- Livestreamed liturgies will continue to be provided for those who are unable to attend.

- The option of outdoor liturgies may continue when helpful.

- Physical distancing is no longer required (even for those who are still required to wear a mask), and previous capacity limits no longer apply.

-The Parish Office is open Monday-Friday 9am-6pm and Saturday 9am-1pm. At this time we ask 1 visitor in the front office at a time.

Celebrando la Cuaresma

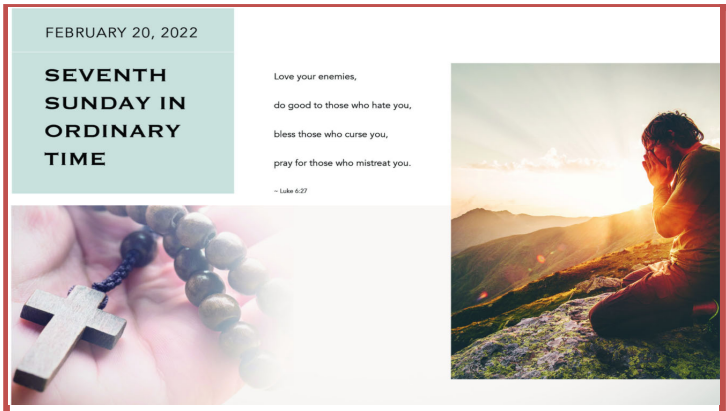
Una invitación a celebrar la Cuaresma reflexionando sobre los siguientes temas:

¿A que me llama el evangelio durante la Cuaresma 2022?: Peregrinando con Jesús desde el rio Jordán al monte Calvario.

¿Vivo mi vocación bautismal?: El Bautismo compromiso en ser discípulo de Jesús

¿Qué significa para mi ser miembro de una comunidad católica de fe?: La Iglesia y los sacramentos requisitos en profesar y testimoniar mi fe.

Mi familia: ¿la vivo responsablemente fomentando la unidad y el perdón?: Desafíos a la familia Hispana en una sociedad consumista.



Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

It's likely that some friends or followers of Jesus told him, from time to time, to "get real" when his teachings seemed too hard or impractical. John's Gospel, near the end of the Bread of Life discourse, reports that some disciples out and out turned away because it was too hard to continue following Jesus. When Jesus said to love our enemies, pray for those who hurt us, or do good for those who hate us, the response, "get real," wouldn't be surprising. And yet, the very life and witness of Jesus is filled with his prophetic examples of doing just that; of refusing to return harm for harm. The lives of the saints are likewise filled with such examples, especially those saints who were laborers in the field for justice and peace. Is this command of Jesus difficult? Yes. Is it impossible? No.

ROLE REVERSAL

It could have come straight out of a Hollywood script: two enemies, former friends and admirers of each other now pitted against each other. So it is today with Saul and David. Saul had actually praised David for slaying Goliath, and rewarded him by placing him in charge of Israel's military force. David flourished, and was praised, admired for how clearly the hand of God was upon him. Of course, Saul became jealous, and soon hatched a plot to finish him off. In a turning of the tables, Saul actually becomes the vulnerable one, and David has more than one opportunity to kill him. But it is not a surprise ambush that keeps David from slaying Saul, but the realization that Saul is a meshiach (Messiah), God's anointed one, the first to bear this title in Israel. Twice David has an opportunity—the second time he even has a witness and accomplice—and yet he will not do what it seems like the script says he should.

REWRITE!

Jesus is also a master of subverting our expectations of what the script is going to do. The scriptwriter we call Luke is even more detailed than Matthew in what "love your enemies" means. Luke spells out specific, active ways to counteract the deeds of those whom we would label "enemies." Beyond that, Luke's Jesus says not to lend merely the shirt off our back, but our coat as well; to lend money not only to those who can repay, but to those who can't. This is the script of God's Meshiach: do not perpetuate or escalate violence, but reply to it with love. What you think is sufficient generosity needs to be doubled, at the very least. Whenever it seems like the direction of the story needs to be changed—so that harm or sin or cruelty is overcome by love—change the story. Through God's goodness, we are free to change our story; through God's grace, we have Jesus to show us the way.

Today's Readings: 1 Sm 26:2, 7–9, 12-13, 22–23; Ps 103:1–2, 3–4, 8, 10, 12–13; 1 Cor 15:45–49; Lk 6:27–38

Séptimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Es probable que algunos amigos o seguidores de Jesús le dijeran de vez en cuando, que "fuera realista" cuando sus enseñanzas parecían demasiado duras o poco prácticas. El Evangelio de Juan, cerca del final del discurso del Pan de Vida, relata que algunos discípulos se apartaron porque era demasiado dura seguir a Jesús. Cuando Jesús dijo que amáramos a nuestros enemigos, que rezáramos por los que nos hacían daño, o que hiciéramos el bien a los que nos odiaban, la respuesta, "sé realista", no sería sorprendente. Y, sin embargo, la propia vida y el testimonio de Jesús están llenos de sus ejemplos proféticos de hacer precisamente eso' de negarse a devolver daño por daño. La vida de los santos que trabajaron en el campo de justicia y la paz. ¿Es difícil este mandato de Jesús? Sí. ¿Es imposible? No.

CAMBIO DE ROLES Podría haber salido directamente de un guion de Hollywood: dos enemigos, antiguos amigos y admiradores del otro, ahora enfrentados. Así ocurre hoy con Saúl y David. En realidad, Saúl había alabado a David por haber matado a Goliat, y lo recompensó poniéndolo a cargo de la fuerza militar de Israel. David floreció, y fue alabado, admirado por lo claramente que la mano de Dios estaba sobre él. Por supuesto, Saúl se puso celoso y pronto tramó un plan para acabar con él. En un giro de mesa, Saúl se convierte en realidad en el vulnerable, y David tienen más de una oportunidad de matarlo. Pero no es una emboscada por sorpresa lo que impide a David matar a Saúl, sino la constatación de que Saúl es un meshiach (Mesías), en ungido de Dios, el primero en llevar este título en Israel. Dos veces tienen David la oportunidad –la segunda vez tiene incluso un testigo y cómplice– y, sin embargo, no hace lo que parece que el guion dice que debe de hacer.

¡REHACER EL GUION! Jesús también es un maestro en subvertir nuestras expectativas de lo que el guion va a hacer. El guionista que llamamos Lucas es aún más detallado que Mateo en lo que significa "amar a tus enemigos". Además, el Jesús de Lucas dice que no hay que prestar sólo la camisa de nuestra espalda, sino también nuestro abrigo; que hay que prestar dinero no sólo a los que pueden devolverlo, sino a los que no pueden, Este es el guion del Mesías de Dios: no perpetuar ni aumentar la violencia, sino responder a ella con amor. Lo que crees que es suficiente generosidad debe ser duplicado, como mínimo. Siempre que parezca que hay que cambiar la dirección de la historia –para que el daño o el pecado o la crueldad sean superados por el amor– cambia la historia. Por la bondad de Dios, somos libres de cambiar nuestra historia; por la gracia de Dios, tenemos a Jesús para mostrarnos el camino.

Lecturas de hoy: 1 Sm 26:2, 7–9, 12-13, 22–23; Sal 103 (102):1–2, 3–4, 8, 10, 12–13; 1 Cor 15:45–49; Lc 6:27–38
