Confirmation 2022-2023

St. Anne Confirmation is a two-year program. If pandemic is still enforced, these meetings will be conducted via Zoom. Depending on the CDC Guidelines Classes may be in person. In addition, we will have retreats, service projects and most importantly, parental involvement in the faith formation process. We ask that the parents help us nurture each of these teens to become disciples of Christ. Our plan is to do this through prayer, worship, study and service in relationship with the family and community.

Confirmación 2022-2023

La Confirmación de Santa Ana es un programa de dos años. Si la pandemia aún se aplica, estas reuniones se llevarán a cabo a través de Zoom. Dependiendo de las reglas del CDC, las clases pueden ser en persona. Además, tendremos retiros, proyectos de servicio y, lo más importante, la participación de los padres en el proceso de formación en la fe. Les pedimos a los padres que nos ayuden a nutrir a cada uno de estos adolescentes para que se conviertan en discípulos de Cristo. Nuestro plan es hacer esto a través de la oración, la adoración, el estudio y el servicio en relación con la familia y la comunidad.

ETERNAL LIFE

What happens after we die? Most religions and philosophies provide some notion of this, but we are confounded by the mystery of it all. Today's readings give us a glimpse through the faith of martyrs and in the words of Jesus. In the Old Testament reading, the Maccabee brothers assert with total confidence that the God who gave them life would also raise them to eternal life. This was not universally accepted in ancient Israel. The Sadducees, who denied any resurrection of the dead, try to trap Jesus with a hypothetical riddle. Jesus, known for turning such things around, dismisses their unbelief, noting that even Moses knew that all are alive in God. Saint Paul tells the Thessalonians that we live in everlasting encouragement and hope, and Psalm 17 echoes this with words of faith that we will see God's face, waking in God's loving presence.

Prayer Of The Week

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Almighty and merciful God,
graciously keep from us all adversity,
so that, unhindered in mind and body alike,
we may pursue in freedom of heart
the things that are yours.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

How does adversity hinder me from pursuing the things of God?

LA VIDA ETERNA

¿Qué pasa después de la muerte? La mayoría de las religiones y filosofías ofrecen algunas ideas al respecto, pero estamos confundidos por todo ese misterio. Las lecturas de hoy nos ofrecen un vistazo a través de la fe de los mártires y de las palabras de Jesús. En las lecturas del Antiguo Testamento los hermanos macabeos afirman con una confianza total que el Dios que les dio la vida también los resucitara a la vida eterna; y esto no era aceptado generalmente en el antiguo Israel. Los saduceos, que negaban toda resurrección de los muertos, intentaron poner una trampa a Jesús con un acertijo hipotético. Jesús quien era conocido por darle vuelta a las cosas, descarta su incredulidad, señalando que incluso Moisés sabía que todos están vivos en Dios. San Pablo dice a los tesalonicenses que vivimos en la esperanza y ánimo eternos, y el salmo 17 refleja esto con palabras de fe en que veremos el rostro de Dios, despertando en su presencia amorosa.

50 Questions for Teens

CONTINUATION FROM LAST WEEK

10 Why do we accept as true what the Church teaches in matters of faith and morals?

We accept Church teaching as true because the Church speaks with the authority of Christ Himself. Christ identifies with His Church and commissioned the Church to bring His teaching to all the world.

References:

Scripture: Matthew 28:19-20; Luke 10:16; Acts 9:4; Ephesians 5:21-32
Compendium: 16, 430
CCC: nos. 2032-37
YouCat: 13, 24, 343-44

Act of Faith: ". . . I believe these and all the truths which the Holy Catholic Church teaches because you [God] have revealed them, who can neither deceive nor be deceived."

11 Do Christians believe in one God or three Gods?

Christians believe in one God, who is a Trinity of persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

References:

Scripture: Matthew 28:19
Compendium: 48
CCC: nos. 253-56
YouCat: 35

Act of Faith: "O my God, I firmly believe that you are one God in three divine Persons, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit."

12 Why does God, who is all-loving and all-powerful, allow suffering and evil?

God does not cause suffering and evil, but permits it as a possibility of human freedom. God allows evil in order to bring forth something good. In fact, from the greatest of all moral evils--the murder of His Son--He brought forth the greatest of all goods: the glorification of Christ and our redemption.

References:

Scripture: Romans 8:28
Compendium: 57-58
CCC: nos. 309-14

St. Thomas Aquinas: "For almighty God . . . , because He is supremely good, would never allow any evil whatsoever to exist in His works if He were not so all-powerful and good as to cause good to emerge from evil itself."

NEXT WEEK WE CONTINUE THE QUESTIONS.

Many people attend Mass here at our church, but are not registered parishioners. It is so important to be registered and use your offering envelopes so that if you request a letter, whether it's for being a godparent, sponsor, marriage, confirmation, tax statement, or any other purpose, we can check our records and see that you attend Mass here. This would also benefit you if you would like to have your child enrolled in next year's Religious Education Program. If you are not registered in the church, we cannot issue or sign any type of letter stating that you are a member of the parish, even if you attend Mass here. If you would like to register and receive offering envelopes, you must complete the form and send it our Parish office. If you have any questions please contact the Parish Office at (310)829-4411.

Muchas personas asisten a Misa aquí en nuestra iglesia, pero no son feligreses registrados. Es tan importante ser registrado y use sus sobres de ofrenda para que si solicita una carta, ya sea para ser padrino, matrimonio, confirmación, declaración de impuestos o cualquier otro propósito, podamos verificar nuestros registros y ver que asista a Misa aquí. Esto también lo beneficiaría si desea inscribir a su hijo en el Programa de Educación Religiosa del próximo año. Si no está registrado en la iglesia, no podemos emitir ni firmar ningún tipo de carta que indique que es miembro de la parroquia, incluso si asiste a Misa aquí. Si desea registrarse y recibir sobres de ofrenda, debe completar el formulario y enviarlo a nuestra Oficina Parroquial. Si tiene alguna pregunta, comuníquese con la Oficina Parroquial al (310) 829-4411.

St. Didacus/San Didacus

November 7th

Didacus is living proof that God "chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong."

As a young man in Spain, Didacus joined the Secular Franciscan Order and lived for some time as a hermit. After Didacus became a Franciscan brother, he developed a reputation for great insight into God's ways. His penances were heroic. He was so generous with the poor that the friars sometimes grew uneasy about his charity.

Didacus volunteered for the missions in the Canary Islands and labored there energetically and profitably. He was also the superior of a friary there.

In 1450, he was sent to Rome to attend the canonization of Saint Bernardine of Siena. When many of the friars gathered for that celebration fell ill, Didacus stayed in Rome for three months to nurse them. After he returned to Spain, he pursued a life of contemplation full-time. He showed the friars the wisdom of God's ways.

As he was dying, Didacus looked at a crucifix and said: "O faithful wood, O precious nails! You have borne an exceedingly sweet burden, for you have been judged worthy to bear the Lord and King of heaven" (Marion A. Habig, OFM, The Franciscan Book of Saints, p. 834).

San Diego, California, is named for this Franciscan, who was canonized in 1588.

7 de Noviembre

Didacus es la prueba viviente de que Dios "eligió lo necio del mundo para avergonzar a los sabios; Dios eligió lo débil del mundo para avergonzar a los fuertes ".

De joven en España, Didacus se unió a la Orden Franciscana Seglar y vivió durante algún tiempo como ermitaño. Después de que Didacus se convirtió en hermano franciscano, desarrolló una reputación de gran conocimiento de los caminos de Dios. Sus penitencias fueron heroicas. Era tan generoso con los pobres que los frailes a veces se inquietaban por su caridad.

Didacus se ofreció como voluntario para las misiones en las Islas Canarias y trabajó allí con energía y provecho. También fue superior de un convento allí.

En 1450 fue enviado a Roma para asistir a la canonización de San Bernardo de Siena. Cuando muchos de los frailes reunidos para esa celebración cayeron enfermos, Didaco se quedó en Roma durante tres meses para cuidarlos. Después de regresar a España, siguió una vida de contemplación a tiempo completo. Mostró a los frailes la sabiduría de los caminos de Dios.

Mientras agonizaba, Didacus miró un crucifijo y dijo: "¡Oh madera fiel, oh clavos preciosos! Has soportado una carga sumamente dulce, porque has sido juzgado digno de llevar al Señor y Rey del cielo "(Marion A. Habig, OFM, The Franciscan Book of Saints, p. 834).

San Diego, California, lleva el nombre de este franciscano, que fue canonizado en 1588.

We, the school community of Saint Anne, recognize our purpose to provide a quality Catholic education to the children that we serve. In a safe and nurturing learning environment, we address the needs of our students. We create for them the opportunity to realize their unique potential: body, mind and spirit. We affirm the importance of the interrelationship of church, home and school. We strive to serve the total community and we continue, both locally and globally, to honor our commitment to the less fortunate.

Prayer to Saint Anne

With love, I come to you St. Anne. By your virtues and holiness, you merited from God the favor of giving life to her who is the Treasure of all graces, the Most Holy Virgin. Receive me, good St. Anne, into the number of your true clients, for so I profess myself and wish to remain throughout my entire life. Obtain for me, from God, the power to imitate those virtues with which you are so plentifully endowed. Help me to know and regret my sins bitterly. Obtain for me the grace of active love for Jesus and Mary, and resolution to fulfill the duties of my state of life with faithfulness. Save me from every danger that confronts me in life, and help me at the hour of my death.

Amen.
