From the desk of Father Rich Yanos

Next weekend we are fortunate to have Kevin O’Gorman who will be speaking at Our Lady, Mother of the Church and Jose Torres who will be speaking at all the Masses at St. Eugene on behalf of the annual Campaign for Human Development Collection that will take place on the weekend of November 18-19. Both men are actively involved with CCHD and we welcome them.

*****

Hopefully, you have all seen the completion of phase two of the Queen of Peace Prayer Garden project at the southwest corner of the St. Eugene Church building. Many have commented on how beautiful it looks with the new lighting and walkways. There are still benches that will be installed and a more complete and dramatic landscaping that will unfortunately have to wait until spring of next year because of the weather. Many thanks to all the donors who have helped us get this project completed.

Speaking of completion...the roofers and tuck pointers have been very busy trying to get the parish office building sealed up. Great progress has been made but all the recent rain has slowed things down a bit. They assure me that it will be done before winter. I’m keeping my fingers crossed. We are also in the process of ordering all new windows to replace all the aging, broken, and poorly insulated original windows. This project will also have to wait until spring/summer of next year. When all of this is done there should be a significant financial savings with our heating and cooling bills. The next projects on the docket for the parish offices are the replacement of the heating and cooling units, most of which are not working properly or at all. When these are done, we can begin to address all the interior damage to the ceilings and walls that has occurred over the past decades. When finished we should be in good shape for another 50 years!

Helping us to accomplish all this work has been a combination of our parish savings along with the proceeds of the now sold Divine Savior Campus to the Village of Norridge. The sale and closing of the Divine Savior campus took place on October 11th. As sad and as hard it is to close a church facility, I could not be happier that the Village of Norridge will be the new owner of this space. If you recall, they had already purchased the soccer field area in 2019. There has also been a very amicable relationship between Divine Savior and the Village that goes back many years. May this new space for the Village enable them to achieve their goals.

All in our parish along with their family/friends are invited to join us on our upcoming 12-day tour of Sweden and Norway, departing on August 6th thru August 17th, 2024. Whether you have ever been to Norway and Sweden before, no tour of these beautiful countries is ever the same. Sharing this experience with your family, friends and/or fellow parishioners helps to make it that much more enjoyable as we always have so much to talk about and share at the end of each of our days of sightseeing and touring.

Be sure to see the promotional information about this exciting trip in the brochures that can be found in the kiosks of our churches gathering spaces. We will be having an informational meeting on Tuesday, November 14th at 7:00 p.m. in the parish hall at Our Lady Mother of the Church for anyone that might be interested in signing up or hearing more about the highlights of this trip that will outline all the places we will be visiting.

This trip will probably fill up quickly. (Our Italy trip filled up in one day) For anyone wanting to join us you can hold your spot by filling out and sending in the RSVP form contained in the trip brochure with your deposit. Brochures are available at either of our parish offices, in the vestibules of our churches or by request.

*****

I know its early, but I just wanted to remind all in our parish community that our Saturday evening Mass time will be changing beginning on the first weekend of January which happens to be January 6th. The 5:00 p.m. Mass will be moving a half an hour earlier to 4:30 p.m. Confessions will also be moving a half an hour earlier from 4:00 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. Please make a note of this change, especially those that attend the Saturday evening Mass.

*****

Finally, I ask all in our parish to pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Without Jesus, there is no salvation. Without the Church there is no moral compass for our lives. Without the priesthood there is no one to provide the Eucharist – Christ’s gift to humanity.

You will find on a table in the gathering spaces of our two churches the picture cards of our seminarians preparing to embrace the vocation of the priesthood. On the back you will find a little biography of these men. Please take a copy and keep it with you as you offer your prayers for them on their journey to, hopefully, their ordination and their service to God’s Church.

Enjoy the week ahead, everyone!

Fr. Rich Yanos

BAPTISMAL PREPARATION CLASS "BELONGING"

The new baptismal class: BELONGING.

Baptism in the Family of God seeks to provide you with an opportunity to encounter Jesus and his Church as you prepare for your child's baptism.

You will learn what it means to be a child of God and discover that the Church is your family, a place where you belong.

In preparation for your child's baptism, we ask parents or guardians to attend a baptismal preparation session.

Please contact Fr. Jacek Dada or the Rectory office.

NEXT BAPTISMAL CLASS WILL TAKE PLACE ON NOVEMBER 8TH FROM 6:30PM-8:00PM - RM. 110 ANNEX.

Rosaries for Vocations

November 5-11 is National Vocation Awareness Week in the Catholic Church here in the United States. Thus, the Rosary intention of the Rosary Guild this week is for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life. Guild members are Emily A., Lori G., James H., John I., Lita J., Evelyn K., Terri K., Gilda M., Lonnie M., Mary M., Ted M., Josephine N., Emilie P., Stefania P., Jean R., Demi S., Shirley S., and Milabelle T. If you pray at least one Rosary for the weekly intention, please contact the rectory office about becoming a member of the Rosary Guild. Below is a prayer to the Blessed Virgin Mary for vocations.

Hail Mary, full of grace;
all generations call you blessed.
Hail Mother of God; when asked by the angel to bear the Son of the Most High,
filled with faith, you responded:
“Let it be done unto me.”

Holy Mother of Jesus, at the wedding feast at Cana, you prompted your Son to perform his first sign.

Be with us as we discern our life’s work and guide us in the way we are called to follow in the footsteps of your Son.

Holy Mother of the Savior, at the foot of the cross
you mourned the death of your only Son.

Bless and embrace the loving parents of all priests,
deacons, brothers and sisters.

Holy Mother of the Good Shepherd, turn your motherly care to this nation.

Intercede for us to the Lord of the harvest to send more laborers to the harvest in this land dedicated to your honor.

Queen of Peace, Mirror of Justice, Health of the Sick, inspire vocations in our time.

Let the word of your Son be made flesh anew in the lives of persons anxious to proclaim the good news of everlasting life. Amen.

Living Rosary

People pray a decade of the Rosary each day, forming one complete 20-decade daily Rosary for the triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, and in honor of the patron of the Living Rosary, Saint Philomena. During the Blessed Virgin Mary’s appearance to the three shepherd children at Fatima on July 13, 1917, she said, “Sacrifice yourselves for sinners and say many times, especially when you make some sacrifice, ‘O Jesus, this is for love of Thee, for the conversion of sinners, and in reparation for the sins committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary.’” The Blessed Virgin Mary showed the three seers a vision of hell, and then said, “You saw hell where the souls of poor sinners go. To save them, God wishes to establish in the world devotion to my Immaculate Heart. If what I say to you is done, many souls will be saved and there will be peace.” If you would like to be a part of the devotion to Mary’s Immaculate Heart in praying a daily decade of the Rosary for the triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, please contact the rectory office.

Veterans Day November 11

Who earned that for you?

It was the Veteran, not the reporter,
who has given us the freedom of the press.

It was the Veteran, not the poet,
who has given us freedom of speech.

It was the Veteran not the lawyer,
who has given us the right to a fair trial.
It was the Veteran, not the campus organizer, who has given us freedom to demonstrate.

It was the Veteran, who salutes the flag,
who served under the flag,
and whose coffin is draped by the flag,
who allows the protester to burn the flag.

Indulgences Prayer Service Saturday, November 18, 3:00 PM St. Eugene Church

On Saturday, November 18, join the Young Adults Group at 3:00 PM for a meditation in front of the Blessed Sacrament, followed by Confession and Mass. Attend all three to receive a plenary indulgence. As we remember our beloved dead through the month of November, consider obtaining a plenary indulgence for your loved ones.

Plenary indulgences are a powerful way to obtain the remission of punishment. Don't miss the opportunity to help a soul in Purgatory be reunited with God, and gain an intercessor in Heaven. All parishioners are welcome to attend.

We pray for our loved ones who are serving in any branch of the Armed Forces during this time of conflict.

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families
for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. We ask this in the name of Jesus our Lord and Savior. Amen

DO YOU LIKE TO SING?????
HAVE YOU EVER THOUGHT ABOUT JOINING THE CHURCH CHOIR?????

Come, join your fellow St. Eugene Church singers!
Rehearsals are once a week on Wednesday evenings
starting October 25th at 7 pm in St. Eugene Church

No experience needed - just a joyful heart.

POSITIONS OPEN: Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass – no others need apply.

PHYSICAL QUALIFICATIONS: Must be able to carry light musical notes part way across church. Must have sufficient vision to see director twenty feet away.

EXPERIENCE: No application accepted from persons who have not sung, hummed or whistled in the tub or shower.

WAGES: Satisfaction and joy in God's service.

FRINGE BENEFITS: Social Security – we promise you the security of social fellowship with other members of the choir.

HOURS: Sunday mornings with occasional opportunities (at above mentioned wages)

VACATION: Missed rehearsals and church services are primarily a matter of conscience and ability to return the glares and pointed remarks of the director and other choir members.

RETIREMENT: No particular age, but it is generally determined by prayer, printed notes getting too small, notes too high, church too hot (or cold), or organist unable to play the notes you sing.

REHEARSALS: Once a week except in the summer.

APPLY: By attending the next rehearsal.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

You have turned aside from the way,
and have caused many to falter by your instruction.
(Mal 2:8)

Psalm:

In you, Lord, I have found my peace. (Ps 131)

Second Reading:

With such affection for you, we were determined to share with you not only the gospel of God, but our very selves as well,
so dearly beloved had you become to us. (1Thes 2:8)

Gospel:

"Therefore, do and observe all things whatsoever they tell you,
but do not follow their example.
For they preach but they do not practice." (Mt 23:3)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Christ turns the way of the world upside down:
the great become the small and the honored ones become humble. Be small, and you will feel his greatness. Be humble, and you will know the honor of Heaven.

Saint of the week

Venerable Mother Henriette DeLille was a woman of faith, perseverance, and service who dedicated her life to the people of New Orleans. Her courage, compassion, and dedication to the oppressed was a shining example of what it means to live a life of service and love.

Prayer

O good and gracious God, You called Henriette DeLille to give herself in service and in love to the slaves and the sick, to the orphan and the aged, to the forgotten and the despised.

Grant that inspired by her life, we might be renewed in heart and in mind. If it be Your will may she one day be raised to the honor of sainthood. By her prayers, may we live in harmony and peace, through Jesus Christ, Our Lord.
Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Last Easter season a new convert to Catholicism at my parish asked me with a grave tone in her voice: "Why do we call priests 'father' if Jesus says, 'Call no man on earth your father, for you have one Father, who is in heaven?'" Thinking myself clever, I asked, "Do you think it's okay to call someone your 'teacher' or 'mister' or 'dad'?" She said, "Yes, I do." I responded, "Well, Jesus seems to forbid that, too. So, it's obviously hyperbole that he's using." She thought for a moment and declared, "Then I will stop using those words, too!" And she walked away. Not the outcome I was seeking.

We shouldn't be too hasty in dismissing this complaint voiced by many non-Catholics. The expression "father" for ordained priests is not honorary for the individual man. The priest's fatherhood doesn't begin or end in him at all. Rather, the title "father" indicates that he is a sacramental sign of God's Fatherhood revealed in Jesus. I can tell you, as a very unworthy bearer of that title, we should give and receive that title with some trepidation (because of God's awesomeness) and with a little sense of humor (because of the lowliness of the men with the title).

The longer I'm a priest, the more I'm comfortable with people not using the title "father" and just calling me "John." After all, only God is Father in the truest sense. At the same time, Jesus has brought the Father close to us, very close. We honor this closeness in some men with the title "father." Who are the priests in your life whom Christ has sent to you? How wonderful that Christ has surrounded us with humble signs of his Father's love. It's good to celebrate that love with gratitude for the priests in our lives. — Father John Muir

COME AND HEAR ABOUT OUR UPCOMING NORWAY and SWEDEN TRIP

12 Days... August 6 – August 17, 2024

INFORMATIONAL MEETING NEWS BELOW....

The Brochures for this exciting trip are now available and can be found in the brochure racks and parish office at St. Eugene's campus and in the bulletin kiosks and racks at Our Lady, Mother of the Church. If you are not able to pick one up, you can fill out the form below and get it back to me and I'll be glad to send you one.

If you would like to hear first-hand about all the places that we will be visiting on this trip or to get your questions answered we will be having an Informational Meeting on Tuesday evening, November 14, 2023, at 7:00 p.m. at Our Lady Mother of the Church's parish hall. The address for Our Lady Mother of the Church is: 8747 W. Lawrence Avenue and the entrance for this meeting will be on the back side of the church (south side) of the building.

This trip is likely to draw a lot of interest and is sure to fill up quickly, so if you think you might be interested in joining us next August be sure to get your reservation in early.

Whether you have been to Norway and Sweden before or not, no tour of these beautiful countries is ever the same. Sharing this experience with your family, friends and/or fellow parishioners helps to make it that much more enjoyable as we always have so much to talk about and share at the end of each of our days of sightseeing and touring.

Prayer

God, help me to follow you with a humble heart.

Mission for the Week

Look up the words “humble” and “proud” in the dictionary. When you remember that everything you have is a gift from God, it is easier to be humble.

Sharing the Gospel

Some people think that they know everything that there is to be known about God. They think they are better and smarter than other people, too. Watch out if you think you are acting that way! Tell God you're sorry. Ask God to help you change your attitude, and serve others.
