Being Thankful

I love the Fall. This truly is my favorite time of year. It is just so beautiful to see the trees changing into such vibrant colors. The clock is running and another holiday is upon us. Another opportunity to make the most of today. I love Thanksgiving for many reasons, my wonderful family, friends, and great food. These are among my favorites.

Being thankful is one of the best ways to remind ourselves of all the good around us. I don't think that we can be down about anything when we look at all we have to be grateful for. All the wonderful things that God has put in our lives.

As I said I love Thanksgiving but, when you think about it, it is one day out of the year that we all say what we are grateful for. What about the other 364 days? Just look around and I am sure that we will find numerous things that has enriched our lives. Sometimes things are right in front of us yet we don't see them. I think many of us take things for granted. I don't believe we mean to, but it happens. We should find ways to express gratitude everyday. Some examples are:

Don't be picky try to appreciate everything

Find gratitude in your challenges

Practice mindfulness

Volunteer

These expressions will benefit us in so many ways. As the bible states "Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you." "This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it." "And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful.

Reading I

It happened that seven brothers with their mother were arrested and tortured with whips and scourges by the king, to force them to eat pork in violation of God's law. One of the brothers, speaking for the others, said: "What do you expect to achieve by questioning us? We are ready to die rather than transgress the laws of our ancestors." At the point of death he said: "You accursed fiend, you are depriving us of this present life, but the King of the world will raise us up to live again forever. It is for his laws that we are dying." After him the third suffered their cruel sport. He put out his tongue at once when told to do so, and bravely held out his hands, as he spoke these noble words: "It was from Heaven that I received these; for the sake of his laws I disdain them; from him I hope to receive them again." Even the king and his attendants marveled at the young man's courage, because he regarded his sufferings as nothing. After he had died, they tortured and maltreated the fourth brother in the same way. When he was near death, he said, "It is my choice to die at the hands of men with the hope God gives of being raised up by him; but for you, there will be no resurrection to life."

Reading II

Brothers and sisters:
May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word. Finally, brothers and sisters, pray for us, so that the word of the Lord may speed forward and be glorified, as it did among you, and that we may be delivered from perverse and wicked people, for not all have faith. But the Lord is faithful; he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one. We are confident of you in the Lord that what we instruct you, you are doing and will continue to do. May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the endurance of Christ.

Gospel

Some Sadducees, those who deny that there is a resurrection, came forward and put this question to Jesus, saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us, If someone's brother dies leaving a wife but no child, his brother must take the wife and raise up descendants for his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married a woman but died childless. Then the second and the third married her, and likewise all the seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. Now at the resurrection whose wife will that woman be? For all seven had been married to her." Jesus said to them, "The children of this age marry and remarry; but those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age and to the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. They can no longer die, for they are like angels; and they are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise. That the dead will rise even Moses made known in the passage about the bush, when he called out 'Lord, ' the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; and he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to Him all are alive.

How great it is for our Catholic faith community to put into practice the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. Once again, the Family of St. Gerald will come together in charity and love for our community members in need. Due to the success of last year's giving, which again far exceeded our hopes and expectations, we are again asking for that same spirit of giving to continue this year.

Together with our community partners, we are asking you to participate by purchasing gift cards. This easy and efficient way of assisting the following community recipients was a huge success and received very positively: Catholic Charities, St. Agatha, St. Peter Claver, Mission of Our Lady of the Angels, St. Vincent De Paul and our School Families.

We encourage you to utilize the St. Gerald MANNA Program and have provided the order form with this letter and instructions for you to use. Because a percentage of purchases will go back to the school, this is a win-win for everyone!

Please return the gift cards to the parish office the weekend of November 26th & 27th.

Gift card purchases to the following businesses: Jewel-Osco, Kohl's, Target, Walmart, Speedway, and Walgreens. If you prefer to make a cash or check donation (made payable to St. Gerald Manna), that would be accepted and would be distributed amongst the receiving partners.

Let us all keep those in need in our community always in our prayers as I continue to pray for each of you and your loved ones. "St. Gerald…Pray for Us…Live Jesus in Our Hearts Forever!"

Blessings,

Dear Friends

When experiencing the loss of someone important to us , we need a caring, trusted friend who is concerned about our family and cares about their wishes and needs.

As a continuation of our compassionate service to families, we provide seminars and information we hope you will find useful in the months and years after a loss.

Therefore, I invite you and your family to join us for

Coping With the Holidays

Thompson & Kuenster Funeral Home
Tuesday November 15th. 2022 at 7 pm.
Rev. James Heneghan, Facilitator
Please RSVP by November 12, 2022

We all have lost someone we love, someone who played a meaningful part in our family's celebrations. How can we acknowledge our grief and honor our loved ones this holiday season? Rev. Heneghan will offer suggestions to help us use the holidays as a step towards healing.

Sincerely
Bob Kuenster
