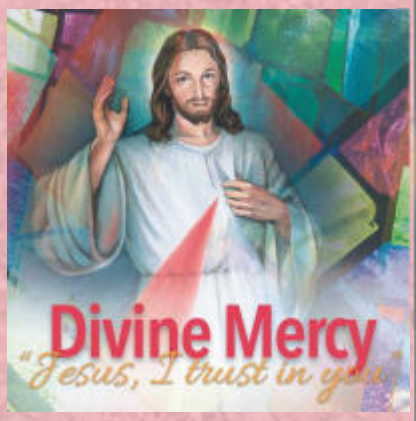
Divine Mercy Sunday



Question:
Where did the feast of Divine Mercy come from?

Answer:
If you were born well before the year 2000, you know the feast of Divine Mercy has not always been celebrated in the Church. In the early 1900s, a young Polish nun began receiving private revelations. Jesus appeared to her during her times of prayer, speaking a message of mercy and love for the world. She received a set of prayers — the Divine Mercy Chaplet — and the request to have a feast day established to remind the Church of the mercy of God. St. Faustina died in 1938, on the cusp of war and in the midst of one of the most violent centuries in the history of the world.

Her story and her diaries began circulating in Poland and beyond. It quickly became apparent that this was a holy young women, and the cause for her canonization opened. In the year 2000, she was canonized by the first-ever Polish pope, St. John Paul II. On her canonization day, he established the second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday, "a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind with experience in the years to come."

Domingo de la Divina Misericordia

Pregunta:
¿De dónde vino la fiesta de la Divina Misericordia?

Respuesta:
Si nació mucho antes del año 2000, sabe que la fiesta de la Divina Misericordia no siempre se ha celebrado en la Iglesia. A principios de la década de 1900, una joven monja polaca comenzó a recibir revelaciones privadas. Jesús se le apareció durante sus momentos de oración, hablándole un mensaje de misericordia y amor por el mundo. Recibió una serie de oraciones, la Coronilla de la Divina Misericordia, y la solicitud de establecer un día festivo para recordar a la Iglesia la misericordia de Dios. Santa Faustina murió en 1938, en la cúspide de la guerra y en medio de uno de los siglos más violentos de la historia del mundo.

Su historia y sus diarios comenzaron a circular en Polonia y más allá. Rápidamente se hizo evidente que se trataba de una joven santa y se abrió la causa de su canonización. En el año 2000, fue canonizada por el primer Papa polaco, San Juan Pablo II. El día de su canonización, estableció el segundo domingo de Pascua como Domingo de la Divina Misericordia, "una invitación perenne al mundo cristiano a enfrentar, con confianza en la benevolencia divina, las dificultades y pruebas que la humanidad experimentará en los años venideros".

LIVE THE LITURGY -

Eye Has Not Seen

They say seeing is believing. But if you've ever ordered a pair of pants online, you know that's not always the case. Whatever the photos promise us, what looked like a perfectly nice shade of navy blue on our computer screens comes in the mail as an unusual shade of blue green that only appears in the giant box of Crayola crayons.

The Apostle Thomas, who couldn't bring himself to accept that Jesus had risen from the dead without seeing him, is such an utterly relatable figure in the Gospels. Thomas is still reeling from a loss — not only of his good friend but his Lord, who was taken prisoner and crucified before his eyes. Thomas is guarding himself. He's not believing the hype. He's going to be the only judge of what is real and what is fiction.

Would any of us be any different? We've all had those thoughts. Can we believe it all — Jesus, salvation history, the Eucharist — when we haven't seen it with our own two eyes?

That's when we need to remember that those two eyes were absolutely positive they had ordered a pair of navy blue pants.

It's easy for us to sit back stroking our chins in judgment at Thomas, "you didn't believe the testimony of your friends!" But do we accept the testimony of our friends? The saints, the popes, the Church fathers themselves?

Sometimes the things that are most worthy of believing can't be seen with the naked eye.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA -
El Ojo No Ha Visto

Dicen que ver para creer. Pero si alguna vez has ordenado un par de pantalones en línea, sabes que no siempre es así. Independientemente de lo que nos prometan las fotos, lo que parecía un tono azul marino perfectamente agradable en las pantallas de nuestras computadoras llega por correo como un tono inusual de azul verde que solo aparece en la caja gigante de crayones de Crayola.

El apóstol Tomás, que no se atrevía a aceptar que Jesús había resucitado de entre los muertos sin verlo, es una figura tan absolutamente identificable en los Evangelios. Tomás todavía se está recuperando de la pérdida, no solo de su buen amigo, sino también de su Señor, que fue hecho prisionero y crucificado ante sus ojos. Tomás se está protegiendo. No está creyendo el anuncio emocionado de los demás. Él será el único juez de lo que es real y lo que es ficción.

¿Alguno de nosotros sería diferente? Todos hemos tenido esos pensamientos. ¿Podemos creerlo todo - Jesús, la historia de la salvación, la Eucaristía - cuando no lo hemos visto con nuestros propios ojos?

Ahí es cuando debemos recordar que ese par de ojos estaban absolutamente seguros de que habían pedido un par de pantalones azul marino.

Es fácil para nosotros sentarnos y acariciarnos la barbilla para juzgar a Tomás, "¡no creíste en el testimonio de tus amigos!" Pero ¿nosotros aceptamos el testimonio de nuestros amigos? ¿Los santos, los papas, los mismos padres de la Iglesia?

A veces, las cosas que son más dignas de ser creídas no se pueden ver a simple vista.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MT

Just A Reminder Of Summer Attire For Mass

Dressing for Mass is simply a matter of showing proper respect, not only for God, but for others around you. Remember the days when we wore our "Sunday best," our finest outfits, to Mass? Dress codes at Mass have certainly relaxed over the years. With the crazy warm weather upon us, it is particularly important that we dress appropriately and modestly for Mass, so here are some suggestions to follow for modest and proper Mass attire during the summer months.

All people, properly should avoid

* Tight fitting clothing
* Low cut shirts
* Tank tops
* Short dresses
* Short skirts
* Short shorts

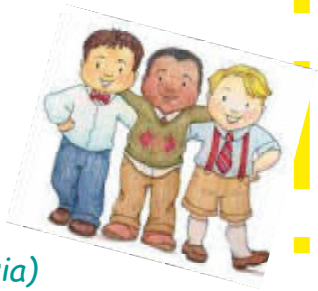
"How beautiful is modesty and what a gem among virtues it is."
(St. Bernard, Confessor and Doctor of the Church)

Recordatorio sobre Vestimenta para Misa Durante el Verano

El vestir para la misa es simplemente una cuestión de mostrar el debido respeto, no sólo para Dios, pero para los que le rodean. Recuerda los días en que usamos nuestros "mejores trajes", los domingos para misa? Los códigos de vestimenta en la misa sin duda se han relajado en los últimos años. Con el clima caliente sobre nosotros, es particularmente importante que vestir apropiadamente y modestamente para la misa, así que aquí están algunas sugerencias a seguir durante los meses de verano:

Todas de, adecuadamente deben evitar

- ropa ajustada
- camisas cortas
- camisas sin mangas o de tirantes
- vestidos cortos
- faldas cortos
- shorts cortos



"Qué hermosa es la modestia y qué joya entre las virtudes es ".
(San Bernardo, Confesor y Doctor de la Iglesia)

New MHT Ministry!

Production Ministry

Most Holy Trinity is in need of volunteers for our new projector ministry! We need one volunteer for each Mass (in English) to operate the slides from the music loft, projecting the lyrics during Mass. This is much needed ministry, as it will allow parishioners to sing along with the choir.
This is a vital part of the liturgy and will help encourage full, active and conscious participation during Mass.

Please consider being a part of this ministry! Call or email Jay Soto for more information.
