Fr. Matthew Lee, ordained 13 years, was Pastor of the four Catholic churches in Champaign County for five years, having been Parochial Vicar there for four years. During this time he was also Parochial Administrator of St. Mary of the Woods, Russells Point for two years. Other pastoral assignments include St. Maximilian Kolbe in Butler County and the Petersburg Parishes in Auglaize and Shelby Counties.

Fr. Lee was ordained after 12 years of active duty with the U.S. Air Force as a software engineer and network administrator. Fr. Lee holds degrees from the Community College of the Air Force (AAS - Computer Science), Thomas More University (BA), and the Athenaeum of Ohio (M. Div., MAT). He has also coordinated Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University classes.
