St. Raphael CATHOLIC CHURCH

MARCH 19, 2023 | FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Reflections on today's Gospel

JOHN 9:1-41

(1 Samuel 16:1b, 6-7, 10-13a; Psalm 23; Ephesians 5:8-14)

KEY VERSE:

"One thing I do know is that I was blind and now I see" (John 9:25).

TO KNOW: Jesus told his disciples that no follower of his would walk in darkness but would have the "light of life" (Jn 8:12). During the seven-day feast of Tabernacles, the temple area was illuminated with torches. On the last day of the festival, water from the pool of Siloam was poured on the altar in thanksgiving for the rain that assured a good harvest. Jesus declared that he was the fountain of "living water" that brought forth new life (7:37-38). Moreover, he was the "light of the world" who enlightened those in darkness (9:4). The story of the man born blind illustrated these two sayings of Jesus. When Jesus' disciples saw the blind man, they asked, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents that he was born blind?" Jesus answered that it was not due to the sins of the man, nor of his parents. It was so that the works of God might be made visible through him. Then Jesus made a mixture of clay and salvia, put it on the blind man's eyes, and told him to wash in the pool of Siloam (meaning "sent"). When he did so, his blindness was cured. The Pharisees, who were spiritually blind, accused Jesus of breaking the Sabbath law by healing the man. But the man knew that his healing had come from God, and he fell at Jesus' feet and acknowledged him as "Lord." This story was a popular feature of Baptismal ceremonies in the early Church. St. Augustine said, "The blind man is the whole human race."

TO LOVE: Have I been praying for the Elect who are journeying to baptism this Lent?

TO SERVE: Lord Jesus, you are a lamp to my feet, leading me to the waters of your healing grace.

To address the many challenges facing the Church today, the US Conference of Catholic Bishops has called us to reflect deeply upon the Eucharist. Parish catechists, youth ministers, RCIA coordinators and other parish leaders are invited to attend a upcoming Formation Day to study, "The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church," the 2021 document released by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) outlining the goals of the National Eucharistic Revival going on now through 2025. Through presentations by priests and catechists, and discussion with peers from Arkansas parishes, attendees will gain a deeper understanding of the meaning of Christ's gift of himself in the Eucharist, and our response to his gift.

March 20th is the

Solemnity of Saint Joseph, spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Memorare to Saint Joseph

Remember, O most chaste spouse of the Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto you, my spiritual father, and beg your protection. O Foster Father of the Redeemer, despise not my petitions, but in your goodness hear and answer me. Amen.
