Happy Easter to all in our parish family!

I would like to offer a special welcome to all your relatives and friends and to all of our visitors. I can honestly tell you that there is no greater feeling inside than when I see our church filled with young and old alike, worshipping side by side on this day that truly celebrates the miraculous act of Christ's resurrection. This truly is a sign of God's ultimate love for His Son and what is at the heart and core of our belief as Catholics and Christians. Today we are reminded that not even death can ultimately separate us from the love of our God and each other. What a glorious reality!

After a seemingly long Lenten season, and with a real glimpse of spring in the air, somehow Easter has a way of reassuring us that no matter how difficult life may seem at times, there is reason to believe things do change and they can and will get better.

I personally find comfort these days when I reflect upon what Jesus' friends and disciples must have felt after witnessing the trial, suffering, pain, and crucifixion of Jesus, only to find after coming to His tomb, that He was not there. At first, they must have been confused and perhaps even upset that someone may have taken His body. Remember though, Jesus had prepared them for these events so many times and in so many ways, but because of their state of mind, they were unable (at least for the moment) to make sense of it all. Even the last line of the gospel today tells us that... "they did not yet understand the scripture that He had to rise from the dead".

Despite this confusion, I can't help but believe that in the back of their minds, there was some glimmer of HOPE, that just maybe, their friend had risen just as he told them he would. Of course, we all know the rest of the story. If it isn't really clear to you, continue to join us throughout the rest of the Easter season and beyond and you will hear this GOOD NEWS unfold.

The comfort I spoke of earlier, that I find in the events that led up to and followed Jesus' death and resurrection is in this: each of us can relate to pain, anxiety, anguish and suffering in our lives. Whether we experience the loss of a job, the news of a life-threatening illness of a loved one, being the victim of racism or bigotry, worry about your teenage son or daughter and the crowd they're hanging with, alienation by your family, etc., the list goes on and on. In all these life experiences, without the HOPE that they are not ends in themselves, we can get stuck, feel trapped in a bottomless pit with no way out. It is the victory over these realities that Jesus won for us. His resurrection is a real reminder to us that these little deaths and even our ultimate earthly deaths, are not ends in themselves, but opportunities for new beginnings. This is hard to accept, though, when you are in the midst of what seems to be so painful and not being able to see a way out.

Look at Christ's disciples though. It took them months and I'm sure, for some of them, even years to put Jesus' words and final days into perspective. Enough at least to bring some sense of comfort and HOPE to continue living despite their personal losses and pain. Enough to continue on the journey of life with all of its twists and bends.

This is what Easter is all about – FAITH, HOPE and LOVE -- Faith, to trust that somehow God has a plan for us much like He had for His own beloved Son. Hope, that despite the challenges and obstacles life puts before us, God walks with us to embrace them and overcome them. And love, that the depth of love Jesus had for us, to ultimately give His life for the salvation of us all, is still ours today.

From all our priests and staff here at Queen of Peace Parish, may you have a happy, blessed and Christ-centered Easter season.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Risen Lord,

At Easter time, we proclaim and celebrate that Christ, our hope, has risen from the dead and is active in the life of the Church. He is our hope as the world faces so many challenges.

Think of our sisters and brothers in Ukraine and people in other parts of the world who daily struggle with war, civil unrest, violence, repression, and natural disasters. Think of those who are homeless and who walk our streets and those whose streets in our city are plagued with violence. Think too of the dark forces that continue to polarize our society and result in our own sinfulness, and the suffering of so many in mind or body with chronic illness. In the face of all this, we clearly know our need for the risen Christ, who is our hope.

I urge you to reclaim your Easter faith and hope in Christ, especially as you gather with your parish community and once again hear the proclamation "Christ is risen!" We sing in response "Alleluia, he is truly risen," to express that on hearing this good news we deepen our faith that by rising from the tomb, Christ has broken the bonds of sin and death, and claims us as his very own daughters and sons of light.

Let this Easter season be a new springtime for us personally, our parishes and our archdiocese as we continue our renewal and commitment to be missionaries of hope to a world so much need.

Finally, let us pray for one another, for all those we love, and for all who have not yet heard or accepted new and lasting hope in Christ our risen Lord.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Do you support abortion restrictions?

There are plans underway to amend our Illinois Constitution to make abortion a constitutional right by securing voter approval on the 2024 general election ballot. Pro-life residents are working to combat this constitutional change and to counter it with a referendum of our own, calling for key abortion limitations—which the majority of Illinoisans support.

Respect Life Petition Drive

To show your support for abortion restrictions in Illinois, scan the QR code to support a referendum:

1. To re-instate parental/guardian notification and consent for a minor (all those under the age of 18) to have an abortion in the State of Illinois.
2. To ban Illinois tax-payer funded abortions, so those morally and religiously opposed to abortion are not forced to fund this objectionable act.

Let your opinions be known today!

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. (Acts 10:40-41)

Psalm:

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. (Ps 118)
Or Alleluia.

Second Reading:

If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. (Col 3:1)

Gospel:

"For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead. (Jn 20: 9)

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

"When Jesus had risen, early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had driven seven demons." (Mark 16:9)

Popular Catholic piety sometimes posits that the newly risen Jesus appears first to the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is a happy thought, but it's simply not what the scriptures report. We are told quite directly that he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, "out of whom he had driven seven demons."

Why would the gospel writer remind us of this unsavory detail of Mary's past? Historians tell us women were not qualified to give legal testimony. On top of that, to be possessed by not just one, but seven demons, is unsavory and terrifying. What damage had they done to her? What did she do to allow herself to be home to such evil? It doesn't seem to matter. Jesus chose Mary Magdalene to be the first one who saw him risen from the dead. He decided she was qualified.

Do you think that you are disqualified from seeing and announcing the risen Jesus because of your past demons? Maybe they are the demons of despair, confusion, self-hatred, pride, addiction, failure, boredom, laziness, or other sins. Well, don't. In the light of the Risen Jesus, all these past demons make our witness that much more believable — only if we allow ourselves to be touched by the liberating hand of Christ, just as Mary Magdalene did.

— Father John Muir

Easter SUNDAY

"Do not be afraid! I know that you are seeking Jesus the crucified. He is not here, for he has been raised just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has been raised from the dead, and he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him.' Behold, I have told you."

- Mt 28:5b-7

YOUNG ADULTS

Holiness in the Middle of the World

We often marvel at the extraordinary lives of the saints. From the Marian apparitions witnessed by St. Bernadette to St. Catherine of Siena's stigmata, it is easy to see God's work in these remarkable miracles. However, we easily forget that we can find God in our ordinary lives, and that we are called to be as holy as Bernadette and Catherine.

Join the Young Adults Group on Sunday, April 16 at 11AM in Hayes Hall for a talk by Dr. Peggy Garvey on how to find God in the middle of the world. Learn about concrete ways to live your faith outside of Sunday Mass, and how to bring others closer to God. Dr. Garvey is the director of Elms University Center whose programs strive to enrich lives by focusing on human, professional, cultural, and faith development. She has a PhD from the University of Notre Dame.

All are welcome to attend. Refreshments will be served. $5 donations accepted at the door.

When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed.

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading

Peter speaks about himself and the other apostles as “witnesses” to Jesus’ public ministry as well as his death and resurrection from the dead. What are some ways you could give witness to the risen Jesus this week?

Second Reading

Paul encourages the Christians in Corinth to see themselves as a community defined by sincerity and truth rather than malice and wickedness. Does this describe your circle of friends?

Gospel Reading

The two women (Mary Magdalene and the other Mary) experience a range of emotions (from fear to being overjoyed) as they encounter first the angel and then the resurrected Jesus. How do you imagine you would react to encountering Jesus risen from the dead?
