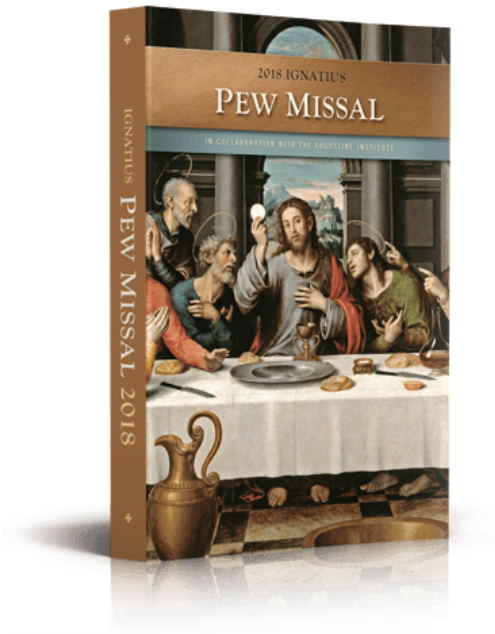
From the Catechism of the Catholic Church

1716 The Beatitudes are at the heart of Jesus' preaching. They take up the promises made to the chosen people since Abraham. The Beatitudes fulfill the promises by ordering them no longer merely to the possession of a territory, but to the Kingdom of heaven:

The Eight Beatitudes - Matthew 5:3-112

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.
Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.
Blessed are those who hunger and thirst to do God's will, for they shall have their fill.
Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy.
Blessed are the pure of heart, for they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.
Blessed are those who are persecuted for doing God's will, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and say every sort of evil thing against you on account of me; rejoice and be glad, because your reward will be great in heaven—they persecuted the prophets before you in the same way.



The order has been placed for our new missals from Ignatius Press. They should be arriving soon.

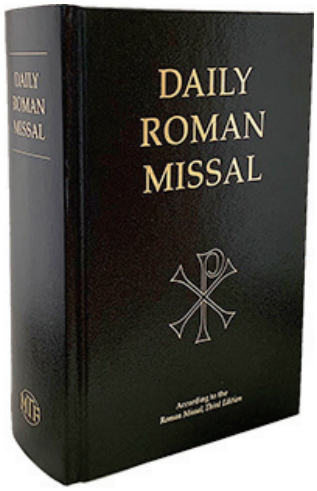
They will be in effect starting with the First Sunday of Advent November 29, 2020 and will be available in two versions, one in English and the other in Spanish.

PREFACE

The Ignatius Pew Missal is an annual subscription-based worship aid intended for Roman Catholic parishes. Its purpose is simple: to provide worshipers with a liturgical resource that is consistent with the directives of the Church and accessible to the average parishioner, especially in regards to music. This is done in two ways: by using simple plainsong melodies for the Entrance and Communion antiphons, so that a cantor, choir, and even a congregation can easily sing them, and by selecting hymns and songs which, combined, provide a repertoire of sacred songs that is fitting for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, yet accessible for the average parish. We hope you find this liturgical resource useful. May it lead your parishioners into a closer encounter with the Almighty during the Sacred Liturgy, and in their daily lives.

For those who would like a single missal that has all the readings for every Sunday and Daily Mass I recommend the Daily Roman Missal published by the Midwest Theological Forum. It is what I use and contains a lengthy section on devotions which are very helpful. I use it for Benediction and when I pray the Stations of the Cross, for example.

The ISBN for the Hardcover Black version is 978-1-936045-56-3 but there are several other versions. Keep in mind that it is a general Daily Missal and will require some practice to locate each reading depending on the day and the year. It will also not have the hymns that we will be singing.



Instructions for Public Masses

1. Catholics will continue to be dispensed from Sunday Mass and Holy Day Masses, until further notice.
2. Access to the Mass will be limited.
   - In order to be sure that we have enough space between parishioners only every third pew will be available. Families and those that live together may sit in the same pew, but in other cases there will only be two people in each pew. The Church will be full when each of the pews has either two unrelated people in it, or about 50 people are in the Church. Once the limit is reached anyone else who comes in will have to wait for the next Mass or will have to come back another day. We may implement a simple system to regulate Mass attendance at some time in the future.
3. Hand hygiene and masks are key.
   - Parishioners will be expected to sanitize their hands immediately upon entry to the church. Likewise, they must wear a mask at all times, with the exception of receiving Holy Communion.
4. Singing will be limited.
   - There will be no choirs at this time, and there will be limited singing among the congregation.
5. Parishioners will receive Holy Communion in a safe manner.
   - Instructions will be given by Fr. Francesco at each Mass in the following weeks. There will be no Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion at this time. Also, it is not necessary to receive Holy Communion at every Mass one attends, during this time or at any other time.
6. The Church will be sanitized after every Mass and parish event.
   - This will take time and that is why the Mass schedule for Sundays has to be changed for now.
7. Budget envelopes will be submitted as you leave.
   - Baskets will be present on both sides near the exit of the Church.
8. Avoid personal contact with anyone.
   - The sign of peace, which is always optional, will remain suspended. Even though it saddens me to say this, please do not congregate before or after Mass during this time.
9. Those who are sick must stay home.
   - Please be cautious, and when in doubt stay home.
