SOLEMNITY OF CHRIST THE KING
(Last Sunday of the Liturgical Year)

At the conclusion of this liturgical year, we take only one sentence from Bishop Ricken's letter: "Do this in memory of me." (page 13). That is what we do at Mass to carry out Christ's command, by perpetuating the Sacrifice of Christ the High Priest and King of the universe.

==========

Unlike many other Solemnities that celebrate "events," the Solemnity of Christ the King is meant to foster an awareness of Christ's dominion over all people and to establish peace among the nations. Christ is King over all. This Solemnity was established by Pope Pius XI in 1925 to celebrate the Jubilee Year and the 16th centenary of the Council of Nicea in 325 AD. Jesus was anointed by the Father with the oil of gladness as an Eternal Priest and Universal King. As Priest, He offered Himself as a sacrifice to the Father on the cross. As King, He claims dominion over all creation that He may present to the Almighty Father a "kingdom of truth and life, a kingdom of holiness and grace, a kingdom of justice, love and peace" – from the Preface of the Mass of the day.

2 Samuel 5:1-3 - The first king of the tribes of Israel was Saul. After his death, the people of the tribe of Judah made David their king (around 1,000 BC). Then there was war between the people of David (Judah which is in the South) and the other tribes. David overpowered them, and so they made him their king.

Our reading begins when people of the northern kingdom give three reasons why David should be their king: (a) He is their relative by blood. (b) He is a successful military leader. (c) He had already been chosen (somehow) to be the people's leader. The elders of the twelve tribes came and anointed David as their king. David ruled for 33 years. Although he had many sins, he also was fundamentally faithful to the Lord and was loved by him. In Psalm 89 we read "Forever, I will keep my steadfast love for him…" After the death of David, his son Solomon took over as king. Many people looked back to the days of David with gratitude.

Colossians 1:12-20 - A hymn of thanksgiving and exaltation of Christ for His greatness. In the reading, first the Colossians are called to give thanks to God for the blessings (a) for sharing in the inheritance of the saints; (b) for having been delivered from darkness; and (c) for the transference into the kingdom of God's Son. Paul says that redemption was won through the blood of the Son that was shed (on the cross). The image! An image may either represent something, or may be a visible expression or manifestation of something. It was due to this kind of understanding that the Hebrews forbade images of God. In our reading, Christ is not just an image of God in the sense above. He is the image of the unseen God, that is, the 'manifestation' of the invisible God. Christ is above all creation. He is the agent of all created things and also their goal.

As image or manifestation of the invisible God, the fullness of God dwells in Him. He is the agent of reconciliation. All things were reconciled through Him. This was and is only possible through the blood of Christ shed on the cross. Therefore, the human death of Christ on the cross is the means through which Christ reconciles all creation with God.

Luke 23:35 – 43 – The crucifixion of Jesus. This is a scene both of humiliation, but also of exaltation. Jesus is humiliated and ridiculed on one side, but on the other side His humiliations turn out to be His glorification and exaltation. The rulers of the Jews, the Roman soldiers and one of the criminals all reviled Jesus. They used the Messianic titles of Jesus to abuse Him. What they failed to realize was that in fact He indeed was the Messiah. This is where they went wrong.

The writing on the Cross by Pilate, KING OF THE JEWS, was certainly the reason why He was crucified. For the Romans, Jesus had claimed what He was not, but at the same time that is actually who Jesus was and is. He is King not only of the Jews, but of the entire universe. What was intended to be a writing of humiliation, turned out to be a statement of faith. One of the criminals recognized this, and immediately prayed and attained salvation. From that repentant thief we learn that however great our sins, we can always ask for forgiveness.

Some titles of Jesus to note on this day: King of Israel; Image of the Invisible God; Firstborn of All Creation; Firstborn from the Dead; Source of All creation; Head of the Body, the Church; Crucified King.

A Prayer for Hunters....

God our creator, who set man in dominion over all the animals,
Please make us honorable hunters who respect fellow hunters, the animals, and all creation;
Keep all hunters safe who share the field or the forest;
Make all hunters proud of their kill, generous with their meat, and thankful in all circumstances.

St. Hubert, patron saint of hunters, please pray for us.

Amen.
