizing and the anxiety and unrest that comes with it. I find myself praying even more for peace and understanding everywhere. Imagine if we, as Christians, were to start greeting everyone we encounter with the kiss of peace Paul speaks about in the second reading. The kiss of peace does not have to be a physical kiss or embrace but a spiritual kiss spoken in words or gesture, kindness and patience, love and understanding. Imagine if we start encouraging one another and trying to see and understand each other's perspective. Imagine trying to always find mutual ground to agree with one another so as to live in peace. Imagine if we were to, at least, do these things with fellow Christians and fellow parishioners, the example we could set for others. It doesn't happen often but this past week has really shaken my spirit and my faith. Not just watching what is unfolding in our country and even our own city but receiving personal attacks from parishioners in the form of hate mail, hate email and hate phone messages over things that are happening in our parish. What is happening to us!? I know we are not perfect, including me, but we must be civil, understanding and loving if we are TRULY Christian or we simply appear to be nothing but hypocrites in an already troubled nation and world. I would imagine that there may be some who will not be happy that I even addressed this in my article but I am appealing to you, my parish family, with the words taken from the second reading. "Brothers and sisters, let us mend our ways, let us encourage one another, agree with one another and live in peace, so that the God of Love and Peace will be with us and our nation. Let us greet one another with a Holy kiss so that the Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the Love of God and the Fellowship of the Holy Spirit can be with us all and with our nation."

"Learn to Love without condition.
Talk without bad intention.
Give without any reason.
And most of all,
Care for people without any expectation."

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

Over the last two weeks, you most likely received a ROBO-CALL from me. The caller ID will show the name Holy Apostles because I make the calls from my parish office. The system is very useful to share information with all of our parishioners but especially those who do not have Facebook, email or access to the parish web site. Please know that your phone numbers are kept confidential and cannot and will not be sold to other vendors for sales calls. Also, should you wish to not receive further calls, you can immediately choose the "OPT OUT" option when you receive the call. If you are not receiving calls and would like to, please call the parish office. We can make sure we have the correct phone number for you. Please be kind when calling.

Last week, I shared information about the possible sale of the former St. Sylvester School building and the convent building, to the Brentwood School District. I spoke about the school building at Mass and at our parish assemblies however, since then, the district showed interest in the convent as well. Unfortunately, the pandemic hit us and I did not have the opportunity to share that development with parishioners. That was the reason for the robocall.

I understand many of you have questions about the details and as soon as we have more details and plans, I will be sharing them with you. Please be patient and know that we are working in the best interest of the parish and future of the parish and the community. Keep watching the website, the bulletin and the newsletter for more follow up.

With some parishes in the diocese beginning to open their churches for Masses, many of our parishioners are wondering why we are not following suit at the same time. The answer is simply that we still do not have the equipment to do so safely. Equipment has been ordered but, as you can imagine, is on back-order with the suppliers. As soon as we can open safely and without causing total chaos, we will begin to do so.

This weekend, Mass will be streamed from St. Sylvester Church Sunday at 11:00 AM.

DEACON MIKE'S CORNER

We now come together to worship with our new name of "Blessed Trinity Parish". For me, it seems to be so appropriate. When we come to Mass, we summon the Trinity as we make the sign of the cross, "in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit." In the Gloria and our opening prayers, which are addressed to the Father, and we offer them through Jesus Christ "in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever."

Our creed describes what we believe about the oneness of God, who is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. In the central act of Mass, we ask the Father to send the Spirit, so that our bread and wine become the body and blood of Christ, his Son. Our faith is Trinitarian from the beginning to the end. In our creed we describe three divine persons who are "consubstantial – eternal – each adored and glorified," and yet, one God.

This is a fundamental mystery of our faith. God is greater than we can ever know and yet he revealed himself to us through his Son. Our Triune God is above all things. We know and understand that we will never fully comprehend this mystery until we are one with our God in heaven. But as we attempt to live this mystery of love and unity, I really can think of no better way to tell our community who we are and what we believe. So, I encourage all to embrace our new name, let it empower each of us to live as his faithful disciples, in the unity and love of our Triune God.

DEACON TIM'S BOOK & MOVIE REVIEW

The Cross and the Switchblade is a movie that I always wanted to review for our bulletin. With the events of the past week or so, I offer this movie review to show that God can overcome hatred and violence.

This movie was released in 1970 and it was based on the 1963 book by the same title. This movie is a true story and it stars Pat Boone and a young Eric Estrada, who made his film debut in this movie. Pat Boone plays David Wilkerson, who came to New York to talk to the gangs about Jesus Christ. In doing so, he meets Little Bo, a streetwise young girl who takes him to meet the leaders of the gangs. Some politely listen to his message, but Nicky, played by Eric Estrada does not want any part of the message. David Wilkerson is blessed to meet the pastor of a small church, and he and his family allow David and Little Bo to stay with them.

The gang violence continues to get worse. One gang even attacked another gang at the burial of one of its members. David seeks the help of the police and his friends from this small church to hold a revival, in hopes of turning the hearts of the gang members. He even asks the police not to patrol the area, so that the kids will feel safe to come. The gangs hear of this plan, and agree to come, but to use this meeting to hold a last man standing, battle to the end.

In the end, God wins, and again, the events in this movie are a true story. In real life, Nicky changed so much that he went to Bible college to become a minister.

I give this raw, but wonderful story Four Beards out of Five Beards. My only reason for not giving it Five Beards is because of the background drug use and promiscuity. I would not recommend this for young children, but since it shows an undying belief that God can turn hatred into love, and He did, I encourage all adults to watch this movie.
