THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In the Gospel today Jesus tells his disciples to pray always without becoming weary, indeed our prayer must always be an expression of our love for God, our family, our world, and especially for the suffering poor.

As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box, please say a special prayer for the poor who have no one to pray for them.

En el Evangelio hoy, Jesús les dice a Sus discípulos que recen siempre sin agotarse. De verdad, nuestras oraciones siempre deben ser expresiones de nuestro amor por Dios, nuestras familias y nuestro mundo…y en especial, por los pobres que sufren tanto.

Mientras pones tu regalo en la Caja Pobre de la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl, por favor ofrece una oración especial por los pobres que tienen pocos que recen por ellos.

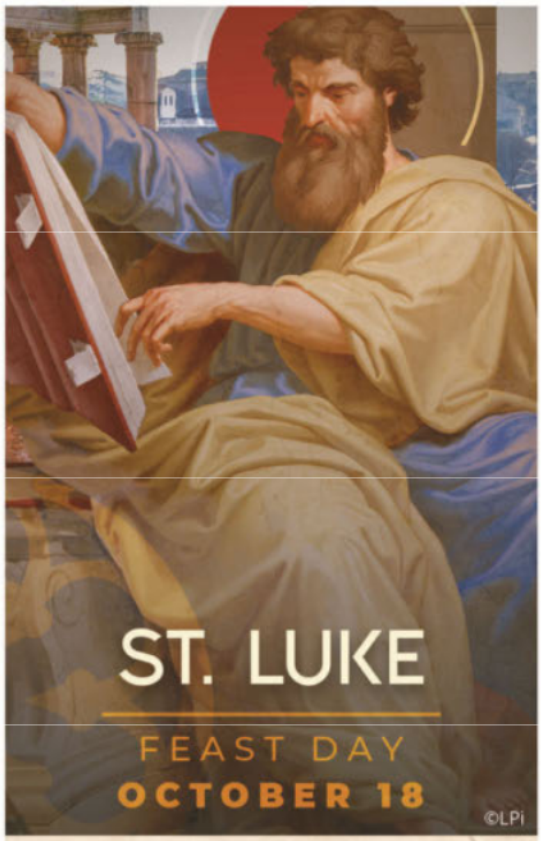
Inspiration for the week

Does God finally answer our persistent prayers to stop us from bothering Him? The thought that persistent prayer can be disturbing or upsetting to God does not ring true with the images of God as compassionate, understanding, merciful, and loving that our tradition conveys. Yet, Jesus tells his disciples to "pray always without becoming weary." Maybe the type of prayer necessary to endure the trials of discipleship and the challenges and criticisms of Christian teaching goes beyond words. We need to tend to the realities of human life. The persistent prayer of which Jesus speaks is the prayer of the heart. This contemplative, silent, loving prayer gives us the vision to see God in all things, especially in each human soul. Desiring God alone and not only what we want God to do for us places this love relationship foremost in our minds, hearts, and souls. As we breathe in and exhale out, the Divine Life flows. This alone can provide the strength of endurance to confront anything contrary to the truth of faith.



SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Luke, sometimes called The Evangelist, is the author of the third Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles and a physician. There is some debate about how he came to Christianity, though many believe he was a gentile convert. Tradition holds him to be a native of Antioch, Syria, possibly a slave. Most of what we know of Luke comes from Scripture, he was an eloquent and proficient writer, penning with accuracy the events he recounted. He is viewed as one of the best historical sources of the time.

Luke was a close companion of Paul's, joining him at Troas about year 51 and going with him to Macedonia and Philippi. Their paths diverged and met again as they journeyed to spread the Good News. Luke remained with Paul until the latter was martyred in Rome.

Saint Luke's Gospel is viewed as one of social justice, giving special attention to the poor. He also emphasizes gentiles hearing the message of Christ. It is the only Gospel with Mary's Magnificat, and spends the most time illuminating the lives of the other women around Jesus.

Accounts of Luke's death are conflicting, some say he was martyred shortly after Paul others that he lived a long life completing his Gospel in Greece and dying at 84. He is the patron saint of physicians.

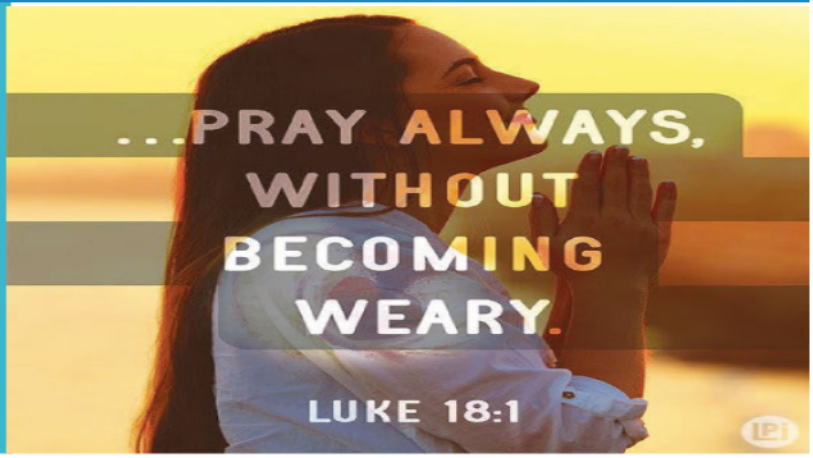
Let Yourself Pray

1 Exodus 17:8-13

2 Timothy 3:14-4:2

Luke 18:1-8



…Pray always, without becoming weary. — Luke 18:1

For the first nine months of my daughter's life, she didn't "sleep" so much as she succumbed to 45-to-90-minute power naps against which she struggled viciously, like a fugitive resisting capture.

In those blurry, melatonin-deficient days of early parenthood, I don't think I once said a nighttime prayer that lasted more than five seconds. As soon as my daughter had finally passed out for the first "nap" of the night, I hastened to make the most of my window of opportunity and tried to get to sleep as quickly as possible. Prayer was a mumbled half-thought, half-groan that went something like, "I'm so sorry, God, I'm just so tired, but I love you" as I was borne away on the irresistible current of a REM cycle.

And when I tell you that those were some of the most profound moments of communion with my creator that I have ever felt, I am not lying.

After my daughter began sleeping more and I stopped having an "excuse" for these brief, intense moments of conversation with God, I felt I had to return to my previous way of praying, a practice which closely resembles the recitation of the Gettysburg Address by a disinterested and slightly nervous fifth grader.

One evening not long ago, as I faceplanted into bed after the house went quiet, I actually got angry at the thought of praying. I am so sick and tired of everything. I am so done with giving. I do not have the strength or energy to coddle the ego of the creator of the universe, I told God resentfully. I am not praying tonight.

In other words, I was praying about how I was too tired and cranky to pray.

St. Therese of Lisieux, a true genius of the relationship between the human and the divine, described prayer as "a surge of the heart … a simple look turned toward heaven … a cry of recognition and of love." It's such a beautiful description, and far more appealing than "a long and belabored list of requests shamefully presented, compliments lazily given, and gratitude halfheartedly offered," which more accurately describes the type of prayer I've engaged in since childhood.

For most of my life, I have believed that I struggle with prayer — with finding the time for it, with doing it correctly and effectively. But I have recently come to realize that I don't struggle with prayer. I struggle with understanding what prayer is.

Prayer does not have to be a litany (though it can be!). It does not have to be a love letter (though it can be!). It does not have to be an act of worship like Mass, with rubrics and protocols (though it can be!). Prayer is not a transaction or a test or a compulsion. If it is any of these things, then it is not prayer.

Prayer is Moses raising his hands to Heaven — wearily, and with assistance. It is the widow desperately banging on the door of the indifferent judge. It is something that needs to be done, yes, but also something that we cannot help but want to do, because it is natural. It is what we were designed for.

I recently heard that the reason babies resist sleep is because they have not yet learned that sleep will bring relief for the discomfort of exhaustion. So, they thrash and claw and scream, protesting the cure for their ailment because they do not understand it.

Just let yourself sleep, I would whisper to my daughter all those years ago as she used every ounce of energy in her small body to fight against the thing she needed most. You're making this too complicated.

Just let yourself pray, God whispers to me. You're making this too complicated.

Immaculate Conception Catholic School and Parish are once again joining the Samaritans Purse's Ministry, Operation Christmas Child Shoebox Collection. Samaritans Purse, with the support of parish communities, provides gifts for needy children of the world at Christmas. In some cases, this will be the only gift a child will receive. The shoebox gifts usually contain basic necessities, a small toy and the promise of hope! Shoe boxes and labels will be available to pick up at the school or in the church vestibule beginning October 17, 2022. Operation Christmas Child National Collection Week is from November 14-21, 2022. If you are interested in packing a shoebox, please be sure to have it completed and dropped off at the school before November 21, 2022. Last year, the combined efforts of the school and parish produced 50 filled boxes! An act of generosity and kindness brings joy and warmth to the hearts of many. Whoever is kind to the poor lends to the Lord, and He will reward them for what they have done. "Proverbs 19:17"

Immaculate Conception Parish, Cottonwood is having it's

We invite you for a day of fun and relaxation, maybe do a little of early Christmas Shopping from our local crafters.

Enjoy a large variety of fresh home baked goodies from our parishioners. We will have a Raffle and the Knight of Columbus will provide Hamburgers and Hot Dogs for purchase .

HOLY HOLY HOLY J Dykes

Holy holy holy, Lord God Almighty, early in the morning, our song shall rise to Thee.
Holy holy holy, merciful and mighty: God in three persons, Blessed Trinity.

Holy holy holy, all the saints adore Thee. Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea. Cherubim and seraphim, falling down before Thee.
Which was and is and evermore will be.

Psalm 121: Our help is from the Lord who made heaven and earth.

FIRM FOUNDATION C. Moore & C. Carnes

Christ is my firm foundation: the rock on which I stand.
When everything around me is shaken, I've never been more glad.
That I put my faith in Jesus 'cause He's never let me down.
He's faithful through generations so why would He fail now.

He won't … He won't… He won't fail… He won't …

I've still got joy in chaos I've got peace that makes no sense
So I won't be going under I'm not held by my own strength
'Cause I've built my life on Jesus He's never let me down
He's faithful in every season So why would He fail now

Rain came, wind blew, my house was built on You.
I'm safe with You, I'm gonna make it through.

EAT THIS BREAD J. Berthier

Eat this bread, drink this cup. Come to me and never be hungry.

Eat this bread, drink this cup. Trust in me and you will not Live.

DO NOT FEAR TO HOPE R Cooney

Do not fear to hope Tho' the wicked rage and rise
Our God sees not as we see Success is not the prize
Do not fear to hope For tho' the night be long
The race shall not be to the swift The fight not to the strong

Look to God when you are sure. Your sin is greater than grace
Look to God whose love is gift, believe and you can behold him face to face

Look to God when victory seems out of justice' sight
Look to God whose mighty hand brought forth the day from the chaos of the night.

STAY WITH ME LORD T Muglia

Stay with me Lord. Stay with me Lord. Stay with me Lord,
You Know how easily I abandon you.
Stay with me Lord. Stay with me Lord. Stay with me Lord
You are my life without You I've no joy.

It's you I live for You alone.
Your will Your heart, Your Spirit Lord. Your love,
Your grace and nothing more will ever do.
Let me love You more and more

Stay with me Lord. Stay with me Lord. Stay with me Lord
I need your strength so I won't fall so often.
Stay with me Lord Stay with me Lord Stay with me Lord
That this communion be my source of strength

WORSHIP AID

YOUR GRACE IS ENOUGH M Maher

Great is Your faithfulness O God of Jacob.

You wrestle with the sinner's restless heart.

You lead us by still waters into mercy and nothing can keep us apart

So remember Your people, remember Your children

Remember Your promise. O God

Your grace is enough. Your grace is enough.

Your grace is enough for me

Great is Your love and justice God of Jacob.

You use the weak to lead the strong.

You lead us in the song of Your salvation and all Your people sing along.
