Rest in Peace

Let us pray for our deceased parishioners, benefactors, relatives, friends, for those who are most forgotten and for those who have recently died. The sympathies of the parish are extended to the families of Mark Remolino, Guy LaVignera, Joseph Liscriandri and Vita O'Neill.

Our apologies to the Crocitto Family. In the April 19th bulletin, we mistakenly listed Michael and Rose Crocitto as deceased. Only Michael is deceased but Rose does appreciate your thoughts and prayers on the passing of her husband.

STRENGTHENED TO LIVE AS CHRIST'S OWN

We might look at the world around us and conclude that this is the most challenging time in history during which to live as a person of faith. Yet we know this is not so. Throughout the ages, people of faith have faced mockery, persecution, and even death as a result of their commitment to Christ. Still, it is important for us to acknowledge the challenge of living as a Christian today, when faith is viewed with ambivalence at best, and often with antagonism. Some do not understand how faith and reason can sit side by side, even though many of the world's greatest scientific discoveries have been made by people of faith. Others see the failures of the Church or its leaders and discount faith as a result. We rely on the powerful presence of the Holy Spirit to be with us when we are mocked or simply misunderstood on account of our faith in Jesus Christ. Through the Holy Spirit, we will find the grace to live with conviction as Christian people.

Saint Peter admonishes us, "Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope." One of the greatest gifts of faith in our lives is our hope in Christ Jesus. Through Christ, we keep our eyes on the wider view of life here on earth and everlasting life with God. We know that the trials and challenges of today do not have the final word, and do not have power over us. With the presence of the Advocate, we have the help we need to live as God directs and desires, so that the world might come to know Christ through the witness of our lives. This is a hope-filled, meaningful way of life. When so much of our surrounding culture speaks of impermanence and momentary distractions, we have the hope of meaning and purpose today and the promise of eternal life to come.

Today's Readings: Acts 8:5–8, 14–17; Ps 66:1–3, 4–5, 6–7, 16, 20; 1 Pt 3:15–18; Jn 14:15–21

Growing in Our Faith

Question of the Week

Adult Faith Formation is at the core of all religious formation in St. Clare's parish. Our new National Directory for Catechesis tells us that it should be the organizing principle from which all other religious education springs. When we share our faith with others, that is catechesis. Sharing our faith, catechesis, is what makes us Christian. Using the Question of the Week at all parish meetings and for individual and family reflection, adults and children will be better able to relate the Sunday Scriptures to their daily lives and to share their reflections with one another.

6th Sunday of Easter

Readings: Acts 8:5-8, 14-17; Psalm 66;
1 Peter 3:15-18; John 14:15-21

Question of the Week

Adult: What difficulties have I overcome because of my belief in the power of the Holy Spirit?

Child: When are some times I need help from the Holy Spirit?

Preparing for Sunday: Our Weekly Scriptures 7th Sunday of Easter

The end of the Easter Season is upon us. Next week is the last Sunday before Pentecost Sunday, which will conclude the Easter Season. We have three amazing readings for the liturgy. In the first reading, we meet the disciples of Jesus after his Ascension. They return to the Upper Room. The Upper Room is where Jesus washed their feet and shared with them the Eucharistic meal at the Last Supper. It is the room they returned to in fear after Jesus' death. It is also the room of joyful encounter where Jesus appeared to them after the resurrection and offered them his peace. That's where we will find them next week in prayer as they await the coming of the Holy Spirit. With them in that Upper Room is Mary, the Mother of Jesus. This is very important. Mary who was with her son at the foot of the cross is now with the disciples in their hours of fear and joyful expectation (Acts 1:12-14). The second reading reminds us that if we suffer with Christ, we will be gloried with him (1 Pt. 4:13-16). In the Gospel Jesus will return his disciples to the Father in an intimate prayer. Having completed his mission, which was to reveal God to us, Jesus we will hand us over to the Father and the Father will give us the Spirit (Jn. 17:1-11a)

"Happy Anniversaries"

This weekend, the Scripture readings speak of our forebears in faith, encouraged to overcome the world's challenges with trust and confidence, looking forward to the great things God had in store. Now this week, before and after Ascension Thursday, Saint Clare's will have major anniversaries of two parish milestones that also highlight the confident faith of our predecessors. Tuesday is the 100th anniversary of Archbishop Hayes dedicating our Chapel cornerstone on 5/19/1920, and Friday is the 60th anniversary of Cardinal Spellman dedicating our completed Church on 5/22/1960. (See photos on pages 1 & 5. Mementos from these occasions are scarce, so please contact the Rectory if you have any others that we could photocopy.)

When Richmondtown's Saint Patrick Church founded Saint Clare Mission in a rented hall on Giffords Lane in 1918, the First World War was still raging, and the even-deadlier Spanish Flu pandemic had already begun. Nevertheless, the few dozen Catholic families of rural Great Kills started ambitious plans for an established parish with a permanent location at the hilltop of Nelson Avenue. By the Easter season of 1920, we and our victorious Allies were rebuilding a peacetime economy, and the devastating pandemic finally ended after its fourth wave. Archbishop Hayes ferried to Staten Island and ceremonially laid the cornerstone for the "new" Saint Clare Church (today's Chapel), as a top-notch band from Mount Loretto orphanage provided music. The wooden building was finished in 1921, and Saint Clare became its own parish in 1925. Then the congregation confidently added an eight-classroom School in 1936, despite the hardships of the Great Depression.

After the Second World War, Great Kills grew dramatically during the 1950s, and the newly approved Narrows Bridge (today's Verrazzano) was sure to bring even more residents from Brooklyn. The parish was quickly outgrowing its first-generation facilities, but an undaunted congregation sacrificed to meet the challenges head-on. In the largest building project ever undertaken by a Staten Island parish, Saint Clare doubled the capacity of its School, tripled the capacity of its Church, and rolled the old wooden building past the Rectory to its current site. During the Easter season of 1960, Cardinal Spellman officially dedicated today's Saint Clare Church and the expanded School, accompanied by Borough President Maniscalco and Lieutenant Governor Wilson, preparing confidently for a post-Verrazzano future. Indeed, Staten Island filled with the immigrant families who became the backbone of the congregation, first by ship into our Chapel, then by bridge into our Church!

Now in this unforgettably tragic Easter season of 2020, we should be encouraged by the founders of our parish from 100 years ago, as well as the founders of our faith from 100 generations ago. Like them, we can be confident of overcoming historic challenges, with God's help. Patiently but eagerly, let's look forward to the time when we can gather safely again to fill our beautiful Chapel and Church, to sing and laugh and cry together, and to begin healing Saint Clare's for a gradual return to normal life as we head into our second century.

Stay safe and stay strong -- Easter wins!

Please this information is tentative. Be sure to visit our website daily for updates.

Act of Perfect Contrition:

In addition to not being able to receive the Lord in the Holy Eucharist, one of the devastating effects of this pandemic is that we can't experience God's mercy in the Sacrament of Penance/Reconciliation. I know many of you are very concerned about that.

Thank God the Church has a teaching to help address this very issue, "The Act of Perfect Contrition." Since we cannot celebrate the sacrament of Reconciliation, our of love for God we tell him the things we have done wrong and ask him to forgive us. Our God who knows the desires of our heart, listens to our confession and he forgives us. Then when we are able to celebrate the sacrament again, we do so at the earliest possibility.

Pope Francis himself is encouraging the Church to make an Act of Perfect Contrition home. Here is the prayer below:

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against You, whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with Your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin.
Amen

St. Clare's School Deserves a Big Shout Out!

Many times we forget to give recognition to things that are staring us right in the face. St. Clare's School is a great example of this. We have taken for granted the fact that our Parish School, which is the largest Catholic Elementary School on Staten Island, continues to excel in the quality of education offered year after year making it the "Hidden Jewel of Great Kills", as I often heard Fr. Richard say.

Even during this time of remote learning where students, parents and teachers, yearn for the return to our facilities, our school is excelling once again. Our principal and her staff have received notes of thanks from maney parents since the onset of our remote learning. Ironically, many of these letters of appreciation have been sent by parents who are educators themselves in the public school system or at other parochial schools. They have commented since day one on this new way of delivering the best in education, how amazingly prepared the students and the faculty were in implementing online remote education. A parent of one of our 7th grade students commented that her daughter trained her to navigate the online teaching environment more than the school she worked for did and she thanked our principal for how prepared St. Clare students were in using technology even before we knew these skills would be a must.

Online teaching and conducting group virtual classes involve many more hours of preparation and follow up for the teachers as well as the administration.

Mrs. Signorile and her assistant principals, Mrs. Olsen and Mrs. Twomey, along with the faculty are working harder and longer each day than ever before to make sure lessons and curriculum are fulfilled.

We would be remiss in also not sending a great big THANK YOU out to the parents as well. Setting up study areas at home and making sure their children follow school day schedules while at home has been no easy task. Without your help and cooperation this 2020 "experiment in learning" would not be as successful as it is. Let's not forget the "kids". You students have been phenomenal and because of your hard work you haven't missed a beat in furthering your education. It would be a heck of a lot more fun being with your friends and learning in the traditional way but you are making the most of a bad break this year.

We all look forward to the OPENING DAY of St. Clare School in the fall. Let's all say a thank you to each other and to God for getting us to that day we all so desire!

Mother's Day Novena Cards are available in a basket on the steps of the rectory. Please drop your intentions in the rectory mail slot or put them in the mail. Mothers, grandmothers, aunts or those special women who have a motherly role in your life will be remembered throughout the month of May.

Pope Francis on Prayer

The coronavirus pandemic is a "favorable time to rediscover the need for prayer in our lives; let us open the doors of our hearts to the love of God, our Father, who will listen to us" Pope Francis said.

At his May 6th general audience the pope began a new series of audience talks about prayer, "the breath of life, its most appropriate expression, like a cry arising from the heart."

The pope began by reading the story from the Gospel of Mark about Bartimaeus, the blind man who repeatedly cries out to Jesus for healing. He said that of all the Gospel characters who ask Jesus for help, he finds Bartimaeus "the most likeable of all".

"At the top of his voice," he cries out, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me." And he does so over and over again, annoying the people around him. "Jesus speaks to him and asks him to express what he wants, and this is important, so his cry becomes a request. "I want to see."

The pope explained that faith "is having two hands raised and a voice that cries out to implore the gift of salvation." The pope added that humility is essential for authentic prayer because prayer arises from knowing "our state of precariousness, our continual thirst for God."

"Faith is a cry", he said while noting that "nonfaith suffocates that cry..."

"Faith is protesting against a painful situation that we do not understand. Nonfaith is limiting ourselves to enduring a situation we have become accustomed to. Faith is the hope of being saved; nonfaith is getting used to the evil that oppresses us."

The pope noted that Christians are not the only ones who pray because everyone has within themselves the desire for mercy and aid. He concluded by saying, "As we continue on our pilgrimage of faith, like Bartimaeus, may we always persevere in prayer, especially in our darkest moments, and ask the Lord with confidence: Jesus have mercy on me. Jesus have mercy on us!"

Religious Education

Our 2019-20 Religious Education has ended. On behalf of our entire Parish family and our students and their families, a tilt of the hat to our devoted committed catechists.

To serve our students forty-seven (47) amazing volunteers offer their time, their gifts and their love for God to pass on the faith to our children. Many of them have been doing this for many many years and others answered the call within the last year. Before Covid-19 we were placing biographies of them so you may know who those heroes of our faith are. We will continue introducing them to you throughout the summer. Helping them are also amazing classroom assistants, hallway monitors and front desk runners who have made it possible to run an effective program. A heartfelt and sincere thanks to all of you. We cannot pay you for your love and dedication to our children, but we hope you know how much you are loved and appreciated.

This year was unprecedented. It required a lot of adjustment and reimagining and you, our families, did that with amazing grace. A sincere thanks to you and to our children. You are all loved and appreciated it.

In spite of Covid-19 we had a complete religious year.

- 95% of our students registered and completed their assignments on google classroom
- Our confirmation students volunteered a combined 3,500+ hours of community services.
- Our students donated over $3000 to various organizations. Including Cycling to End Cancer at Sloan Kettering, Treat or Trick for Unicef, Gift Cards for the Sisters of Life, Baby Bottles for Cross Roads Foundation, and Friends of Haiti Initiative with the Sisters of Charity of Convent Station.
- In collaboration with Wagner College Nursing students and the Sisters of Charity, our students also donated bags and boxes of clothing and hygiene kits to help migrants at the southern borders and to send to less fortunate children in Haiti.
- Many of our students also joined Scalia Funeral Home and made Socks for Soldiers.

We accomplished all that in addition to attending weekly classes and liturgical services. Thank you!

Warm Hugs from Fr. Richard Initiative

On Friday, May 8, 2020 the Warm Hugs Initiative from Fr. Richard delivered its first warm meal to the healthcare workers in the ICU at SIUH South. Thank you to all who are supporting this Initiative. We hope to continue doing this as long as we financially able. Please email mnoel@stclaresi.com to become a donor. No donation is too small.

Act of Perfect Contrition:

In addition to not being able to receive the Lord in the Holy Eucharist, one of the devastating effects of this pandemic is that we can't experience God's mercy in the Sacrament of Penance/Reconciliation. I know many of you are very concerned about that.

Thank God the Church has a teaching to help address this very issue, "The Act of Perfect Contrition." Since we cannot celebrate the sacrament of Reconciliation, out of love for God we tell him the things we have done wrong and ask him to forgive us. Our God who knows the desires of our hearts, listens to our confession and he forgives us. Then when we are able to celebrate the sacrament again, we do so at the earliest possibility.

Pope Francis himself is encouraging the Church to make an Act of Perfect Contrition at home. Here is the prayer :

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against You, whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with Your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Amen

Fr. Richard's Homilies are available on our Website

Several parishioners have been contacting regarding Fr. Richard's homilies. Please note, the homilies are available on podcast on the website at www.stclaresi.com. Please look for this logo to find the podcast. Enjoy them.

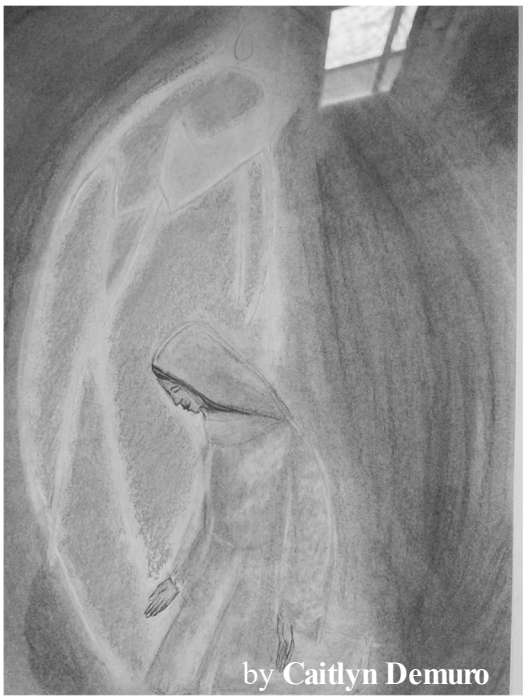
Youth and Family Ministries

Placing the Church Under the Protection of the Blessed Mother

By Pope Francis



O Mary,
You shine continuously on our journey
as a sign of salvation and hope.
We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick,
who, at the Cross,
united with Jesus' pain,
keeping your faith firm.
You, Salvation of the people of God,
know what we need,
and we trust that you will provide for those needs so that,
as at Cana of Galilee,
joy and celebration may return
after this moment of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love,
to conform ourselves to the will of the Father and to do what Jesus tells us.
He who took our suffering upon Himself,
and burdened Himself with our sorrows
to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of Resurrection. Amen.

We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God. Do not despise our pleas — we who are put to the test — and deliver us from every danger. O glorious and blessed Virgin.

Food Drive Still Going On

We are continuing to accept food for the St. Vincent de Paul Pantry, which continues to aid many families right here in our own parish.

Items especially needed include:

Coffee –Decaf & Regular, tea, healthy cereal, canned fruit, tuna, canned tomatoes, pasta sauce, apple juice, and cookies or other snacks

Thank you for whatever you can donate. Please drop off any donations at the Rectory.

Book Club will be cancelled until further notice.

Is It Time To Consider Marriage Counseling?

An Article by Leslie Becker-Phelps, PHD Psychologist
Part II of II

Do what you can to come together with your partner to address problems that arise, but know that there are times when you probably need the help of a therapist. Here are some of the most common signs that it's time to seek counseling:

- You don't enjoy each other's company.
- There is a lack of affection. This might signal negative or hostile feelings. Or, it might reflect a lack of feeling.
- You lead parallel lives. If you make attempts to connect, you still seem to miss each other.
- You feel alone even when you are together.
- Every little difference of opinion leads quickly to tension. Most attempts to discuss disagreements end in heightened conflict or avoiding each other. Both of you feel misunderstood and criticized.
- You are defensive in each other's company. Because you are primed to protect yourself, you are each quick to see negativity in your spouse's comments.
- You keep secrets. With a sense of distance or being at odds, you tend to avoid talking about much that is important. You might also lie about things you think your spouse would disagree with or hold against you.
- You have thoughts of having an affair… or you are already involved in one. This includes emotional affairs. (In an emotional affair, you are not physically intimate, but you likely share personal experiences that you don't share with your spouse. You also either don't tell your spouse about the person, or you minimize their importance.)
- You feel more like adversaries than a team. You may not care if they are upset, or you may even want to hurt them (most likely because of how much they've hurt you).
- You don't feel any warmth when you think of your spouse. This is true even when you reflect on your early days of dating and your wedding.
- Your trust is broken. This is a tough one. Though you may feel that broken trust can never be repaired – such as after one of you has an affair – this is not necessarily true. Marital therapy has helped many couples regain trust, albeit slowly, and rebuild a relationship that's stronger than ever.
- You don't respect your spouse and may even feel disdain for them. (At this point, even marriage counseling may not be able to revive your marriage – though you might still try it, if you are truly motivated.)

Beyond St. Clare

Dear Friend:

For the past few years donations to keep the services provided by Drogadictos Anonimos have been invaluable. We have used the donations received to support our groups and maintain our services for free. Thanks to that many people are on the road to recovery.

Without a doubt, this letter finds you in stressful times, since the reality of dealing with COVID19 begins to affect all of our lives.

Today, your donation is needed more than ever in order to continue our vital work with people directly affected by drug addiction, their families and the communities that need our services. Please see the attached breakdown of our expenses. Your help, without a doubt, is of the utmost need.

You can make a direct donation:

- All donations are tax deductible. If you have any questions please call (718) 507-7459.
- A Secure Online Giving at our website: www.daamerica.org or.
- Transfer via Zelle to (presmanhattan@daamerica.org) or deposit directly in our Chase bank account: 823057265.
- Send a check or money order or money

We will remain strong and hope to overcome these difficult times in unity and with much goodwill.
