Gospel's Reflection

GOSPEL READING
Matthew 13:24-43 (shorter form: Matthew 13:24-30)

JESUS OFFERS PARABLES ABOUT THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN AND EXPLAINS THEM TO HIS DISCIPLES.

In today's Gospel, Jesus offers three parables to describe the Kingdom of Heaven. He also explains why he speaks to the crowds in parables and interprets the parable of the sower for the disciples. This reading is a continuation of Jesus' discourse that we began reading last Sunday.

All three parables use commonplace experiences to describe aspects of the Kingdom of Heaven. The first parable is longer and more detailed than the next two, and it alerts us to the two-fold reality of the Kingdom of Heaven. The beginnings of the Kingdom of Heaven can be found in this world. The fruition of the Kingdom of Heaven, however, will not be realized until the final judgment. In the meantime, as Jesus' explanation to the disciples cautions, any effort to judge the progress of the Kingdom of Heaven is premature. Only God, in the final judgment, will distinguish the fruit of the Kingdom of Heaven and offer its reward.

The second and third parables call to our attention the abundance that will result from the small beginnings of the Kingdom of Heaven. Just as a mustard seed—the smallest of all seeds—will become a large bush, so too God will bring his Kingdom to full bloom. As a small amount of yeast will leaven the entire batch of bread, so too God will bring about the expansion of his Kingdom. In each case the image is of the superabundance that God brings out of even the smallest of signs of the Kingdom.

Contained within these parables are words of caution as well as words of consolation. In the parable of the sower we are warned against judging others. To judge and uproot the "weeds" prematurely will harm the wheat; final judgment rests with God. In the parables of the mustard seed and the yeast, we are consoled by the message that God can work wonders and produce abundance from even the smallest beginnings of the Kingdom of Heaven.

LECTURA DEL EVANGELIO
Mateo 13: 24-43 (forma más corta: Mateo 13: 24-30)

JESÚS OFRECE PARÁBOLAS SOBRE EL REINO DE LOS CIELOS Y SE LAS EXPLICA A SUS DISCÍPULOS.

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús ofrece tres parábolas para describir el Reino de los Cielos. También explica por qué habla a las multitudes en parábolas e interpreta la parábola del sembrador para los discípulos. Esta lectura es una continuación del discurso de Jesús que comenzamos a leer el domingo pasado.

Las tres parábolas usan experiencias comunes para describir aspectos del Reino de los Cielos. La primera parábola es más larga y más detallada que las dos siguientes, y nos alerta sobre la doble realidad del Reino de los Cielos. Los comienzos del Reino de los Cielos se pueden encontrar en este mundo. Sin embargo, la realización del Reino de los Cielos no se realizará hasta el juicio final. Mientras tanto, como advierte la explicación de Jesús a los discípulos, cualquier esfuerzo por juzgar el progreso del Reino de los Cielos es prematuro. Solo Dios, en el juicio final, distinguirá el fruto del Reino de los Cielos y ofrecerá su recompensa.

La segunda y tercera parábolas llaman nuestra atención sobre la abundancia que resultará de los pequeños comienzos del Reino de los Cielos. Así como una semilla de mostaza, la más pequeña de todas las semillas, se convertirá en un gran arbusto, también Dios hará que su reino florezca por completo. Como una pequeña cantidad de levadura fermentará todo el lote de pan, también Dios traerá la expansión de su Reino. En cada caso, la imagen es de la superabundancia que Dios saca incluso de los signos más pequeños del Reino.

Dentro de estas parábolas hay palabras de precaución, así como palabras de consuelo. En la parábola del sembrador se nos advierte contra juzgar a los demás. Juzgar y desarraigar las "malas hierbas" prematuramente dañará el trigo; el juicio final descansa en Dios. En las parábolas de la semilla de mostaza y la levadura, nos consuela el mensaje de que Dios puede hacer maravillas y producir abundancia incluso desde los comienzos más pequeños del Reino de los Cielos.

Finalmente, también lo alentamos a formar pequeños grupos con familiares y amigos y hacer videollamada para compartir cómo el libro y los videos lo están ayudando a "redescubrir" a Jesús.

NEWS

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL NEWS

Sixteen Sunday in Ordinary Time

Hearing this Gospel, we can trust that God knows our love and good deeds, and that he will mercifully gather us into his kingdom.
If we see ourselves as the sower, the parable takes us in the direction of learning to know God and having union with God. We ourselves are the ones who spread the word of good news. If we see ourselves as the seed, it reminds us that we sow God's word wherever we are, by word and example. If we see ourselves as the soil, we are directed to examine the cares and distractions of our lives to see if they stand in the way of open eyes, open ears and open hearts.
This week, please say a special prayer each day for the poor and forgotten in our parish.
Thank you all for your donations to the SVDP Society.

GRIEF SUPPORT MINISTRY

A grief support ministry will be available for anyone who has lost a loved one. Participants will be led on a journey that encourages them to grow in faith and to deepen their spiritually through the difficult experience of grieving.

Since we cannot at this time face to face, we will be holding the meeting using the zoom platform. This is an "open door" ministry. Registration is not required. For more information please email Yolanda Peca at griefsupport@samckyle.org so that she can send you the invite to the meeting.

"Grief can definitely feel like a journey - one that we are never really prepared to take. This journey began on the day your loved one died. In that moment your life changed forever. This trip will take you places you have never known and places that you may not want to go." - Elizabeth M. Collier. M.S. cofounder of the Counseling Network for Loss and Transition.
