Prayer in the Time of the Coronavirus
Most Reverend José H. Gomez
Archbishop of Los Angeles

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe, Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas. We fly to you today as your beloved children.
We ask you to intercede for us with your Son,
as you did at the wedding in Cana.

Pray for us, loving Mother, and gain for our nation and world, and for all our families and loved ones, the protection of your holy angels, that we may be spared the worst of this illness.
For those already afflicted, we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance. Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust.

In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind. Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts.

We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother, health of the sick and cause of our joy.
Shelter us under the mantle of your protection, keep us in the embrace of your arms,
help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus.
Amen.

Oración en el tiempo del coronavirus
Monseñor José H. Gomez Arzobispo de Los Ángeles

Santa Virgen de Guadalupe, Reina de los ángeles y Madre de las Américas, Acudimos a ti hoy como tus amados hijos.
Te pedimos intercedas por nosotros ante tu Hijo, así como lo hiciste en las Bodas de Caná.

Ora por nosotros, amorosa Madre, y obtén para nuestra nación y para el mundo, y para todas nuestras familias y nuestros seres queridos, la protección de tus santos ángeles, que seamos librados de lo peor de esta enfermedad. Para aquellos que ya están afligidos, te pedimos que obtengas la gracia de la sanación. Escucha el lamento de quienes están vulnerables y temerosos, limpia sus lágrimas y ayúdales a confiar.

En este tiempo de prueba, enséñanos a todos en la Iglesia a amarnos unos a otros y a ser pacientes y amables. Ayúdanos a traer la paz de Jesús a nuestra tierra y a nuestros corazones.

Venimos a ti con confianza, sabiendo que tú eres realmente nuestra madre compasiva, la sanación de los enfermos y la causa de nuestra alegría. Danos albergue bajo el manto de tu protección, mantennos bajo tu abrazo, ayúdanos siempre a conocer el amor de tu Hijo, Jesús.
Amén.

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Hospitality Ministry

The men and women who minister in this area make Mass an enjoyable experience for all who attend. They greet and seat people, take up the Collections, select a family to bring up the Gifts, direct the Communion Procession, and pass out bulletins. If you would be interested in serving in this way call Linda DeBerry in the office.

Las personas que deseen servir en este ministerio sea hombre y/o mujer harán que la Misa sea una experiencia agradable para todos aquellos que la atiendan. Ellos saludan y acomodan a las personas, recogen la Colecta, eligen a la familia que va llevar las Ofrendas, dirigen la Procesión de la Comunión, y distribuyen los boletines. Si usted está interesado(a) en servir en esa forma por favor llamar a Linda DeBerry a la oficina.

ꕥ

Respect Life

The purpose of this committee is to pray and inform parishioners of Respect Life concerns. They promote and defend the sanctity of all human life and family life in our community and around the world through prayer, service and education. They hold Blood Drives every April and October in the parish. Volunteers are always welcome to join. For more info call Terry Trew at 576-6611.

ꕥ

Lector Ministry

A Lector proclaims the Word of God at Mass. To become a Lector, you must be a fully initiated Catholic. If married, you must be married in the Catholic Church. Good reading and public speaking skills are required. Training for approved applicants is provided. Annual opportunities for continuing formation are mandatory. Volunteers are always welcome. To join call Linda DeBerry in the office.

El Lector proclama la Palabra de Dios en la Misa. Para ser un Lector, usted debe ser haber completado los Sacramentos de la Iglesia. Si es casado, usted debe haber sido casado en la Iglesia Católica. Se proveerá entrenamiento para los candidatos aprobados. Oportunidades anuales para continuar su formación es obligatorio. Para mas información llamar Reyna Franco al 622-3374.

Music Ministry

Music is vital to the liturgy - it enhances God's Word and is a wonderful means of worship and praise and it gives an individual even more opportunity to be a full and active participant at Mass. It reflects our unity as a universal Church and gives glory and praise to God by leading the assembly in sung prayer. Volunteers to sing or play an instrument are always welcome. To join this ministry call the Office of Liturgy & Spirituality.

Prayer to Our Lady, Health of the Sick During the Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary,
You shine continuously on our journey
as a sign of salvation and hope.
We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick,
who, at the Cross,
united with Jesus' pain,
keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman people, know what we need,
and we trust that you will provide for those needs so that,
as at Cana of Galilee,
joy and celebration may return
after this moment of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the will of the Father and to do what Jesus tells us.
He who took our suffering upon Himself, and burdened Himself with our sorrows
to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of Resurrection. Amen.

We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God.
Do not despise our pleas — we who are put to the test — and deliver us from every danger. O glorious and blessed Virgin.

Oracion a la Virgen, Salud de los Enfermos Durante la Pandemia del Coronavirus

Oh María,
Tú resplandeces siempre en nuestro camino
como signo de salvación y esperanza.
Nosotros nos encomendamos a Ti, salud de los enfermos, que ante la Cruz
fuiste asociada al dolor de Jesús manteniendo firme tu fe.

Tú, Salvación del Pueblo Romano, sabes lo que necesitamos
y estamos seguros de que proveerás para que,
como en Caná de Galilea,
pueda regresar la alegría y la fiesta después de este momento de prueba.

Ayúdanos, Madre del Divino Amor, a conformarnos a la voluntad del Padre
y a hacer lo que nos dirá Jesús, que ha tomado sobre sí nuestros sufrimientos.
Y ha tomado sobre sí nuestros dolores para llevarnos, a través de la Cruz, al gozo de la Resurrección. Amén.

Bajo tu protección, buscamos refugio, Santa Madre de Dios.
No desprecies las súplicas de los que estamos en la prueba
y líbranos de todo peligro, ¡oh Virgen gloriosa y bendita!

Saint Philip Neri (1515-1595) May 26

In a shop near the Vatican, a group of Americans laughed as the shopkeeper showed off his fluent English and latest souvenir, a key ring whose papal portrait, when pressed, activated a recorded blessing. Through the shop window, two clerics scowled disapproval. The shopkeeper grunted, "They're a very somber order who've left the Church. I recognize them." "By their long robes?" an American asked. "Many in Rome wear robes," replied the shopkeeper. "It's their long faces!" When Philip Neri arrived in sixteenth-century Rome, there was reason to be somber. Swiss Guards had been massacred on Saint Peter's steps defending the pope. Parts of Europe were abandoning the Church. But Philip resolved to be an "apostle of joy," drawing especially the young to Christ—and frequent confession and Communion—by his sincere interest in their problems, prayerful example, and gentle humor. His "Oratory," a movement as well as a place, provided recreation and devotion in a joyful atmosphere of companionship, service, and liturgy. Philip Neri challenges each of us to begin improving Church and world by changing ourselves with unfailing joy.

San Felipe Neri (1515-1595) 26 de mayo

San Felipe tenía dos libros favoritos: el Nuevo Testamento y uno de chistes, sin duda que es el santo del buen humor. Su padre quiso que fuera comerciante, pero una visita a las catacumbas de los mártires transformó su vida. Estando en la universidad decidió educar a los jóvenes y vender todos sus libros para dar el dinero a los pobres, pues "sólo amar" es lo que cuenta. Se entregó en cuerpo y alma al apostolado juvenil atrayendo jóvenes ricos y pobres al cuidado de los enfermos, servicio en hospitales y vida de oración. Su intimidad con Dios fue tan notable en su sabio consejo que éste fue buscado por obispos y papas; de hecho, fue director espiritual de grandes santos como Ignacio de Loyola y Carlos Borromeo. Fue ordenado sacerdote en 1551 y fundó un oratorio designado a la instrucción espiritual, al canto y a la caridad. Debido a su santidad y calidad de vida, uno de los papas quiso nombrarle cardenal y le dejó un sombrero cardenalicio en su cuarto, pero san Felipe lo utilizó para atrapar la pelota.

"Pushed" Out on Mission

There is a delightful character in the original Dr. Dolittle Tales called the "Pushmi-Pullyu." It is a beast with two identical halves, with a head at each end. No matter which direction the beast walks, one end is the "push me" and the other is the "pull you." Today's feast is a bit like that in the life of the church. In the book of the Acts of the Apostles, it is the ascension of Christ that calls for the Holy Spirit, which consequently sends or "pushes" the church out on its mission. This is the message that we hear from the angels today as they tell the friends of Jesus not to look up into the clouds, but to get busy. It is the message of Jesus himself in Matthew's Gospel, as he sends them out to baptize. He also tells them, "I am with you always, until the end of the age" (Matthew 28:20). And it is this message, confident in faith that Jesus has ascended to shouts of joy, that "pulls" us along to our final destiny. The life of the faithful disciple, sent into the world on mission, will one day know the same risen, ascended glory.

"Empujados" a la Mision

Hay un personaje encantado en Las historias del Dr. Dolittle llamado "Pushmi-Pullyu" [equivalente a Mempujas-Tehalo]. Es una bestia con dos mitades idénticas, con una cabeza en cada extremo. Sea cual fuera la dirección en que camina la bestia, un extremo "empuja" y el otro "hala". La fiesta de hoy refleja algo parecido en la vida de la Iglesia. En el libro de los Hechos de los Apóstoles, es la Ascensión de Cristo la que llama al Espíritu Santo, quien a su vez envía o "empuja" a la Iglesia a realizar su misión. Tal es el mensaje que hoy oímos decir a los ángeles cuando dicen a los amigos de Jesús que no se queden mirando hacia las nubes, sino que se pongan en acción. Es el mensaje del mismo Jesús en el Evangelio según Mateo, cuando los envía a bautizar: "yo estaré con ustedes todos los días, hasta el fin del mundo" (Mateo 28:20). Y es este mensaje, con fe llena de confianza en Jesús que ha ascendido con gritos de gozo, el que "nos empuja" hacia nuestro destino final. La vida del discípulo fiel, enviado al mundo con su misión, es la que un día conocerá la misma gloria resucitada y ascendida.

Treasures From Our Tradition

Today's celebration varies from place to place. In some parts of the United States, people gather for the Seventh Sunday of Easter, while other places celebrate the Ascension of the Lord. Several years ago, regions of bishops were permitted to decide whether to retain Ascension Day on Thursday, the fortieth day after Easter, or to move the celebration to the nearest Sunday. This new flexibility in the Christian calendar has to do with the desire to gather the Church to celebrate its central feasts fully, and with the Eucharist. Increasingly, as priests serve remote and scattered parishes, this is not always possible mid-week. The Ascension is a key moment for grasping what life in Christ is all about. It is not about a departure, but rather a plan for presence. We who are nourished by the Lord's body and blood in the Eucharist are transformed to be his abiding presence in the world. That is a truth so worth celebrating that we can adjust our calendar in order that the fullest possible gathering of the Church can be achieved.

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

En 1563 el Concilio de Trento estableció que todos los Católicos debían recibir la comunión por lo menos una vez al año, de preferencia, durante la época de Pascua, los 50 días desde la Pascua Florida a la Pascua de Pentecostés. En Chile los sacerdotes en siglos pasados llevaban la Eucaristía a todos aquellos que no pudieron asistir a Misa en la Pascua Florida. Comenzando con el segundo domingo de Pascua y acompañados de huasos (vaqueros) quienes los protegían de bandidos llevando el Sacramento en cálices de plata por toda la región. Esto llegó a llamarse Cuasimodo, en base a la frase inicial de la Misa del segundo domingo pascual: Quasi modo géniti infantes (Casi como recién nacidos). Hoy día la fiesta también es conocida como "correr a Cristo," por el hecho de llevar a Cristo en carretas decoradas por las calles de los pueblitos mientras los niños corren por delante gritando "¡Viva Cristo Rey!" De esta manera los niños anuncian la venida de Cristo, algo que todo cristiano debería hacer con hechos y palabras todos los días de año.

Seventh Sunday of Easter

The Gospel reading is from a beautiful prayer/message of Jesus to God the Father. Today's passage has two distinct portions. In the first section, Jesus is summoning courage and strength as he knows "the hour has come." He has done everything that he can to glorify God on earth and is saying that he is ready to return to God, to the glory he had "before the world began." If one remembers, the Gospel of John starts with "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God."

Try to imagine what mixed emotions Jesus must have had at this time. He came, he was human, he did God's will, he laughed, he cried, he got angry, he suffered, he had successes and he had setbacks. He had taken the plan as far as he could. Now it was time to let go. To let someone else take over. On the one hand there must be sorrow and sadness in letting go, but he is also ready to "come home." Think of what it is like when you have not seen a parent or family for a long time. There is much anticipation and excitement, as well as a bit of anxiety. It is hard to fathom where Jesus may be going, and what that reality would even look like. Perhaps it may sound strange, but this author is envisioning a second-generation CEO who is giving a farewell speech. He is acknowledging what went before him when the company was founded, what he accomplished during his time there, and now recognizes that it is time for new energy and vision to take the company to the next level.

I REVEALED YOUR NAME

Transitions are not easy, and take a great deal of preparation. In the second half of today's Gospel passage, Jesus earnestly prays for his followers, for all those who were mentioned in the reading from Acts. "They belonged to you, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word." This bumbling band of misfits who originally said yes to Jesus' call were ready. They started out as spiritual infants, as apprentices with entry level positions, but now they were grown. They were the management. Jesus had taught them all he could. They were ready to take over, and to take his message to all the world. Jesus, the CEO, Jesus the Cosmic Christ, was ready to pass the baton. It was time for this next phase of ministry to "Go live." "They are in the world, while I am coming to you."

Today's Readings: Acts 1:12–14; Ps 27:1, 4, 7–8; 1 Pt 4:13–16; John 17:1–11a

24 de mayo de 2020
Séptimo Domingo de Pascua

La lectura del Evangelio es de un mensaje/oración hermosa de Jesús a Dios Padre. El pasaje de hoy tiene dos partes distintas. En la primera parte, Jesús está pidiendo valor y fuerza pues sabe que "la hora ya llegó". Él ha hecho todo lo que puede para glorificar a Dios en la tierra y dice que está listo para regresar con Dios, la gloria que él ha tenido "antes de que el mundo existiera". Si uno recuerda, el Evangelio de Juan comienza con "En el comienzo era la Palabra, y la Palabra estaba con Dios, y la Palabra era Dios".

Trata de imaginar que emociones mezcladas Jesús debió de haber tenido en ese momento. Él vino, fue humano, hizo la voluntad de Dios, rio, lloró, se enojó, sufrió, tuvo éxitos y contratiempos. Había realizado el plan tanto como pudo. Ahora era tiempo de irse. Dejar a alguien que se hiciera cargo. Por un lado, debía de haber dolor y tristeza al dejarlo ir, pero también él estaba listo para "regresar a casa". Piensa en aquellas veces cuando no has visto a uno de tus padres o a un familiar por un largo tiempo. Hay mucha anticipación y emoción, también un poco de angustia. Es difícil comprender a dónde ira Jesús, y cómo será esa realidad. Quizá suene extraño, pero este autor se imagina a un gerente general de segunda generación que está dando un discurso de despedida. Él reconoce lo que fue antes de él, cuando la compañía se fundó, lo que se realizó durante su tiempo ahí, y ahora reconoce que es tiempo para una nueva energía y visión para llevar a la compañía al siguiente nivel.

REVELÉ TU NOMBRE

Las transiciones no son fáciles, y requieren de mucha preparación. En la segunda parte del Evangelio de hoy, Jesús ora fervientemente por sus seguidores, por todos aquellos que fueron mencionados en la lectura del libro de los Hechos. "Ellos te pertenecen y tú me los diste, y ellos han guardado tu palabra". Esta banda de inadaptados que al principio dijeron sí a la llamada de Jesús estaban ya listos. Empezaron como niños espirituales, como aprendices en trabajos de principiantes, pero ahora ya crecieron. Eran los administradores. Jesús les enseñó todo lo que pudo. Estaban listos para tomar las riendas, y llevar su mensaje a todo el mundo. Jesús, el Gerente General, Jesús el Cristo cósmico, estaba listo para pasar la batuta. Era la hora para que la siguiente fase del apostolado o ministerio fuera "En Vivo". "Ellos sí van a seguir en el mundo, mientras que yo me voy para estar contigo".
