RECTORY HOURS

SATURDAY & SUNDAY:
9:00 am - 1:00 pm

In place of my article this week, I want to share with you a letter from our new principal. May God bless Ms. Catherine Scotkovsky as she joins the family of St. Eugene Parish

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

As the new principal of St. Eugene, I am honored and excited to assume this role and continue to grow the school academically, spiritually and as a school community. Although I only started a few weeks ago, it is already apparent to me that this is a caring and welcoming community.

I am a lifelong resident of the northwest side of Chicago. I spent the first 25 years of my teaching career as an elementary school teacher at St. James School in Highwood, IL. During that time, I had the opportunity to teach many subjects (physical education, math, science, and religion) to many different grade-leveled students. I also had the opportunity to coach and serve as the St. James Athletic Director for over 15 years. In 2012, I became the principal at St. Ladislaus School. While at St. Ladislaus, I had the incredible opportunity to work with a school community that was in need of a leader that could bring change to the school. Collaborating with the members of the school community, we worked to improve academics, technology, and the marketing of St. Lad's while also encouraging parents to become active participants in their child's education.

Regarding my management philosophy, I am a firm believer in two-way, open communication. Your input is invaluable to St. Eugene and I want to hear your feedback — the good, the bad and the ugly! Working together collaboratively, we can continue to achieve a positive atmosphere in the school and the community.

Working together, I know we will be able to cultivate an environment that allows the students of today to become the leaders of tomorrow. This is my invitation to you — please join me as we continue to strive to make St. Eugene School the model that all other schools emulate.

Blessings and Peace,

Catherine Scotkovsky

THIS WEEKENDBLESSING OF EXPECTANT MOTHERS
AFTER THE 9:30 AM MASS*SHROUD OF TURIN EXHIBIT
(see page 5)*THE BEGINNING OF EVERYTHING

Everyone recognizes the truth of good proverbs, and so they endure from generation to generation. The Russians have a surprisingly bold one that fits this Sunday's Gospel: "Bread is the beginning of everything."

Judging from the first reading, Elijah might have felt that it was too late for bread—too late for life itself. This great prophet was at the end of his rope and endurance. Then, not one, but two angels visit him. One offers food and drink. The other gives startling directions. For Elijah, this food from the angels is bread for his journey. On the strength of the heaven-sent gift of food, he walks to the mountain of God.

In today's Gospel, Jesus offers himself, not just as bread for the journey, but as bread for life itself. He gives his flesh as life for the world. "I am the bread of life" (John 6:48). He is the beginning of everything.

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

As the deer longs for streams of water, so my soul longs for you, O God. Psalm 42,2

The Shroud of Turin has long been venerated by the faithful, and is believed by many to be the burial cloth of Jesus of Nazareth. It is one of the most scientifically studied religious icons in history. As science has advanced over the last few decades, so has the speculation on how the image of the Man of the Shroud was made. This traveling exhibit details the history and various aspects of the shroud, and includes as its centerpiece, a full-length photographic image of the shroud itself.

DRESS APPROPRIATELY FOR MASS

As warm weather is here, we would like to remind everyone that Sunday Mass is the most important and solemn event of the week. It is not an "informal occasion." As a consequence, the appropriate attire for Mass should be characterized by modesty, dignity, and elegance. Clothing suitable for a picnic, or for the beach, can indicate a lack of respect for the Eucharistic Sacrifice.

A REMINDER

To make sure a Mass Intention is included in the bulletin, it must be made 2 weeks in advance. To make sure a Mass Intention is read at Mass, it must be made at least 1 week in advance of the date requested.

PLEASE NOTE:

The designated multi-intentional Mass times will be the 9:00 morning Mass on Wednesday, and the 11:30 morning Mass on Sunday. Multi-intentional Masses will have no more than 30 names.

THE ASSUMPTION OF THE VIRGIN MARY

To be with Mary in heaven

Some days we'd like to be assumed into heaven with Mary and avoid life's pain. Until our days are spent, however, our vocation must focus on this earth, saying as she said "Be it done unto me according to Your will." May this feast day remind us not only of Mary's Assumption into Heaven, but also of her blessed obedience and willingness to serve right where she was. May her example light our road as we travel toward the day we rejoin her in heaven.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In an age given to slogan T-shirts, one of the last bastions of “dressing up” is the wedding. Everyone seems to stretch toward the old ideal of “Sunday best” for these moments. In our tradition, clothing is immensely important. Coming out of the baptismal water, we are immediately vested with a white garment. “You have clothed yourself in Christ,” the new Christian is told, and a white garment is the token of being born into God’s family. Sadly, this is the last time most Christians wear this garb until their funeral, when the family spreads a pall as a reminder of baptismal identity.

Increasingly today, we are seeing the alb as the proper garb for liturgical ministers, men and women. In ancient Rome, sleeveless tunics of varying colors were worn by everyone, and so at baptism the new Christians could be expected to wear their new garb under their everyday clothes. Sleeves were a problem for ancient Romans, who thought they were a barbarian fashion. As is so often the case, eventually the barbarians won the day, and by the third century the long-sleeved garment worn by ministers today was familiar liturgical garb.

SAINT CLARE

August 11

Young Clare came from a very wealthy family in Assisi, Italy. One day she heard Brother Francis preach about the way God cares for the lilies of the field and the birds of the air. They don't have to worry about what to wear or what to eat. Our loving God cares for each of these little creatures.

Clare prayed and thought about this. She decided to leave her house and family and live simply, like Francis. She spent her life praying and caring for the poor. Many other women came to join her in the convent she established, including her own sisters and her widowed mother. Today there are still women who choose to live a life of poverty and service as St. Clare and her sisters in religion did almost eight hundred years ago. They are called Poor Clare Sisters. St. Clare's memorial day is August 11.

Let's make a pinwheel to remind ourselves that God cares for us, too. You will need:

A square piece of paper
A drinking straw
A straight pin
A pencil with an eraser on it
Scissors
Markers or crayons

Fold the paper along the lines in the diagram and mark the center dot.

Decorate the paper with flowers and birds on both sides.

Cut from each corner to one inch away from the center dot.

Fold corner A to center A, corner B to center B, and so on.

Overlap the tips into the center and stick the pin into them.

Place a one-inch piece of the straw on the pin and then stick it into the pencil's eraser. The straw will allow the pinwheel to spin when you blow on it.

Write the words GOD CARES FOR US on the tips of the pinwheel.

We ask all of our parishioners, if you have a loved one serving in the military, to please contact the rectory office to give us the name of the soldier, so the whole parish can pray for your loved one.

A book in the church vestibule is available for inscribing the names of all military personnel. This book will be part of the offertory procession from now until the war is over.

A PRAYER

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
