GRATEFUL & GENEROUS

November 1, 2020
Solemnity of All Saints

"Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you (falsely) because of me."
- Matthew 5:11

We are all at different points on the path to holiness, on getting to Heaven and becoming a saint. Part of the journey is being mocked and ridiculed by others. When this happens, how do you respond? Do you become silent? Do you react in anger or do you react with love? Fortunately, as one Body of Christ, we are united with the saints already in Heaven. Ask your favorite saint for guidance in defending the Faith.

Online Giving

Welcome to Online Giving

Divine Mercy Parish would like to thank our families who are currently giving electronically. You may not see these fellow parishioners place an envelope in the basket every week, but their consistent giving does not go unnoticed. Each month our parish receives a steady and predictable stream of income from those donors who have made the commitment to give to God first by having a designated contribution automatically transferred to our parish through our Online Giving Program. If you would like to learn more about this easy, safe, and secure way of giving, please check out our website:

DIVINE MERCY YOUTH MINISTRY

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints (All Saints Day). In MT 5:1-12, we are presented with the Sermon on the Mount, where Jesus states the Beatitudes. After telling the crowds some of the good actions they can do, Jesus says, "Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven," (MT 5:12). A LIFETEEN author reminds us that "The Christian life is difficult." The LIFETEEN author then states that Jesus "calls us to more than just avoiding sin." At LIFETEEN and Edge we discuss what the LIFETEEN author says about how "Jesus calls us to be saints, which is why we celebrate all of the saints today." Please join us as we discuss how we are to follow the Beatitudes and live as children of God.

FR. COOPER'S CORNER

A New American Blessed

The continuous wave of revelations of the sexual abuse scandal in the Church has been sickening and disheartening for so many as we confront the suffering of countless victims, the wickedness of predators, the lack of spiritual paternity and pastoral determination on the part of those with the responsibility to root it out, and the corruption and tepidity that not only tolerate such filth and infidelity but sometimes augment it. Those who know Church history are aware that throughout the centuries there have been periods of infidelity and iniquity in which spiritual cancer spread throughout the members of Christ's Mystical Body, the clergy, religious orders, the laity, even the papacy. They also know that in response to such pervasive degeneracy, God was not indifferent and inert. Where sin abounded, His grace super-abounded, witnessed above all in the saints, movements, and devotions that He Himself inspired to bring the Church to her knees in prayerful conversion.

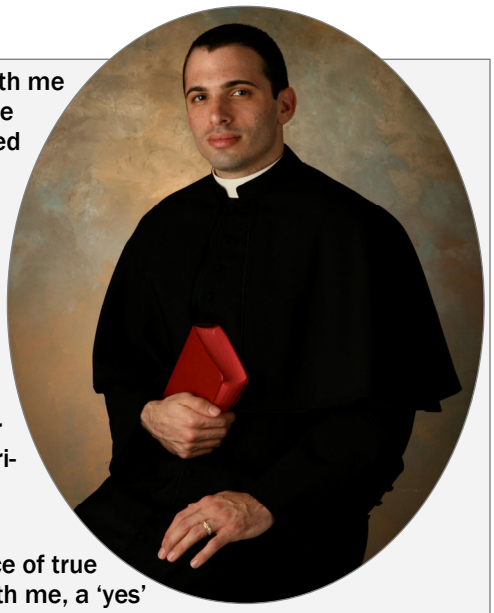
Hope comes from the recognition that God never abandons His people but remains with us speaking to us in prayer, purifying us through penance, sanctifying us through His sacraments, and desiring to draw good even out of the evil we have committed and endured. The pace of reform always depends on the level of cooperation we give to God's work of rebuilding. Over the past several months, there have been many voices that have tried to sketch out the ways the Church needs to be reformed, but if we were able ecclesially to receive Jesus' clear input—not just our inferences based on what He has said to us already through the living word of Sacred Scripture, but the Divine Physician's diagnosis of the problem and prescription for healing for the Church's present wounds—what might He say?

I think the answer to that question may be sketched out through credible private revelations given to an anonymous Benedictine priest from October 3, 2007, through June 2, 2016, found in the book recently published by Angelico Press entitled, In Sinu Jesu: When Heart Speaks to Heart — The Journal of a Priest at Prayer. The words In Sinu Jesu come from the Latin Vulgate of how St. John reclined during the Last Supper "on Jesus' breast" (Jn 13:23). This priest's journal, in which he humbly and plausibly claims to have regularly heard Jesus and Mary speaking to him, reminds us that Jesus desires to have an intimate heart-to-heart relationship with all of His beloved disciples, but especially with His priests. Throughout its 308 pages, Jesus and Mary— and also on rarer occasions God the Father and a few saints—cover many fundamental aspects of the Christian spiritual life in such a profound, direct and moving way that it is the most compelling text of spiritual reading besides Sacred Scripture that I have read in years.

What I would like to focus on, however, is what Jesus communicates to His interlocutor about the roots of the priestly scandals and what God is asking the clergy and all the faithful to do in response. "All of heaven weeps over the sins of my priests," Jesus states, which are a "grievous affront to my own priesthood," adding, "Every time a priest sins, he sins directly against me and against the most Holy Eucharist toward which his whole being is ordered. When a priest approaches my altar laden with sins that have not been confessed or for which he has not repented, my angels look on with horror, my mother grieves, and I am again wounded in my hands and my feet and in my heart." Would we expect any less?

Jesus' desire, however, is not to condemn but to convert: "I am about to renew the priesthood of my Church in holiness. I am very close to cleansing my priests of the impurities that defile them. Soon, very soon, I will pour out graces of spiritual healing upon all my priests. I will separate those who will accept the gift of my divine friendship from those who will harden their hearts against me." He emphasizes about the latter what we now all know: "Those who do not live in my friendship betray me and impede my work. They detract from the beauty of holiness that I would see shine in my Church." The root of priestly sins, Jesus says, is the "loneliness" that comes from a lack of friendship with Him. Jesus desires to be the friend each priest needs, "the Friend with whom they can share everything, the Friend to whom they can tell everything, the Friend who will weep over their sins without, for a moment, ceasing to love them." He laments, "If priests lived in my friendship, how different my Church would be! ... Many of the sufferings and hardships experienced with my Church at the hands of her ministers, my priests, would not exist." The lack of "experiential knowledge of my friendship and love," Jesus continues, "is the root of the evil that eats away at the priesthood from within."

This lack of friendship, he says, is seen in the "coldness and indifference" with which priests approach Jesus in the Eucharist. "There are priests who go into my church only when they have a function to perform." They receive little from their daily communion "because they expect so little." He adds sorrowfully, "Even after two thousand years of Eucharistic presence in my Church, I remain unknown, forgotten, forsaken, and treated like a thing to be kept here or there." Priests, moreover,



"keep themselves apart from me. Their lives are compartmentalized. They treat with me only when duty obliges them to do so." And because of loneliness, they look for love "in other places and in creatures unworthy of the undivided love of their consecrated hearts," as they try to "fill the emptiness within with vain pursuits, with lust, with possessions, with food and drink."

What is the remedy? "The sins of my priests call for reparation," Jesus declares. The particular reparation He implores is Eucharistic adoration. "The renewal of my priesthood in the Church will proceed from a great return to the adoration of my real presence in this the Sacrament of my love. ... This is the remedy for the evil that has so disfigured my holy priesthood in the Church." He underlines, "I want priest adorers and reparators, ... priests who will adore for priests who do not adore, priests who will make reparation for priests who do not make reparation for themselves or for others." He says that priests "will be renewed in holiness and purity when they begin to seek me out in the Sacrament of my love," meaning the Eucharist.

Time with Christ in prayerful adoration will develop that friendship that is the source of true priestly life. "The secret of priestly holiness," Jesus states, is "a life of friendship with me, a 'yes' renewed each day to the gift of divine friendship that I offer each priest." This is where priests learn to identify "with all my interests, with all my sorrows, with all that offends me, and ... with my burning zeal for the glory of my Father and for the holiness of all my people." He adds, "All the rest is secondary." To enter into friendship with Jesus means to enter, He notes, into a "privileged and sweet relationship with my Mother," imitating the relationship both St. Joseph and St. John had with her. "The great renewal of the priesthood in my Church will begin when priests understand that I want them to live in the company of my Immaculate Mother." He wants us to pray each day the Rosary and the Ave Maria Stella and to entrust our lives and needs to her, both big and small.

The reform also involves, He says, embracing the purifying fire of love of the Holy Spirit in very practical ways: "I will pour out the Holy Spirit upon all priests in the form of a purifying fire. Those who welcome that fire will emerge from it like gold from the furnace, shining with holiness and with a wonderful purity for all to see. Those who refuse my fire will be consumed by it." Living by the fire of the Holy Spirit means that priests strive for holiness. "There has never been in all of history a single priest whom I have not destined for a great holiness," Jesus says. "A holy priest is quite simply one who allows me to live in him," and for this reason, "I offer them my presence in the Eucharist. Yes, this is the great secret of priestly holiness." So many of the problems in the clergy and in the Church have come from priests' lowering the bar for themselves and for everyone else.

To grow in holiness, Jesus says He wants priests to "go to confession weekly," to meditate each Thursday on Chapters 13-17 of the Gospel of St. John, preferably together with adoration, and to grow in the exercise of spiritual fatherhood based on trust in God's Fatherhood. "The fatherhood of the priest is a grace that I shall renew in the Church now," because the Church "suffers in that so many priests do not know how to live the grace of their fatherhood," abandoning souls to "live like spiritual orphans." Jesus says to His Benedictine dialogue partner and through him to all priests, "Be a father."

Finally, Jesus encourages the prayer of what He calls the "Chaplet of Reparation" or the "Offering of the Precious Blood for Priests." Like the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, it is prayed on ordinary Rosary beads. On the 'Our Father' beads, we say, "Eternal Father, I offer you the Precious Blood of your Beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lamb without blemish or spot, in reparation for my sins and for the sins of all your priests;" on the ten 'Hail Mary' beads, "By your Precious Blood, O Jesus, purify and sanctify your priests;" and at the end of each decade, "O Father, from whom all fatherhood in heaven and on earth is named, have mercy on all your priests and wash them in the Blood of the Lamb." What a beautiful prayer to say for the renewal of the clergy!

What I have shared are just a few coins of the enormous treasure contained in In Sinu Jesu. I urge you to buy this book and prayerfully read it. I encourage you to purchase a copy for any and all of the priests that you may know. And I exhort you to pick up copies for your friends and family members who do not know how to respond to the scandals the Church is enduring. It will bring you and them into the heart-to-heart conversation with Jesus that is at the root of the renewal that the Church urgently needs.

DIVINE WORSHIP AND SACRED MUSIC

Solemnity of All Saints

Memorare

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times or war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

Entrance

For All the Saints

1. For all the saints
who from their labors rest,
Who you by faith before
the world confessed,
Your name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

2. O blest communion,
fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle,
they in glory shine;
Yet all are one
within your great design.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

3. The golden evening
brightens in the west;
Soon to the loyal faithful
comes their rest;
Sweet is the calm
of Paradise so blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

4. But lo! there breaks
a yet more glorious day:
The saints triumphant
rise in the bright array;
The King of glory passes on his way.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

5. From earth's wide bounds,
from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of heav'n streams
in the countless host,
Singing to Father,
Son, and Holy Ghost:
Alleluia! Alleluia!

The Saint That Is Just Me

1. O I thought I'd be heroic and inspiring.
I wanted to offer you the greatest sacrifice.
Like all the saints who'd gone before me,
I tried to prove my love for you,
and so to gain the prize.
I thought I'd be a martyr like Cecilia.
I hoped I'd disappear like Saint Therese, or wear a hidden crown of thorns
like Rose of Lima,
to heal the sick and raise the dead.
When you hung upon the cross
looking at me, You didn't die so I would try to be somebody else.
You died so I could be
the saint that is just me.

2. I wanted to be poor and free like Francis, to cut off my long hair like lovely Clare.
to be faithful like Mother Teresa
in the darkness,
Lord, won't you make me just like her?
I tried to kneel for hours in the chapel corner, to persevere like Paul with all my sleepless nights,
to stay awake and trim my lamp
with ten wise virgins,
to really give the devil a good fight.
When you hung upon the cross
looking at me,
You didn't die so I would try
to be somebody else.
You died so I could be
the saint that is just me, just me.
You died just for me, just me, just me.
You died just for me.

3. You saw that I was perfectly imperfect.
O happy fault, the sin of Adam's pride.
That's the reason that you became man,
and bore the new Eve
from your wounded side.
If it weren't for my sins
or wounds or weakness, then you wouldn't have married me upon the cross.
Why do I fear being seen naked and broken?
that's why you came;
cause I need you that much.
When you hung upon the cross
looking at me,
You didn't die so I would try
to be somebody else.
You died so I could be
the saint that is just me.

How Beautiful

1. How beautiful
the hands that served
the wine and the bread
and the sons of the earth.
How beautiful
the feet that walked the long dusty roads
and the hill to the cross.

Refrain
How beautiful,
how beautiful,
how beautiful
is the Body of Christ.

2. How beautiful
the heart that bled,
that took all my sin
and bore it instead.
How beautiful the tender eyes
that chose to forgive and never despise.
(to refrain…)

Bridge
And as He laid down His life,
we offer this sacrifice
that we will live just as He died:
Willing to pay the price,
willing to pay the price.

3. How beautiful
the radiant bride who waits for her Groom
with his light in her eyes.
How beautiful
when humble hearts give the fruit of pure lives
so that others may live.

4. How beautiful
the feet that bring the sound of good news
and the love of the King.
How beautiful
the hands that served
the wine and the bread
and the sons of the earth.

Lead Me, Lord

1. Blessed are the poor in spirit, longing for their Lord,
for God's coming kingdom
shall be theirs.
Blessed are the sorrowing,
for they shall be consoled, and the meek shall come to rule the world.

Refrain
Lead me, Lord, lead me, Lord, by the light of truth to seek and to find the narrow way
Be my way; be my truth;
be my life, my Lord,
and lead me, Lord, today.

2. Blessed are the merciful, for mercy shall be theirs,
and the pure in heart shall see their God.
Blest are they whose hunger only holiness can fill,
for I say they shall be satisfied.

3. Blest are they who through their lifetimes
sow the seeds of peace;
all will call them children of the Lord.
Blest are you, though persecuted
in your holy life,
for in heaven, great is your reward.

Entrance

For All the Saints

1. For all the saints
who from their labors rest,
Who you by faith before
the world confessed,
Your name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

2. O blest communion,
fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle,
they in glory shine;
Yet all are one

within your great design.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

3. The golden evening
brightens in the west;
Soon to the loyal faithful
comes their rest;
Sweet is the calm
of Paradise so blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

4. But lo! there breaks
a yet more glorious day:
The saints triumphant
rise in the bright array;
The King of glory passes on his way.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

5. From earth's wide bounds,
from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of heav'n streams
in the countless host,
Singing to Father,
Son, and Holy Ghost:
Alleluia! Alleluia!

10,000 Reasons (Bless The Lord)
Refrain
Bless the Lord, O my soul,
O my soul;
worship His holy name.
Sing like never before,
O my soul;
I'll worship Your holy name.

1. The sun comes up,
it's a new day dawning,
it's time to sing Your song again.
Whatever may pass,
and whatever lies before me,
let me be singing
when the evening comes.

2. You're rich in love and You're slow to anger.
Your name is great and
Your heart is kind.
For all Your goodness,
I will keep on singing;
Ten thousand reasons
for my heart to find.

3. And on that day,
when my strength is failing,
the end draws near,
and my time has come.
Still, my soul will sing
Your praise unending
ten thousand years,
and then forevermore.
(to refrain 2X…)

Ending
Worship Your holy name,
Lord, I'll worship Your holy name.

We Are Called to Serve
Refrain
We are called to serve,
we are called by grace
to cherish Christ in ev'ry face.
We are called to serve,
we are called by name,
and in all we are,
God's love proclaim.

1. Called beyond our human understanding, called before the world came into view.
Within your mother's womb,
your name was known to me,
for you did not choose me,
no, I chose you.

2. Called to be a light
amid the darkness, called to help a doubting world believe.
"Empowered by my Spirit,
anointed with my love,
you are called to give and share
what you believe."

All the People Said Amen

Blessed are
the poor in spirit who are torn apart.
Blessed are
the persecuted and the pure in heart.
Blessed are
the people hungry for another start,
For theirs is the kingdom,
the kingdom of God.

And all the people said, "Amen".
Whoa
And all the people said, "Amen".
Give thanks to the Lord,
for His love never ends.
And all the people said, "Amen".

1. You are not alone if you are lonely.
When you feel afraid, you're not the only.
We are all the same, in need of mercy,
to be forgiven and be free.
It's all you got to lean on,
but thank God it's all you need.

Refrain

Holy Spirit, sanctifying me;
Lord, I'm sorry, please forgive me.
Come and set me free.

2. Holy Mary, gentle mother,
God's pure vessel, praying for me;
Saints and angels, all in heaven,
come and be with me.

Lord I Need You

1. Lord, I come, I confess.
Bowing here, I find my rest.
And without You, I fall apart.
You're the one that guides my heart.

Refrain
Lord, I need You, oh, I need You.
Every hour I need You.
My one defense, my righteousness;
Oh, God, how I need You.

2. Where sin runs deep, Your grace is more.
Where grace is found is where You are.
And where You are, Lord, I am free
Holiness is Christ in me,
(to refrain…)

Bridge
So, teach my song to rise to You when temptation comes my way.
And when I cannot stand,
I'll fall on You.
Jesus, You're my hope and stay.

Final Refrain
Lord, I need You, oh, I need You.
Every hour I need You.
My one defense, my righteousness;
Oh, God, how I need You.
You are my one defense, my righteousness;
Oh, God, how I need You.
You are my one defense, my righteousness;
Oh, God, how I need You.

The wind and the rhythm of the rain
Oh the thunder it speaks of Your power

A redemption song will rise
With a sound so full it cracks the sky

Memorare

Acuérdate, oh piadosísima Virgen María!, que jamás se ha oído decir que ninguno de los que han acudido a tu protección, implorando tu auxilio, haya sido desamparado. Animado por esta confianza, a Ti acudo, Madre, Virgen de la vírgenes, y gimiendo bajo el peso de mis pecados me atrevo a comparecer ante Ti. Madre de Dios, no deseches mis súplicas, antes bien, escúchalas y acógelas benignamente. Amen.

Oración a San Miguel Arcángel

O San Miguel, Arcángel defiéndenos en la batalla. Sé nuestra protección contra el mal y las trampas del diablo; humildemente te rogamos que Dios los reprenda. O Principe Celestial de la Santa Hostia, que con la ayuda de Dios eches a satanás al infierno y a los espíritus que vagan por el mundo para arruinar las almas. Amén.

Nuestra Oración Familiar

Dios amoroso y fiel, a través de los años el pueblo de nuestra arquidiócesis ha apreciado las oraciones y el amor de Nuestra Señora del Pronto Socorro en tiempos de guerras, desastres, epidemias y enfermedad. Venimos a Ti, Padre, con María nuestra Madre, y te pedimos nos ayudes en la batalla de hoy contra la violencia, el asesinato y el racismo. Te imploramos que nos des la sabiduría para construir una comunidad fundada en los valores de Jesús, que conceden respeto a la vida y dignidad a todas las personas. Bendice a los padres para que formen a sus hijos en fe. Bendice y protege a nuestros jóvenes para que sean hacedores de paz en nuestro tiempos. Da consuelo a los que han perdido a seres queridos debido a la violencia. Te lo pedimos por Jesucristo, Nuestro Señor. Amén.

Nuestra Señora del Pronto Socorro, apresúrate a socorrernos.

Madre Henrieta Delille, ruega por nosotros para que seamos una familia Santa.
