Wednesday, June 8th 7-9PM at the OLPH School Auditorium. Join us for a special evening sponsored by our parish's Dignity of Life Committee to hear a story of Family, Faith & Forgiveness from Patti Ann McDonald who turned the tragedy of her NYPD husband's shooting into a journey of healing that has touched millions. Detective Steven McDonald lived to become an ambassador for peace bringing his message of conflict resolution through forgiveness to troubled areas from Ireland to Bosnia to Israel. Hear also from Ann Marie and Pat D'Aliso who lost a son to suicide at just 16 years old. By sharing their stories, they hope other lives will be saved. All are welcome to this free event. Light refreshments will be served.
