Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Peter testified to a dangerous and unpopular truth — that Christ was the Messiah. That courage, that trust in God, is the cornerstone of all we believe. Like Peter, we must always bear witness to the truth.

Prayer of Pastoral Care

O God,
Bless the souls You have entrusted to our care. As You hear

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

What do you call brothers who are born on the same day? Twins, of course. That is what we celebrate today in the inestimable saints, Peter and Paul. Wait: twins? Yes. The early Church believed that Peter and Paul were martyred in Rome on the same day. Since the day of martyrdom is celebrated as a saints' birth into eternal life, the result is striking: Peter and Paul are twins in God's family, the Church.

Who should care about this? Well, anyone who longs to live in a world marked by love and peace. Remember, the Romans believed that twins, Romulus and Remus, founded their city through an act of fratricide, the former murdering the latter. Sadly, the structures of this fallen world emerge through violence between those who should love each other. But in the Church, a new city has been founded upon this new set of twins, embodying the non-violent power of Jesus' cross and resurrection.

That's why traditional icons represent Peter and Paul in a fraternal and warm embrace. Contrasted with the violence of Rome's founders, it challenges us with a bold claim: do we believe that structures of merciful love are more powerful and lasting than those based on power, violence, and domination? Am I willing to see others in my life as my "twin," with whom I am called to give my life for Christ, or as my rival? Am I committed to living what is embodied in Romulus and Remus, or in Peter and Paul?

Novena to the Queen of Peace

From Monday, June 30 through Tuesday, July 8

O Sweet and Holy Mary, Queen of Peace and Mother of all the faithful, we fly to your maternal protection. Enfold the world in your mantle of peace and protect us all from the violent terrors lurking in the shadows of this very disturbed world. May you give a profound change of heart to those who cause harm and promote fear.

We pray that the dignity of every human life may be respected and that true charity would take root in every land. May the peace of Christ, which the world cannot give and the world cannot take away, be our constant hope in this time of chaos and violence. Grant that through the prayerful recitation of the Rosary, good may triumph over evil. By your powerful intercession, break the bonds of terror and oppression, so that the children of God may live in lasting security and authentic love for one another. Amen.

A Beautiful Day for Groceries ....

Tuesday, June 10 was a beautiful day ... for multiple reasons. We all know June weather can be tricky; some days we're not sure if it's March or August. But that Tuesday was perfect, especially for the over 530 people who went to St. Eulalia's Quinn Center for groceries and fresh produce. One hundred thirty-one (131) families went through the parking lot for bagged dinners, groceries, and produce. One hundred seven (107) bags of groceries were distributed.

On the previous Sunday, our team of volunteers packed 100 bags of groceries. Yes, that was fewer than were eventually picked up. Fortunately, we had a number of these bags of non-perishables in reserve. Once again, the June number was higher than previous months. The need continues to grow.

As Mother Theresa said, "Never be so busy as to not think of others" and "If you can't feed one hundred people, then feed just one." This is our monthly chance to feed more than one hundred people, and it is the volunteers who make it happen! To quote our Quinn Center Coordinator, Martha Minnich, "I'm glad we're able to help so many people. Thank you so much. We couldn't do it without you."

Our next bagging session will be on Sunday, July 6 at 1:45. Meet in the St. Eulalia parking lot. Come join us! Yes, it's the Fourth of July weekend, but what better way to celebrate the blessings of our country than to help others in need?! It's an hour and a half well spent! If you have any questions, you can contact Jan Magnuson at 312-806-7210 or jan7744@comcast.net.
