Reflection

The words of the psalmist echo the theme of all of today's readings. "Blessed are they who hope in the Lord." As good stewards, firmly grounded in that hope, may we bear fruit in due season — assisting the poor, feeding the hungry, and consoling the sorrowful whenever we have the chance.

Remember to keep in prayer: all parishioners with a chronic illness, in nursing homes, in the hospital, and the many homebound. If you wish to add someone to the prayer list, please call the office. Names will be kept on the list for one month unless otherwise stated.

Reflexión

Las palabras del Salmista hacen eco del tema de todas las lecturas de hoy. "Felices los que esperan en el Señor." Como buenos administradores de los bienes de Dios, cimentados firmemente en esa esperanza, demos fruto en su debido tiempo — ayudando a los pobres, ali-mentando a los hambrientos, y consolando a los afligidos siempre que se presente la oportunidad.

Dear Holy Family,

Last weekend Bishop Boyea addressed all of us about participating in the worldwide synod currently being held in the Catholic Church. The word 'synod' means "Together on the Way" and indicates that the People of God, the Church, walk together following Jesus who is himself "the Way, the Truth, and the Life." (John 14:6). In addition, the term 'the Way' was one of the earliest terms used to describe Christianity as Jesus's disciples were called 'followers of the Way' (cf. Acts 9:2, 19:9, etc.).

Since the first centuries of our church, the term "synod" has been applied to church communities convoked on various levels (diocesan, provincial, regional, universal) to discern, by the light of the Word of God and listening to the Holy Spirit the doctrinal, liturgical, canonical and pastoral questions that arise as time goes by.

In May 2021, Pope Francis invited bishops from every diocese in the world to begin a process, called a synod, to spend time with the entire People of God reflecting upon communion, participation, and mission. It will culminate in a meeting of bishops in Rome in 2023.

The term "synod" means to be on the same path with other disciples who follow Jesus Christ, the Way who leads us to abundant life.

"By walking together, and together reflecting on the journey made, the Church will be able to learn from what it will experience which processes can help it to live communion, to achieve participation, to open itself to mission," said the Pope at the launch of the synod process. Thus, the Holy Father wishes us:

- To listen, as the entire People of God, to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the Church;
- To listen together to the Word of God in Sacred Scripture and the living Tradition of the Church;
- To listen to one another, and especially to those at the margins, in discerning the signs of the times.

Given this, Bishop Boyea is asking us to have conversations with those in our lives who are struggling with the practice of their Catholic Faith; those who are disconnected or, even, lapsed from the Faith; and those who have never been Catholic. We want to hear what they have to say too.

On the following pages of our bulletin this week, I have reprinted the conversation guides that were handed out at the parish last week that Bishop Boyea asked us to use so that we can engage in this process.

As Lent approaches, I ask you to do these things to make our participation in the synod a success:

1. Pray to the Holy Spirit and ask the Spirit if there are people in your life struggling with or disconnected from the practice of the Catholic Faith, that the Lord would want you to have a conversation with.
2. Review the conversation guide here in the bulletin.
3. Invite those people into conversation about their experience of the Church using the conversation guide. You will want to take some notes during the conversation about what they say.
4. Upload the feedback from the conversation using the QR Code on the back of the guide or by using the Synod Group Conversation Feedback sheet or Synod Individual Conversation Feedback sheet found at dioceseoflansing.org/synod

Thank you for your participation! With your help we can make sure that Bishop Boyea and Pope Francis hear about our experience of Church here in Adrian and beyond!

May God be praised!

~ Fr. Mike, OSFS

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Thanks to those brave souls willing to battle through the cold weather to unload our food truck last Thursday. The groundhog says we will have one more cold month but then some warmer weather in April and we look forward to it.

Meijer has chosen our pantry from now till April 2nd to participate in their "Simply Give" program. March 5th and 26th are double match days. On those two days, your $10 donation will be matched by Meijer with another $20 resulting in a $30 donation for our pantry. Meijer has been a great community supporter and this is a wonderful way to leverage your donation. Cards will be distributed after all masses on Feb 26th and 27th and they are also available at the Adrian store near the checkout sites.

We can use donations of personal care items, cereal, juice, mustard, and mayo. With cold weather upon us, drinks such as tea, and cocoa mixes are especially appreciated. Please continue to save your clean, used, plastic bags. We use hundreds each week since we double bag all of our groceries. Please drop them off at the pantry Wednesday or Friday, from 1 pm to 3 pm or in our cabinet in the Baptistry after any of the Masses.

Thanks very much to all our donors and supporters. A special thanks and welcome to our new volunteers. Celebrate the feast of Saint Valentine this week by doing something nice for someone in need.

QUERIDA SAGRADA FAMILIA,

La semana pasada el Obispo Boyea nos predicó sobre nuestra participación en el sínodo mundial que ya está en proceso en la iglesia católica. La palabra 'sínodo' significa 'juntos en el camino y indica que el Pueblo de Dios, la Iglesia, camina juntos siguiendo a Jesús que es "el Camino, la Verdad y la Vida" (Juan 14:6). En adición la palabra "camino" es el primer nombre que se le dio al cristianismo (Hechos 9:2; 19:9, etc.).

Hace los primeros siglos la Iglesia ha usado la palabra "sínodo" para describir reuniones de la iglesia católica en niveles diferentes (diocesano, provincial, regional, universal) para discernir, por la Palabra de Dios y escuchando al Espíritu Santo, las preguntas doctrinales, litúrgicas, canónicas, y pastorales/espirituales que viene a medida que pasa el tiempo.

En mayo de 2021, el Papa Francisco invitó a los obispos de cada diócesis en el mundo a iniciar un proceso llamado sínodo, para pasar tiempo con todo el Pueblo de Dios reflexionando acerca de la comunión, participación, y misión. Va a culminar en una reunión de obispos en Roma en el 2023.

El término "sínodo" significa estar en el mismo camino con otros discípulos que siguen a Jesucristo, el Camino que nos conduce a la vida abundante.

"Al ir caminando juntos, y reflexionar juntos en el camino llevado a cabo, la Iglesia será capaz de aprender de lo que va a experimentar como los procesos que la pueden ayudar a vivir la comunión, para lograr la participación, para abrirse a la misión," dijo el Papa ante el lanzamiento del proceso del sínodo.

Así, el Santo Padre quiere que nosotros:

- Escuchemos, como todo el Pueblo de Dios, lo que el
- Espíritu Santo le está diciendo a la Iglesia;
- Escuchemos juntos la Palabra de Dios en la Sagrada Escritura y la Tradición viva de la Iglesia;
- Que nos escuchemos los unos a los otros, y especialmente a los que están en las periferias, para discernir los signos de los tiempos.

Por esto, el Obispo Boyea nos está pidiendo que tengamos conversaciones con aquellas personas en nuestras vidas que están teniendo dificultad con la práctica de la Fe Católica; aquéllos que están desconectados o incluso que no practican la Fe; y aquellos que nunca han sido católicos. También queremos escuchar lo que ellos tienen que decir.

En este boletín ha imprimido la guía para la conversación que recibieron ustedes después de la misa la semana pasada y que el Obispo nos pide usar para tener estas conversaciones.

Al llegar la Cuaresma, yo les pido que participen para que el sínodo tenga éxito y la Iglesia oiga nuestras voces.

1. Reza al Espíritu Santo y pide al Espíritu si hay gente en tu vida que está luchando con la iglesia o está desconectada de la iglesia. También pide el Espíritu si él quiere que hables con ellos.
2. Revisa la guía para la conversación aquí en el boletín.
3. Invite a esta gente en conversación sobre sus experiencias de la iglesia usando la guía. Saque apuntes durante la conversación si puedes.
4. Después de la conversación suba su retroalimentación de la conversación usando las hojas de retroalimentación a dioceseoflansing.org/synod

¡Gracias por tu participación! Con su ayuda se asegura que el Obipso Boyea y el Papa Francisco oyen nuestras experiencias de la Iglesia aquí en Adrian y más allá.

¡Bendito sea nuestro Señor!

~ P. Mike, OSFS

LOVE

What is love?

Love is one of the most used and misused words to which we attach completely different meanings. We say we have a love of country, our profession, the love among friends and family, our love of food or material items, our love of God. We look at each of these expressions of love differently since our love for a specific food is different than our love for our children, our love of spouse is different than our love of material things.

Pope Benedict XVI said "Love is fundamental, an expression of a primordial reality. We cannot simply abandon it; we must take it up again, purify it, bringing it to its original splendor so that it can illumine our life and guide us on the right path."

The love between man and woman emerges as love par excellence and next to this kind of love all others pale in comparison. Body and soul contribute seamlessly to the realization of this type of love, and as human beings, we are presented with a promise of happiness that is irresistible.

Tip from Pope Francis:

Married couples, keep your marriage full of joy. Plan a date night or get-away with your spouse!

As Pope Francis says,

"Young love needs to keep dancing towards the future with immense hope."

Please consider sharing your Love of God, talents and gifts with God's children in need by volunteering in one of the following ministries. You do not have to be a Eucharistic Minister. We can provide the required training that you would need. One of the most important aspects of these ministries is simply being present to the people and showing them you care.

SYNOD CONVERSATION GUIDE

What the Synodal process asks of us:

- To be open to what the Holy Spirit is revealing in this encounter;
- To prayerfully encounter the other person who, sadly, may be living far from the teachings of the Church;
- Dialogue with that person in a way that is cooperative and with the purpose of building relationship and exchanging perspectives;
- Acknowledge with sensitivity any trauma, abuse, or a deep hurt that person has suffered as the result of previous encounters with members of the Church; be patient, recognizing that the person may be speaking out of woundedness.

Suggested Questions for Conversation

Prior to asking the individual the following questions please note their age, sex, zip code, race or ethnicity, marital status, faith of origin and present faith identity. Suggested conversations then include:

1. How would you describe your present relationship with God?
2. How much of a connection do you presently feel towards the Catholic Church? This could refer to your connection to ordinary Catholics in your life, your local parish, your local diocese, the Universal Church or other Catholic entities.
3. Tell us about a positive experience you've had with the Catholic Church?
4. Tell us about any times when you've had a negative experience with the Catholic Church?
5. Would you say that the Catholic Church helps you or has helped you to understand the Good News of Jesus Christ? If so, in what way?
6. How could the Catholic Church better help you grow closer to Jesus Christ and His Church?
7. Is there anything you would like the bishops of the Church, or other Church leaders, to know about you?
8. Is there anything I didn't ask that you think would be helpful for me to know?
9. Feel free to ask any further questions that seem necessary or appropriate.

If you are comfortable, close your time of conversation by asking if there is any intention that person would like you to pray for.

Upload the feedback from the conversa4on by using the Synod Group Conversa4on Feedback sheet or Synod Individual Conversa4on Feedback sheet found at
