An Invitation to Join Us

Fr. Nathaniel Glenn

Dear Fellow Pilgrim:

The term "pilgrim" refers to a person on a journey in search of God. In a real sense, this can describe our journey towards God as we live our lives through our daily experiences.

A Pilgrimage to the Holy Land is different. Since we are people of faith, we travel as pilgrims tracing the footsteps of Our Lord and walking in the footsteps of many others who have gone before us in a journey of faith. During this pilgrimage to the Holy Land, we discover the roots of our faith as we see the sites, touch the stones, and pray the prayers which helped form the faith we hold as sacred.

Dennis & Joan Sullivan

We along with Fr. Nathaniel Glenn would like to invite you to join us in this special pilgrimage to the Holy Land. Fr. Glenn is a native of Phoenix, AZ and a priest of the Diocese of Phoenix. He was ordained a priest in June 2020, and currently serves as the parochial vicar at St. John Vianney Catholic Church in Sedona, AZ. This spring, he led a weekend silent retreat for over forty deacons of the Phoenix Diocese. This is Fr. Glenn's second trip to the Holy Land, and the first since becoming a priest.

Together, we will visit Nazareth and Cana where Jesus performed His first miracle. We visit Capernaum and walk the shores and sail on the Sea of Galilee. We will climb Mount Tabor where Our Lord was transfigured before His disciples. We will journey down the Jordan Valley and climb the mountain to Jerusalem. There we will visit and pray at the sites of His final days - the Mount of Olives and the Garden of Gethsemane. We will follow the Via Dolorosa (the Way of the Cross) and visit the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, the site of both Calvary and the Tomb where He was buried and from which He rose from the dead.

We have been to the Holy Land multiple times and the experience of the Holy Land is like no other in your life. At each location, we will read and reflect on the Gospels. You will never again see or hear these words of Scripture without vividly recalling the places where Jesus walked and taught. We will have time for shopping and go into the community and experience their lives.

Ask yourself, is the Lord inviting you to fulfill the dream of every Christian, to make a pilgrimage to the Holy Land, to experience the places made holy by the patriarchs, kings, prophets, Christian apostles and saints, and by the Lord himself?

Let us go together and experience the mystical awe and beauty of Israel.

Peace,

Deacon Dennis & Joan Sullivan

Our Daily Itinerary

Day 1, Sunday, February 25: Depart the USA

Today, we depart Phoenix en route to London with complimentary meals and beverages served aloft.

Day 2, Monday, February 26: Arrive London / Transfer to hotel

We arrive in London and walk to our hotel at the London Airport. Some of our party may wish to take the Paddington Express Train into the heart of London to explore the Royal City. Dinner is on our own this evening.

Day 3, Tuesday, February 27: Arrive Tel Aviv / Transfer to Galilee

This morning we walk to the terminal to board our continuing flight to Tel Aviv. We arrive at the Tel Aviv airport in the mid-afternoon to meet our Catholic Travel Centre guide who will accompany us throughout our journey. Boarding our waiting motor coach, we transfer to our accommodations located atop the Mount of Beatitudes. Dinner is served at our accommodations. (D)

Day 4, Wednesday, February 28: Galilee: Visit of Sepphoris, Cana & Nazareth

After a sleepover and a good breakfast, we will travel to Sepphoris, the home of Mary's family, a Roman free city and the capital of Galilee during Jesus' youth. Then we journey on to Cana, where Jesus performed His first miracle at the request of His mother (John 2:1-11). In Cana we will visit the Franciscan chapel where Jesus began His public ministry in the Gospel of St. John. Here we invite couples to receive a blessing of their marriage vows. We will have some time for our included lunch at a local restaurant.

This afternoon we focus on Nazareth, the site of Joseph and Mary's home and the town where Jesus played as a child, learned a trade, and grew to manhood. We will celebrate Mass in the Basilica of the Annunciation. Then return to our accommodations on the Mount of Beatitudes for dinner, rest and the evening. (B, L, D)

Day 5, Thursday, February 29: Galilee: Capernaum, Tabgha, Peter's Primacy, boat ride & Jordan River

This morning after breakfast, we visit Capernaum where Jesus began his Galilean ministry, and see the synagogue that dates to the time of Jesus and the site of Peter's home. Here we celebrate Mass. We continue to Tabgha where Jesus fed the crowd of 5,000. A short distance away is "Peter's Primacy," the site where, after His resurrection, Jesus met with his disciples and told Peter to "feed my lambs; feed my sheep" (John 21:9).

After our traditional lunch of Peter's Fish, this afternoon we take a boat ride on the Sea of Galilee, where we recall the episode of Christ calming the waters. Our day concludes at the Jordan River to recall how Jesus himself experienced the baptism of John at the beginning of His ministry. Here we will renew our own Baptismal commitment, through which we have become disciples of Jesus and sharers in His divine life and mission. Dinner this evening is served at renowned Magdalena Restaurant. (B, L, D)

Day 6, Friday, March 1: Galilee / Mt. Tabor / Bethlehem: Shepherd's Field

Today after breakfast, we depart the scene of the early ministry of Jesus in Galilee and head for south toward Bethlehem and Jerusalem. First we stop, as Jesus did, on Mount Tabor, the site of the Transfiguration (Luke 9: 28-36). Our motor coach will park in the parking lot below and we will board taxis and make the winding ascent. The basilica here is an inspiring structure. Here we celebrate Mass. Lunch follows at a local restaurant. On our way to Bethlehem we stop at Shepherd's Field for a visit and then have some time for shopping at a local Christian store. Dinner is served at our hotel. (B, L, D)

Day 7, Saturday, March 2: Bethlehem: Manger Square & Ein Karem

This morning after an early breakfast, we walk from our hotel to the Manger Square which stands in front of one of the oldest of Christian churches, the Church of the Nativity. Bending low so as to enter through the Door of Humility, we enter the Church and descend into the Grotto of the Nativity. Beneath the Altar, a 14 pointed Silver Star marks the exact spot surrounded by the Latin inscription: HIC DE VIRGINE MARIA JESUS CHRISTUS NATUS (Here Jesus Christ was born to the Virgin Mary). We celebrate Mass at one of the chapels in the Church of Nativity.

We walk the short distance to the Milk Grotto (officially the "Grotto of the Lady Mary"). The Grotto, with a Franciscan chapel built above it, is considered sacred because tradition has it that the Holy Family took refuge here during the Slaughter of the Innocents, before their flight into Egypt. Tradition has it that while Mary was nursing Jesus here, a drop of milk fell to the ground, turning it white. Lunch is included at Casa Nova, Franciscan House.

In the afternoon, we travel to Ein Karem, traditional site of the Visitation of Mary with Elizabeth and Zechariah. We visit the Church of the Visitation. Dinner is served at our hotel. (B, L, D)

Day 8, Sunday, March 3: Bethlehem / Beit Jala / Jerusalem: Israel Museum, Western Wall & Old City

We check out of our hotel in Bethlehem and travel a short distance to Beit Jala where we join local community for the celebration of the Sunday liturgy. We continue to Jerusalem where we visit the Israel Museum, housing an exhibit on the Dead Sea Scrolls and a model of the city of Jerusalem from the time of Jesus. Here we enjoy a visit and our included lunch. We continue to the Western Wall of the ancient Temple destroyed in 70 AD. This is the most sacred place for Jews and a place of prayer. We view the Temple Mount from a distance, which in the time of Jesus was the site of the Jewish Temple and is now a major Muslim Shrine, the Dome of the Rock Our day concludes at the Pools of Bethesda where Jesus healed the paralytic. We check in to our Jerusalem hotel. Dinner follows at our hotel. (B, L, D)

Day 9, Monday, March 4: Jerusalem: Mt. of Olives, Gethsemane, & Latin Patriarchate

We begin our day at the top of the Mount of Olives to gain a panoramic view of the Old City. We come to the Garden of Gethsemane and the Basilica of the Agony, also known as Church of All Nations. We pause here to recall Christ's agony during a quiet hour of prayer in the Garden. We celebrate Mass in the Basilica. Lunch is served at a local restaurant. In the afternoon, we request an audience at the Latin Patriarchate with one of the representative leaders of the Catholic community (subject to final schedule). The eligible members of the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem will receive their Pilgrim's Shell (vestments are provided for EOSHJ members). Time on our own in the Old City. Dinner is served at our hotel. (B, L, D)

Day 10, Tuesday, March 5: Jerusalem: Via Dolorosa, Holy Sepulchre; Mt. Zion & Pools of Bethesda

This morning after early breakfast, we gather at the Antonia Palace to walk the Via Dolorosa, the Way of the Cross. We conclude the Way of the Cross and celebrate Mass at the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. After Mass our guide will take us on a tour of Calvary and the Tomb of Jesus. There is much regarding our salvation history connected with these sites that will be explained to us by our guide. Lunch is included at a local restaurant.

In the afternoon we cross the Kidron Valley where Jesus was led up to the Palace of Caiaphas for His first interrogation by the High Priest. The site is known today as St. Peter in Galicantu ("crowing rooster"). Then we make our way to Mt. Zion, where we visit the Upper Room, commemorating the Last Supper. We will visit the Benedictine Church of the Dormition if the renovation of the church is completed and the church is open for a visit. Dinner is served at our accommodations. (B, L, D)

Day 11, Wednesday, March 6: Jerusalem: Excursion to Masada & Dead Sea

Today we begin with the early Solemn Mass at the Church of the Holy Sepulchre (subject to final confirmation), followed by breakfast at our hotel. Then we travel south to Masada, (the mountain fortress of King Herod) and the Dead Sea (for a swim, bring your swimsuit). We stop for our included lunch along the way. In the afternoon, we stop in Jericho to get the flavor of the Judean Wilderness where Jesus fasted 40 days and 40 nights before beginning his public ministry. We view the Mount of Temptation from a distance. Then we return to our accommodations for dinner and the evening. (B, L, D)

Day 12, Thursday, March 7: Jerusalem: Bethlehem University / Emmaus / Abu Ghosh / Jaffa / Tel Aviv

This morning after breakfast, we check out from our hotel and travel to the Bethlehem University to visit with the students. Then we drive to Emmaus. It was on the road to Emmaus that Jesus appeared to his disciples following his resurrection and revealed himself in the breaking of the bread (Luke 24:13-35). We celebrate the closing Mass of our pilgrimage at Abu Gosh – Emmaus. We will have time for lunch on our own. We continue to Jaffa for a short visit and dinner at a local restaurant then check in to our hotel for the evening. (B, D)

Day 13, Friday, March 8: Return USA

Early this morning we transfer to the Tel Aviv airport to board our flight to London, where we connect to our continuing flight to Phoenix.

Note: While no changes are anticipated, there may be unforeseen occasions when certain alterations become necessary to this itinerary, either due to changes in airline schedules or for other reasons. All Masses are subject to local church schedules and substitution with alternate Mass sites if churches mentioned are not available.

If a country requires proof of COVID vaccination and/or a negative COVID test, it is the responsibility of the passenger to secure such documentation within the required timeframe as a condition for joining this tour.

Our suppliers (hotels, airlines, motor coach companies, etcetera) have agreed to abide by COVID-protective measures as outlined by local health authorities and government agencies, and the traveler agrees to abide by these policies as well. The Traveler understands that while CTC has made a reasonable inquiry to ensure these policies are adhered to by our suppliers, there may be occasions when the policies are not followed as completely as the policy suggests. Therefore, the Traveler agrees not to hold CTC, our suppliers, or the group leaders responsible should they contract any illness during or after their travel.

It is highly recommended Travelers be medically healthy and physically capable of significant walking. CTC tours involve international travel to foreign countries that have different standards of accessibility than U.S. law. Transportation services, which are provided by third parties, as well as visited sites and accommodations, which are not owned, leased, or controlled by CTC, may not be compliant with accessibility standards required by U.S. law. CTC cannot guarantee wheelchair, motorized scooter, or walker accessibility during a trip and does not provide individual assistance to Travelers. If a Traveler requires special individual assistance, the Traveler, not CTC, is responsible for bringing and paying for a capable companion willing to assist the Traveler. CTC assumes no responsibility for Travelers' inability to fully participate in the tour, nor does CTC provide any refund for non-participation in any part of the tour.

TRAVEL INSURANCE: CTC strongly suggests the purchase of Travel Insurance to help protect Travelers' investment in the trip and to help provide medical coverage outside the United States. We also strongly suggest you purchase the broadest coverage available with the least amount of exclusions. Travel Insurance is encouraged because CTC strictly adheres to our Cancellation Policy. Because some Travel Insurance plans contain time-sensitive benefits, we encourage Travelers to do their research and purchase insurance in a timely manner. CTC is not qualified to answer technical questions about the benefits, exclusions, and conditions of travel insurance plans. CTC cannot evaluate the adequacy of the prospective insured's existing insurance coverage. If you have any questions about your travel protection, call your insurer or insurance agent or broker. Declining to purchase an adequate travel protection plan could result in the loss of your travel cost and/or require more money to correct the situation. You also acknowledge that without this coverage, there may be no way to recoup any losses, costs, or expenses incurred. If you choose to travel without adequate coverage, CTC will not be liable for any of your losses howsoever arising, for which trip protection plan coverage would otherwise have been available.

STATE DEPARTMENT & OTHER AGENCIES' ADVISORIES: The State Department (www.state.gov), the Center for Disease Control (www.cdc.gov), and other government departments and agencies may issue travel advisories or warnings for one or more of the destinations visited on tour, and such advisories or warnings may even be in effect at the time of your registration for this tour. Should you choose to travel to a country that has been issued a travel warning or advisory, CTC will not be liable for damages or losses that result from travel to such destinations. CTC cannot change its Cancellation Policy or Terms & Conditions based on any such warning or advisory or the occurrence of any terror, health, pandemic, or other incident in one or more of the places this tour is scheduled to visit. All cancellation penalties remain in full force and effect. It is your responsibility to be aware of any and all requirements for admittance to a country or state, including COVID-19 requirements. Certain countries have a requirement for foreign visitors to have valid medical insurance on entry. CTC cannot be held responsible for denied entry if the Traveler is unable to provide details to authorities of insurance or denial of entry for any reason.

ITINERARY: The itinerary presented in this brochure represents what CTC is planning for this trip; however, the itinerary is subject to final confirmations and changes in local schedules. Included meals are as shown in the itinerary (B=Breakfast, L=Lunch, D=Dinner).

AIR TRANSPORTATION: All airline tickets are round-trip economy class and non-refundable unless specifically stated. Any cancellation, itinerary change, or failure to use confirmed space is subject to penalties and/or fees levied by the airline at the time of ticketing. Traveler waives any ownership or publication right in connection with photographs or film taken by CTC.

PARTICIPATION: CTC reserves the right to decline to accept or retain any Traveler on any of its tours if, in its sole discretion, it deems accepting or retaining any such Traveler as being detrimental to the tour. No refunds shall be made for any unused portion of the tour in this instance, and any expenses related to early return home are the sole responsibility of the traveler. Traveler agrees to and shall indemnify and hold harmless CTC, and each of our officers, directors, employees and agents (collectively "CTC"), from any expenses, losses, liabilities, damages, judgments, settlements, and costs (collectively, "damages") involved with or incurred by CTC (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the advancement of same) with respect to any claims, law suits, arbitrations, or other causes of action, which result, directly or indirectly, from: (i) traveler's breach or violation, or threatened breach or violation, of this Agreement and (ii) Any damage caused by traveler while participating in the trip.

CTC likewise disclaims any liability for statements, actions, or inactions of any intermediary agents, such as group administrators, spiritual directors, tour leaders, travel agents, or any other intermediary involved with the selling, promotion, or operation of CTC's tours. Furthermore, to the fullest extent permitted by law, CTC disclaims any liability for any damages or injuries, or other losses whatsoever, sustained or incurred as a result of the negligence of CTC. Group administrators, spiritual leaders, and tour leaders likewise expressly disclaim any liability for the acts and/or omissions of any of the above entities and/or individuals not directly under their supervision or control. Please be advised that the liability of carriers as well as providers of hotel and lodging accommodations is limited by law, and Travelers may thus wish to consider purchasing a Travel Protection plan and/or additional insurance to protect themselves against any losses or injuries suffered as a result of their acts and/or omissions. In no event shall CTC's liability exceed the amounts paid by the Traveler for participation in the tour, and subject to the provisions and cancellation fees as set forth in this brochure. In the event the tour leader and/or spiritual director named in a brochure or itinerary does not travel with the group and a substitute is not named therein, CTC reserves the right to make substitutions of its choosing for such person(s). CTC is not responsible for any misquotes contained in this brochure or other accompanying documentations, and the contents therein may be changed at any time without notice and at CTC's sole discretion.
