Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

GOD'S SUMMONS. Confronted with God's power and majesty, the first response of the prophet Isaiah was to acknowledge his sinfulness. "Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips," he said aloud. Likewise, with his empty fishing nets dramatically filled at Jesus' instruction, Peter fell to his knees and cried out, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." Next, Peter got up. He docked his boats then left to follow Jesus. Isaiah also had a dramatic change of heart. When he heard the Lord say, "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" Isaiah answered, "Here I am, send me."

We are summoned daily by the Risen Lord. We are reminded of the saving power of the gospel and know in our heart of hearts that, as St. Paul wrote, believing in anything else won't lead to anything.

What will it take for you to move past your sinfulness? What will it take for you to get off your knees? What will it take for you to bring to dock what is unimportant and to accept your call to be God's messenger?

A NOTE FROM JULIE WESTON, COORDINATOR

After receiving important information and recommendations provided by Bishop Guglielmone and the CDC, Father Dennis has chosen to suspend distribution of the Precious Blood during this flu season. Beginning with this weekend's Masses, we will not need Extra-Ordinary Ministers of the Precious Blood. We will still need Bread Ministers serving the Precious Body of Christ. Please draw comfort in knowing that receiving the Precious Body is also to receive the fullness of the Lord - Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity.

Please Keep in Your Prayers

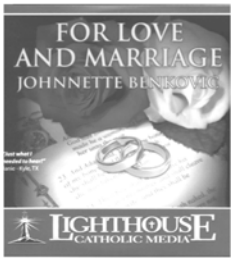
Lighthouse Catholic Ministry
Marital Conversion



For those of us called to the vocation of marriage, our faith journeys are intimately interconnected with the faith journeys of our spouses. Johnnette Benkovic, author and host of EWTN's Women of Grace, shares the story of her conversion back to Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church and the struggles that followed when her husband didn't share her faith.

She explains how the Lord blessed her in unexpected ways and, through the promptings of His Holy Spirit, showed her how she could better love her spouse through it all.

(Books and CDs located in the Vollkommer Bell Tower and the lobby in the Parish Offices Complex).

Stewardship
A Way of Life

Our readings today remind us of the great privilege we have in calling ourselves both children and disciples of the most high God.

The First Reading, from Isaiah, describes a vision of the prophet in which angels surround the Lord proclaiming, "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts! All the earth is filled with his glory!" Our God invites us to such deep intimacy and friendship with Him that sometimes we can forget just how majestic and unspeakably holy He truly is.

In the Gospel passage, from Luke, Jesus instructs Simon to lower his nets for a catch despite an unsuccessful night of fishing. Peter is skeptical but obeys and is amazed at the catch of fish that he makes. He kneels down before Jesus in astonishment.

This sense of awe and reverence before God should motivate us to deepen our stewardship way of life. As we contemplate the holiness of God, we come to a heightened awareness of what a privilege it is that He has chosen to include us in His work of spreading the Gospel to others through the grateful sharing of the gifts He has given us. Aware of this privilege, we will then make the words of Isaiah our own: "Here I am Lord, send me!"

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 10, 2019

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying,
"Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?"
"Here I am, "I said, "send me!"

~ Isaiah 6:8

DIABETES SUPPORT MINISTRY NIGHT CHANGED TO 4TH THURSDAYS IN THE FAMILY LIFE CENTER

You are invited to attend if you are able. The Diabetes Support Group meets the fourth Thursday of the month, in the Family Life Center from 6:30-7:30 pm. It is an interactive discussion about whatever the attendees wish to ask, discuss or share. Open to anyone with any type of diabetes/pre-diabetes or anyone who loves and supports someone with the disease. While no medical advice will be given, topics of discussion may include making healthy choices for our minds, bodies and spirits, anger management, diabetes burnout, etc. This is a no-judgement zone. No one "gets diabetes" until they get it. We can support each other with understanding and reminders of our faith to help us cope and manage this condition. Contact: Lil Hayes 803-422-7473.
