Jubilee Year of the Holy Spirit – November

Year of the Holy Spirit: Fruit of the Month: Patience

During the month of November, our focus is on the Spirit's Fruit of patience and gift of Counsel. In St. Paul's famous teaching on love in 1 Cor 13:1-13, he lists patience as loves first attribute. If we cannot be patient with others, we fail in love as the Holy Spirit gives it. The Greek word St. Paul uses for love is "agape" (A'-ga-pay) which is sacrificial in nature. It is the willingness to give completely of one's self for the sake of the beloved. This is the love Christ had for us. It is characterized first and foremost by patience.

Year of the Holy Spirit: Gift of the Month: Counsel

This gift is characterized by subjugating our will to God's. We do this by considering his law and commandments in deciding to do something. We must first ask ourselves, is it consistent with all of God's laws and commandments. God's law of love does not conflict with the rest of his commandments. Indulgent love that does not follow God's law or that is not consistent with the natural law he created is not love at all. If true love is sacrificial in nature which seeks the good of other, we first must know God's laws, and subjugate our will to his. Seek God's counsel by asking the Holy Spirit to guide you in all decisions, especially moral ones which seem difficult.
