Today's Gospel Reflection

FIRST READING: Amos 7:12-15
SECOND READING: Ephesians 1:3-14
GOSPEL: Mark 6: 7-13

In the Second Reading, Paul says that God has blessed us with every spiritual blessing and chosen us to be holy and without blemish before Him. These are wonderful words, aren't they? So what does Paul mean by saying that God has blessed us with all these good things?

To see the answer, imagine that you are desperately poor, unable to pay the medical bills, worried about the mortgage, afraid the car will give out, anxious about the school costs for the children. And then you get a phone call: you have won the lottery. No, no, the caller says, it's really true! You have won millions in the lottery. The state administrators of the lottery are now doing the paperwork, and by the end of next month the check will be in the mail.

Now what? Well, you still can't pay the medical bills this month, and all the other bills are going to be a big problem too. You are still desperately poor—this month. But you will face your poverty very differently once you know you have won the lottery, won't you? The problems are all still exactly the same, except that you know you have won the lottery. Your problems are not going to last. The check is in the mail.

This is what Paul is talking about. We are what we are now, but we have won the lottery of life. God's grace works its way slowly in our lives, but His blessings are promised and sure. And so our struggle with our sins and failures is not desperate, but hope-filled.

"COME JUST AS YOU ARE"

What will you give back to God from the blessings you have received?

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick—no food, no sack, no money in their belts." —Mark 6:8

Imagine taking nothing but a stick when you go on a trip. The Apostles must have really trusted in God's providential care. Think of all the material things "we can't live without" in today's world. We make our life's journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. Putting God first in everything and putting our money and possessions second gives us freedom because we don't become "slaves" to wanting to acquire more things.

LET'S TAKE A MOMENT... By Tere Hunt

Edition #28

We all have had experiences of our prayers that seem to go unanswered. Days, weeks, even years go by and we still find ourselves pondering, when is God going to answer my prayer? One reason your prayer may not be answered is because you're worrying too much. It's human nature to be concerned about bad situations and if not careful, the devil will cause us to worry beyond what's reasonable. We get so caught up in the pain we're experiencing, the people we've lost and the things we don't have that we start concentrating on all the ways God hasn't measured up to our standards and find ourselves dismayed countless times. The important thing to remember is that God hasn't forgotten about you or abandoned you. God is extremely merciful. What he wants for us is in His own time. Not ours. And sometimes God's plans are bigger than our own. God promises to answer every prayer according to His omnipotent grace, infinite power and enduring love. Our mindset should be one of absolute confidence that He is able to immeasurably provide more than all we ever ask or imagine, accepting His power to work within us. "The Lord Himself goes before you and will be with you; He will never leave you nor forsake you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged" (Deuteronomy 31:8).

Priest Garb:

Until the 19th century, priests wore no distinguishing clothes. The black suit and Roman collar is a more recent American custom and today is in a transition phase as clergy wear clerical shirts of different colors or lay clothes. Ironically, the traditional "turned around" collar was first worn by Protestant clergy in Europe.

YOU CAN DO IT

Today's readings are about unpretentious people who accomplished remarkable deeds. Amos, a shepherd from the southern kingdom of Judah who also cultivated sycamore figs, challenged the people at a northern shrine in Israel. He did not come from an illustrious family, nor was he particularly important. Yet he is the one called by God to summon the northern Israelites to repentance.

The disciples of Jesus pursued family businesses like fishing or were employed by the Romans like Matthew. They didn't come from socially prominent families, nor were they known as community leaders. But look at what they did: they cast out demons and cured the sick. Where did these people get their training? More importantly, where did they obtain their power? We find the answer to such questions in the second reading: "In him we were also chosen" (Ephesians 1:11).

The Ephesians letter assures us that God "has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens" (1:3). We don't have to worry about performing miracles; all we have to do is open ourselves to the graciousness of God. God will do the rest. Through us, God will cast out the demons of prejudice and bias that plague our world, of selfishness and spitefulness so prominent in our political rivalries, of greed and dishonesty in many of our social interactions. Through us, God will heal our country, our world, and our Church of hatred, violence, and oppression. With Amos and the Twelve we too hear: "You can do it."

—Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

Reflection:

- In what ways do you make the world better?
- Do you realize that y ou have the power of God to transform the world?

So they went off and preached repentance. They drove out many demons, and the anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.
—Mark 6:12-13

Dear Padre,

At my church, some people take the votive candles out of the holders and place them next to the statutes and icons. Does this make God or the saint pay more attention to the petition? And isn't doing that a fire hazard?

Vigil lights, commonly known as votive candles, are usually lit when a person seeks favor from the Lord or a saint's intercession. Lighting a candle is a way of extending one's prayer and showing solidarity with the person whose behalf the prayer is offered.

In the lighting of candles we remember and truly live the words of our Lord, "I am the light of the world" (John 8:12). We burn candles to symbolize the rising of our prayers to heaven day and night. Prayers for the saints' intercession are also common because of their friendship with God in heaven. Saints are powerful intercessors.

God hears all prayers uttered in sincerity. Burning a candle as we pray doesn't make that prayer more important than prayers offered without a candle; neither does moving the candle to the front of the line.

If your church has made sure that the placing of the votive candles complies with local regulations, you have no worries about setting a fire with vigil lights.
