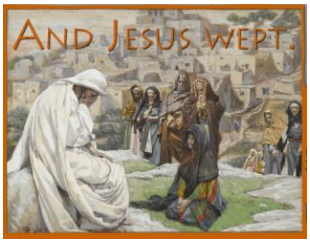
5TH SUNDAY—LENT



In today's Gospel, we watch as Jesus calls Lazarus forth from the tomb. Jesus actually brings Lazarus forth from the tomb, though he had been dead for four days. But because Lazarus eventually would die once more, it is not until God raises Jesus from the dead that death is defeated, is rendered powerless, once and for all.

The first voice Lazarus hears when his life is restored is his Savior's, calling to him to come out of the tomb, to come back to the land of the living. When we turn away from God, when we turn away from our neighbor in need (where Jesus may always be found), we find ourselves in a spiritual death, entering the tomb that separates us from God.

Jesus is always calling us forth, out of those bands that separate us from God and others, back to the land of the living. God gives new life, life that triumphs over death. "I am the resurrection and the life," Jesus testifies to Martha and testifies to us.

On this final Sunday of Lent before Palm Sunday, let us listen, let us respond, and let the Spirit dwelling in us guide us to life in the Lord.

If we have Jesus within us and Jesus is indeed the resurrection and the life, then we have the resurrection and the life within us.

Question of the Week

What spiritual darkness is Jesus calling me to come out of today? What difficulties can I anticipate in shedding these burial bands that separate me from God's grace?

5° DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

En el Evangelio de hoy, vemos cómo Jesús llama a Lázaro fuera de la tumba. Jesús en realidad saca a Lázaro de la tumba, aunque había estado muerto durante cuatro días. Pero debido a que Lázaro finalmente moriría una vez más, no es hasta que Dios resucita a Jesús de entre los muertos que la muerte es derrotada, se vuelve impotente, de una vez por todas.

La primera voz que escucha Lázaro cuando su vida es restaurada es la de su Salvador, llamándolo a salir de la tumba, a regresar a la tierra de los vivos. Cuando nos alejamos de Dios, cuando nos alejamos de nuestro prójimo en necesidad (donde siempre se puede encontrar a Jesús), nos encontramos en una muerte espiritual, entrando en la tumba que nos separa de Dios.

Jesús siempre nos está llamando, fuera de esas ataduras que nos separan de Dios y de los demás, de vuelta a la tierra de los vivos. Dios da vida nueva, vida que vence a la muerte. "Yo soy la resurrección y la vida", testifica Jesús a Marta y nos testifica a nosotros.

En este último domingo de Cuaresma antes del Domingo de Ramos, escuchemos, respondamos y dejemos que el Espíritu que mora en nosotros nos guíe a la vida en el Señor. Si tenemos a Jesús dentro de nosotros y Jesús es en verdad la resurrección y la vida, entonces tenemos la resurrección y la vida dentro de nosotros.

Pregunta de la Semana

¿De qué oscuridad espiritual me está llamando Jesús a salir hoy? ¿Qué dificultades puedo anticipar al deshacerme de estas ataduras funerarias que me separan de la gracia de Dios?
