Gospel Reflection: Luke 23:35-43; Jesus is crucified under the title King of the Jews.

Today as a Church, we conclude our liturgical year and celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. The Gospel we proclaim shows the great mystery of our faith: In the moment of his crucifixion, Jesus is shown to be King and Savior of all.
Luke's Gospel has been loaded with surprises: the poor are rich, sinners find salvation, the Kingdom of God is found in our midst. Here we see the greatest surprise of all. We are confronted with the crucified Jesus, whom faith tells us is King and Savior of all. The irony is that the inscription placed on the cross, perhaps in mockery, contains the profoundest of truth. As the leaders jeer, the thief crucified by his side recognizes Jesus as Messiah and King, and finds salvation.
Jesus is King, but not the kind of king we might have imagined or expected. His kingship was hidden from many of his contemporaries, but those who had the eyes of faith were able to see. As modern disciples of Jesus, we, too, struggle at times to recognize Jesus as King. Today's Gospel invites us to make our own judgment. With eyes of faith, we, too, recognize that Jesus, the crucified One, is indeed King and Savior of all.

Family Connection

Understanding today's Feast of Christ the King may be particularly challenging. While we may not have a direct experience of kings or royalty, we have some sense of what these mean. We know that royalty have sovereignty over their kingdom. We know that those who are subjects to royalty offer them allegiance and honor. Christ is King in a way that is different from traditional understandings of royalty. Christ's kingship extends to all places, all people, and all times. Christ manifests his kingship through his death on the Cross, in which he offers salvation to all.

Recall with your children stories that you may have read about royalty. Talk with your children about what they have learned from these stories about what it means to be a king. Talk about what they have learned from these stories about what it means to be a subject.

Tell your children that this Sunday is the last Sunday in the Church Year, and on this Sunday, we celebrate a special feast called the Feast of Christ the King. Read today's Gospel, Luke 23:35-43. Reflect together on how the various people in this Gospel respond to Jesus on the Cross. Who in this Gospel recognizes Jesus as King? (the thief) What does Jesus promise the thief as a result? (The thief will be with Jesus in paradise.)

Talk about how your family will recognize and honor Christ the King. Pray together the Lord's Prayer and ask God to help your family to act in ways that show you recognize and honor Christ as King.

Respect Life Ministry:
"Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves, for the rights of all who are destitute. Proverbs 32:8.
Reflection. The ministry of Jesus shows a preferential option for the poor and weak, and the Church therefore inherits this as her own priority. The work of peace, justice, and life gives preference to those whom society has marginalized, and those who cannot defend themselves. These ministries are, essentially, a voice for the voiceless-whether those voiceless are oppressed nations, the poor, the terminally ill or the unborn.
Prayer. Thank you for the voice You give me, Lord. May I use it for those who have none." (October 18) Pro-life Reflections for Every Day, By Fr. Frank Pavone

Reflexión del Evangelio: Lucas 23:35-43; Jesús es crucificado bajo el título de Rey de los judíos.

Hoy, como Iglesia, concluimos nuestro año litúrgico y celebramos la fiesta de Cristo Rey. El Evangelio que anunciamos muestra el gran misterio de nuestra fe: en el momento de su crucifixión, Jesús se muestra como Rey y Salvador de todos.
El Evangelio de Lucas ha estado cargado de sorpresas: los pobres son ricos, los pecadores encuentran la salvación, el Reino de Dios se encuentra en medio de nosotros. Aquí vemos la mayor sorpresa de todas. Nos enfrentamos con Jesús crucificado, a quien la fe nos dice que es Rey y Salvador de todos. La ironía es que la inscripción colocada en la cruz, tal vez en burla, contiene la verdad más profunda. Mientras los líderes se burlan, el ladrón crucificado a su lado reconoce a Jesús como Mesías y Rey, y encuentra la salvación.
Jesús es Rey, pero no el tipo de rey que podríamos haber imaginado o esperado. Su realeza estaba oculta a muchos de sus contemporáneos, pero aquellos que tenían los ojos de la fe podían ver. Como discípulos modernos de Jesús, nosotros también luchamos a veces para reconocer a Jesús como Rey. El Evangelio de hoy nos invita a hacer nuestro propio juicio. Con ojos de fe, nosotros también reconocemos que Jesús, el Crucificado, es ciertamente Rey y Salvador de todos.

Conexión familiar

Comprender la fiesta de Cristo de hoy, el Rey puede ser particularmente desafiante. Si bien es posible que no tengamos una experiencia directa de reyes o realeza, tenemos una idea de lo que esto significa. Sabemos que la realeza tiene soberanía sobre su reino. Sabemos que aquellos que están sujetos a la realeza les ofrecen lealtad y honor. Cristo es Rey de una manera que es diferente de la comprensión tradicional de la realeza. La realeza de Cristo se extiende a todos los lugares, a todas las personas y a todos los tiempos. Cristo manifiesta su realeza a través de su muerte en la Cruz, en la que ofrece salvación a todos.

Recuerde con sus hijos historias que puede haber leído sobre la realeza. Hable con sus hijos sobre lo que han aprendido de estas historias sobre lo que significa ser rey. Hable sobre lo que han aprendido de estas historias sobre lo que significa ser un sujeto.

Dígales a sus hijos que este domingo es el último domingo del Año de la Iglesia, y en este domingo, celebramos una fiesta especial llamada la Fiesta de Cristo Rey. Lea el Evangelio de hoy, Lucas 23:35-43. Reflexionen juntos sobre cómo las diversas personas en este Evangelio responden a Jesús en la Cruz. ¿Quién en este Evangelio reconoce a Jesús como Rey? (el ladrón) ¿Qué promete Jesús al ladrón como resultado? (El ladrón estará con Jesús en el paraíso.)

Hable acerca de cómo su familia reconocerá y honrará a Cristo Rey. Oren juntos el Padre Nuestro y pídanle a Dios que ayude a su familia a actuar de manera que demuestre que reconocen y honran a Cristo como Rey.

Ministerio Respeto a La Vida:
"Hablen por aquellos que no pueden hablar por sí mismos, por los derechos de todos los indigentes. Proverbios 32:8.
Reflexión. El ministerio de Jesús muestra una opción preferencial por los pobres y débiles, y por lo tanto la Iglesia hereda esto como su propia prioridad. El trabajo de paz, justicia y vida da preferencia a aquellos a quienes la sociedad ha marginado y a aquellos que no pueden defenderse. Estos ministerios son, esencialmente, una voz para los que no tienen voz, ya sea que los que no tienen voz sean naciones oprimidas, pobres, enfermos terminales o no nacidos.
Oración. Gracias por la voz que me das, Señor. Que lo use para aquellos que no tienen ninguno". (18 de octubre) Reflexiones pro-vida para todos los días, por el P. Frank Pavone
