From the Desk of Fr. Angelbert

"The Rosary is a prayer that always accompanies me; it is also the prayer of the ordinary people and the saints … it is a prayer from my heart." - Pope Francis

Happy 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time on the 3rd of October 2021. Like the month of May, October is another month dedicated by the Catholic Church to the praying of the rosary and to devotion to Our Blessed Mother – who is also the perfect example of being a True Disciple: humble, full of grace, willing to surrender to the will of God in her life and always ready to partner with Joseph (her spouse) to foster the bond of love in the Holy Family of Nazareth.

Praying the rosary is a deep spiritual Catholic tradition that has lasted way over 700 years, with uncountable miracles and constant apparitions of the Blessed Virgin Mary, requesting that the rosary be prayed daily. And many of us in our parish do pray the rosary daily… in fact, we have a Rosary Group that prays daily after mass, we have a Hispanic Rosary Group that prays virtually (due to the pandemic) every Tuesday, and our very own Pastor: Fr. Mark, offers us the possibility of praying the rosary together as a community online on Facebook Livestream on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, bilingually.

However, as we begin this month of October, this month in which our Blessed Mother appeared to the children in Fatima and encouraged them to pray the rosary every day to obtain peace for our world, we want to invite all of us to a special Mass to our Lady of Guadalupe, at 7:00 pm on October 8th, 2021. This mass is intended to gather special and particular intentions we wish pray for. Also, the mass will begin a Spiritual Life Flow of FIRST FRIDAY MONTHLY MASSES devoted to praying for our special intentions. We are invited to write these intentions on pieces of papers that would be burned at the end of mass, as spiritual symbolic offerings of our petitions to our Lady, as we serenade our Lady with Marian chants and hymns. Would this not be an amazing spiritual culture for our parish to connect monthly to the deep blessings and graces of Our Lady of Guadalupe, as we look forward in prayerful anticipation, over the next years, to the 500th Anniversary (Quincentenary) of her apparition?

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ, as we engage our different devotions to Our Blessed Mother in this month of October, and also through the Rosary, we are invited to experience the grace of Mary's exemplary life in the Holy Family and her spiritual motherhood. May we also invite her into our families; for where the Mother visits, she visits with Her Son - Jesus. Amen.

"There is no problem, I tell you, no matter how difficult it is, that we cannot solve by the prayer of the Holy Rosary." - Sr. Lucia of Fatima

Desde el Escritorio del Padre Angelbert

"El Rosario es una oración que siempre me acompaña; también es la oración de la gente ordinaria y de los santos ... es una oración de mi corazón". - Papa Francisco

¡Feliz XXVII domingo del tiempo ordinario! Así como el mes de mayo, octubre es otro mes dedicado por la Iglesia católica al rezo del rosario y a honrar a nuestra Santísima Madre, quien es también el ejemplo perfecto de ser una Verdadera Discípula: humilde, llena de gracia, dispuesta a entregar su vida a la voluntad de Dios y siempre lista a caminar unida a José (su esposo) para fomentar el vínculo de amor en la Sagrada Familia de Nazaret.

Rezar el rosario es una profunda y espiritual tradición católica que ha durado más de 700 años, con incontables milagros y constantes apariciones de la Santísima Virgen María, en donde nos pide que recemos el rosario diariamente. Y muchos de nosotros en nuestra parroquia rezamos el rosario todos los días... de hecho, tenemos un grupo que reza diario el rosario, después de la misa de 8:30 a.m., otro grupo que reza el rosario en español todos los martes vía online a través de zoom (debido a la pandemia) y nuestro propio párroco el P. Mark, nos ofrece la posibilidad de rezar el rosario bilingüe juntos, como comunidad todos los lunes, miércoles y viernes a través de nuestra página de Facebook.

Por eso, al iniciar este mes de octubre, en el que nuestra Santísima Madre se apareció a los niños en Fátima y los animó a rezar el rosario todos los días para obtener la paz para nuestro mundo, queremos invitar a toda la comunidad a asistir y participar en una Misa especial en honor de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, el día 8 de octubre del 2021, a las 7:00pm., con la intención de poner nuestras necesidades particulares e intenciones especiales por las que deseamos orar, a los pies de Mamá María. Además, sabemos que comenzará un Flujo de Vida Espiritual para seguir celebrando esta MISA MENSUALMENTE, cada primer viernes de mes. Invitándolos a escribir sus intenciones en una hoja de papel que será quemada al final de la misa, como ofrenda espiritual simbólica de nuestras peticiones a la Virgen, mientras le damos una serenata con cantos e himnos marianos. ¿No sería esta una cultura espiritual maravillosa para que nuestra parroquia se conecte mensualmente con las bendiciones y gracias profundas de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, al tiempo que nos preparamos para celebrar los 500 años de su Aparición en América?

Mis queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo, mientras elevamos nuestras diversas oraciones a nuestra Santísima Madre en este mes de octubre, y rezamos el Santo Rosario, estamos invitados a experimentar la gracia de la vida ejemplar de María en la Sagrada Familia y su maternidad espiritual. Ojalá que también la invitemos a entrar en nuestra familia; porque donde se hace presente la Madre también se hace presente su hijo. Amén.

"No hay problema, por más difícil que sea, que no podamos resolver por el rezo del Santo Rosario." - Sor Lucia de Fátima

Liturgy Corner

Human and Divine by Deborah Ferry
(taken from commentary on today's Second Reading)

This weekend we begin reading from the Letter to the Hebrews. We will hear from Hebrews until the last Sunday before the end of this Liturgical Year B. As early as the second century, this treatise bore the title "To the Hebrews." It was assumed to be directed to Jewish Christians. Although no author is mentioned (for there is no address), a reference to Timothy suggested connections to Paul and his assistants. Yet the exact audience, the author, and even whether Hebrews is a letter have long been disputed.

Hebrews is part of the early Church's effort to understand Christ as both human and divine. The opening alludes to Psalm 8 (quoted in the verses immediately preceding this text) that speaks of humans as made little less than the angels, crowned "with glory and honor," and given authority over all things. The author of Hebrews applies this text to Jesus who, for "a little while," embraced all the limitations of humanity, except the sinfulness common to us all, in order that he might "taste death for everyone." In any age, faith in Christ is a radical departure from the ways of the world. Even at the time of this letter, the author perceives an erosion of faith among his readers, a danger that came not from external threats of persecution, but from their own inertia – the weakness of their resolve to live the Christian life. Somewhat scandalized by Jesus' humanity and especially his suffering, they have begun to stray.

So the author presents Jesus as the high priest through whom all who follow him are consecrated as he was. Made perfect by his obedience, Jesus now intercedes for us, restores our tepid faith, and brings us to perfection. Jesus became our high priest by becoming one of us. Thus the one who consecrates, Jesus, and those being consecrated, us, share a common origin – God, our Father. Jesus is not ashamed to claim us as his own, because now and forever, he is our brother.

Palabra Que Da La Vida

«Se acercaron unos fariseos y le preguntaron a Jesús para ponerlo a prueba: ¿Le es lícito a un hombre divorciarse de su mujer? Él les replicó: … Lo que Dios ha unido que no lo separe el hombre.» (Mc 10, 2-9)

El Evangelio de esta semana trata del siempre difícil y siempre actual problema del divorcio. La prueba de su dificultad está en que los fariseos se lo plantearon a Jesús "para ponerlo a prueba". Sabían de la misericordia del Señor y buscaban ponerle en un aprieto, teniendo que decidir entre el complacer a los que buscan en el divorcio una solución a su fracaso matrimonial y el respeto a la ley divina.

Jesús da una sentencia que no deja lugar a dudas: "Lo que Dios ha unido, que no lo separe el hombre". Pero no se conforma con eso. Antes, incluso, de afirmar esa defensa rotunda del vínculo matrimonial habla del amor, que se manifiesta en que los dos, la esposa y el esposo, llegan a ser una sola carne. De eso, precisamente, se tratará esta semana: de fomentar todo aquello que contribuye al amor, que favorece el amor. Las rupturas matrimoniales no llegan como por encanto, sino que se van gestando poco a poco. Antes de la ruptura definitiva hay mil pequeños desencuentros cotidianos. Es como si una gruesa soga formada por mil hebras de hilo fuera deshaciéndose hasta que ya no queda nada más que una fina unión que se rompe con un último golpe. Se trata, pues, de aplicar una medicina preventiva. Se trata de creer en el matrimonio, tanto desde el punto de vista social como desde el sacramental. Y porque se cree en el valor del matrimonio para toda la vida y en el valor de la familia es por lo que merece la pena sacrificarse por ellos. Sin olvidar que, si bien la familia tiene un precio, el divorcio y la ruptura tiene otro, que suele ser más caro.

Propósito: Analizar cuál es la situación en la propia familia y qué se puede hacer para mejorarla, así como qué hay que evitar para que no se deteriore. Cuídala siempre, sobre todo cuando estás a tiempo.
e con respecto a ti. No aceptes el pecado, pero acoge al pecador.

Pbro. Santiago Martin (FM) Responsable MARC

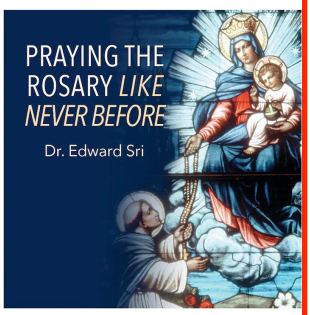
PRAYING THE ROSARY LIKE NEVER BEFORE BY DR. EDWARD SRI



In this Lighthouse Talk, Sri discusses the main tenets of his book, The New Rosary in Scripture: Biblical Insights on Praying the Twenty Mysteries. Dr. Sri shares Pope St. John Paul II's practical strategies for praying the Rosary better so you can encounter Jesus more deeply in prayer.

CLARE AND FRANCIS

This outstanding movie is unique among films about St. Francis because of the historical accuracy of the story and its authentic spirit of joy and piety so characteristic of Francis, as well as the major role played by Clare, who is given equal stature with him. Both found major religious orders, and together they inspire many to follow their radical call to live the Gospel. Their impact has reached across the centuries to change the world.
