From the desk of Father Rich Yanos

This weekend we celebrate the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Progress continues on the parish office building with the new roof being installed as well as the tuckpointing of most of the building. Our primary hope and goal was to get the parish office completely sealed before winter sets in, so that no more inside water leakage/seepage either from the roof or from the lintels and walls will occur. Next spring, we will be replacing all the windows that have little or no insulation presently. Once this work is done, we can begin to repair the interior damage that has taken place over the past ten-twenty years. I am writing this bulletin article the day before our group of pilgrims heads to Sicily and southern Italy. When you read this, we will already be back. Hopefully, the Queen of Peace prayer garden cement walkways and work will have been completed by now. The completion of the landscape work and lighting will take place in the spring. When finished it should be a beautiful space for all to enjoy. Thanks also to our two parish members who purchased the two memorial benches that will be installed in this area next spring as well.

As a final reminder, this coming Wednesday, November 1st, is ALL SAINT'S DAY – A Holy Day of Obligation. This means that all Catholics are obliged to attend Mass on this day to celebrate and honor those men and women that have now left us and who have led and modeled for us, exemplary lives of faithfulness and solid Christian living. We will offer four Masses on Wednesday, November 1st. At St. Eugene there will be Masses at 9:00 a.m. & at 7:00 p.m. At Our Lady Mother of the Church there will be Masses at 7:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.

On Thursday, November 2nd, we will celebrate the Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed with ALL SOUL'S DAY. Masses on All Soul's Day will be celebrated at both parishes as well. Morning Mass on Nov. 2nd will be celebrated at Our Lady Mother of the Church at 7:00 a.m. At St. Eugene Church, Masses will be at 7:00 p.m. with a special celebration at the 7:00 p.m. Mass. All in our community are invited and encouraged to attend this special evening Mass to honor and remember your deceased loved ones. This Mass will be a powerful expression of remembrance for those who have gone before us, not only in our parish community but within our own families as well. At this Mass all will be given the opportunity to personally acknowledge their deceased loved ones.

Also, on All Soul's Day, November 2nd, Queen of Peace Parish will have Shrines of Remembrance of our beloved dead at each worship site. At St. Eugene Church, the Shrine will be in the sanctuary. You are invited to bring pictures of your deceased loved ones and place them on the tables in the vestibule. At Our Lady, Mother of the Church, the Shrine will be in the narthex (gathering space). Please bring pictures of your deceased loved ones and place them on the tables there. For all pictures, please place a sticker or tag with your name, address, and phone number on the back of each picture. These pictures may be picked up the weekend of November 11-12.

In addition, if you would like to remember your deceased loved ones in another special way, you may write their names in the spaces provided on the special All Soul's Day envelope that was included in your October Sunday envelope packet. If you do not have these envelopes, you can simply write the names of your deceased loved ones on a piece of paper and place them in a plain envelope with your offering. The envelopes can be placed in the regular Sunday collection basket or brought to the parish office. The names that you submit will then be published in our parish bulletin within one or two weeks (this is so we can gather all the names submitted that often come in after All Soul's Day) and placed upon the altar during the month of November and throughout the year.

We hope that this time of prayer together will renew our hope and heal our pain and grief. In the sharing of our grief, we believe that our grief is diminished. May our loving God continue to bless and comfort you as you mourn the loss and celebrate the memories of your loved ones.

NOVEMBER 2: ALL SOULS DAY—COMMEMORATION

In the Catholic Church, as in other religious communities, death has a central place. Death makes us focus on what matters in our lives and to wonder at the mystery of our coming into the world for such a relatively short time, only to leave it again. In the Christian faith, the most familiar symbol is the Cross. It remembers the Son of God who shared our lives, our rejection and our death – in His case a tortured death on the cross. Death remains central to our faith. When we think of it, however, we are turned from defeat to victory, and from sadness to celebration through Christ's rising from the dead. Death has its say but it does not have the last word. When we die, we shall live with Christ in a new life. That faith turns cemeteries from the place of demons to the place of angels who were waiting for the apostles at Jesus' tomb. In the Christian faith, Christ offers life after death to all those who have faith in Him. That vision of death and life is represented in a Melbourne cemetery, where over the gate is the inscription, Janua Vitae – the gateway to life. For that reason, the early Christians Church wrote the names of Christians who belonged to the Church on tablets and read them out in the Eucharistic liturgy. The names of people from the congregation who had died were also inscribed and remembered, especially those who had suffered for the faith during persecution. Preachers still sometimes say of people who have died that their names are written in the book of life. The practice of remembering the dead in the liturgy was retained in monasteries, where eventually one day a year was chosen to remember all those who had died. It was natural for communities to gather together in prayer to remember that they were bound together by memory and hope. This practice is maintained each year in a moving ceremony at some Vinnies shelters for people who are homeless, where wall plaques each year hold the names of people who would otherwise be forgotten. They are blessed, and each person is remembered by one of their colleagues or people who have accompanied them. We honor death to express our hope that life triumphs.

On All Souls' Day, Catholics have long prayed to free people from the traces that sin has left on them and from their time of cleansing in purgatory. That focus, too, awoke compassion and solidarity through the conviction that our prayers and faithfulness to people who have died can bless them, just as they now bless us by their prayers and compassion. The day came eventually to be celebrated on November 2nd each year.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"You shall not wrong any widow or orphan.
If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me,
I will surely hear their cry.
My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword;
then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans." (Ex 22:21-23)

Psalm:

I love you, Lord, my strength. (Ps 18)

Second Reading:

For they themselves openly declare about us
what sort of reception we had among you,
and how you turned to God from idols
to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven. (1 Thes 1:9-10)

Gospel:

"You shall love the Lord, your God,
with all your heart,
with all your soul,
and with all your mind." (Mt 22:37)

Saint of the week

Blessed Father Francis Xavier Seelos was a German immigrant and Redemptorist priest deeply committed to serving those marginalized in the USA during the 1800s. He was known for his gentle and compassionate nature and his tireless dedication to the poor and the sick.

Prayer

O Lord, my strength, and my Redeemer, let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be pleasing in Your sight. I offer to You the grace You have bestowed on Your humble missionary, Blessed Francis Xavier Seelos.

May I have the same joyful vigor that

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

In our secularized culture, we all struggle with belief in God, at least to some degree. An atheist man named Robert Bridges once wrote to his friend, the Jesuit poet Gerard Manley Hopkins, asking how he could possibly learn to believe in God. Hopkins pithily responded: "Give alms." Would that help someone tempted by atheism today, like you and me?

I think so, and here's why. This week Jesus speaks of love for God and neighbor. These dual commands were nothing new when Jesus used them to sum up the Jewish law. What is new is the way he links them together in mutual dependency. In Jesus, God and man have become one. Human-love and God-love are now inseparably married forever.

The newness of the God-man means that there is now a permanently counter-intuitive way into the knowledge and love of God: love of our neighbor. To experience charity is to know God. That's what Hopkins was getting at for his friend. How we treat our fellow human beings is inseparable from faith in God. Do you want to have a stronger sense of God's loving presence and goodness? Commit to serving someone today and this week. Love him or her. Don't wait for love for God to appear in your heart before loving others. Jesus has united divine and human love. If you want to believe more in God, give alms.
