St. Clare Adult Bible Study

The Book of Deuteronomy:
Its History and Meaning Today

10-Weeks Beginning September 18
Meeting on Wednesdays 9:30 to 11:00am
Morris Center
Instructor: Mel Barror

Deuteronomy, one of the first five Books of the Old Testament, the Pentateuch or Torah, is interesting not only because it is one of the earliest, but because it has an interesting history of its own.

Deuteronomy (the word means "second telling") is a re-statement of the many teachings of Moses intended for a new and different audience. But it was not written by Moses as some people believe. It was compiled by a small group of holy people who were trying to stem the wave of apostasy and disregard for God then flooding the northern kingdom of Israel. It is a Book that is applicable to us today because, in many ways, our society is ignoring God by our fixation with and dependence upon our electronic devices, television and other modern attractions. We need to hear the Word of God again to help us get back on the track leading to Him.

We invite you to come and join us, not only to relearn what God gave us through Moses, but to understand what we have been missing in our spiritual lives by ignoring Him. Our discussion will cover not only the words of this great Book, but the interesting history behind it and how it was instrumental in the beginning of the Jewish synagogue system still in use today.

This course is open to all adults, regardless of parish or denomination. All are welcome! We strongly recommend you bring your own bible. Registration is taken at the first class—no pre-registration needed. A fee of $20 will be charged. For more details, call the Parish Office at (916) 772-4717.
