Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Jesus warns us that at any moment we can be called before God to face judgment. When we are, our life will be measured not in dollars or accomplishments, but in what matters to God. What do we have to show for our time spent on earth?

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Recent studies suggest that millennials will be the first generation in America to be worse off than their parents in terms of financial earnings and job status. Many lament this. I propose that this week's Gospel provides a hopeful way to see the trend as good news.

The Lord Jesus says, "Take care to guard against greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist in possessions" (Luke 12:15). Greed damages us with the deception that we are what we possess. But to Jesus, this is simply not true. What makes us happy is who we are, who we become.

Does not the expectation that every generation should do better than their parents subtly mask the poison of greed? A similar attitude is mirrored in the man who demands that Jesus justly arrange his share of the family inheritance. Despite the injustice, Jesus will not play that game. In fact, he seems to prefer that the man have less than his parents. What good would having more be to this man if he becomes enslaved and miserable by greed? What good would it be for us to have more if it means we become much less?

In allowing the man to have less, Jesus opens a space for him to become more: a man free to love. In that much more meaningful sense, perhaps he was better off than his parents. Maybe the millennials will be, too.

— Father John Muir

No Holiday for Needing Groceries

Tuesday, July 8 was a beautiful summer day. One of those increasingly rare days when the temperature was just right, with low humidity and a cloudless sky. It was also a great day for those who came to the St. Eulalia Quinn Center parking lot for groceries. One hundred thirty (130) families, equaling roughly 530 people, stopped by to pick up 124 bags of groceries. (Not everyone takes groceries; some just come for the bagged supper.)

On Sunday, July 6, our team of volunteers, including three new helpers from Queen of Peace Parish (hurrah and thank you!), packed 110 bags of groceries. A quick check of the math will tell you that it's a good thing we had some leftover bags from the previous month. And now .... we have five (5) bags left as we head into August. So, our target for the August bagging session will be even higher than the one for July. Predicting the number of people who will stop by is definitely more art than science, but the trend has decidedly been moving upward throughout 2025.

A special thank you to all the helpers who carried, sorted, bagged, and cleaned up on July 6. That was the Independence Day holiday weekend, but our folks still turned out to help. When you think of it, isn't that what our faith teaches – taking care of others? On a recent Sunday, we heard the story of the Good Samaritan. He didn't have to stop to help this man he didn't know, but he did. He was the prototype Good Neighbor. Each month, through our financial and/or physical support, we have that same opportunity to help our neighbors, whether or not we know them.

Our next grocery bagging session is on Sunday, August 10 at 1:45 pm in the St. Eulalia parking lot, 9th Avenue and Bataan Drive, just south of the Eisenhower Expressway. Please come join us! If you have any questions, please contact me, Jan Magnuson at jan7744@comcast.net or 312-806-7210.

In the meantime, Happy Summer!

Saint Dominic

August 8

DOMINIC WORKED HARD AND SACRIFICED MUCH TO BRING THE HERETICS BACK TO THE TRUTH. HE ATE ONLY BREAD AND SOUP, SLEPT ON THE FLOOR AND WENT EVERYWHERE ON FOOT. THE DREAM THAT HIS MOTHER HAD REPRESENTED THE LIGHT OF TRUTH THAT DOMINIC WOULD BRING TO THE WORLD.

Liturgical Life

"But God said to him, 'You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?' Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God." - Lk 12:20-21

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

The author of Ecclesiastes speaks of the futility of an anxious heart and restless mind. What helps to ground you in your day-to-day living?

Second Reading:

Paul encourages the Colossians to put to death the "old self" (bad behavior) and to live into the "new self" (life in Christ). What could you do this week to practice this "new self"?

Gospel:

Jesus tells the crowds the parable of the rich fool, warning against excessive material wealth. How do you balance your material needs with "what matters to God"?

Support our local advertisers

Please show your support for your parish by also supporting our advertisers. We wouldn't be able to bring you our bulletin every week without them. Please encourage and remind others to show their support and shop local.

QUEEN OF PEACE PARISH 2025-2026 RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PROGRAM PROVIDED AT ST. EUGENE SCHOOL

Regular Program Classes - Grades 1-7: Classes take place in a classroom setting with the overall work covered in class with the exception of the seventh grade students who complete additional papers and service hours in preparation for making their Sacrament of Confirmation in the fall of their eighth grade year. Classes are held on Tuesdays beginning October 7th and are held from 3:45-4:45 p.m.

Independent Study Program - Grades 1 – 7: This class is for parents who want their children to complete their grade-level chapter work at home and want to use their church attendance as their participation in religious education.

This program requires your child to attend at least fifteen of their weekly masses at Queen of Peace Parish at either St. Eugene Church or Our Lady, Mother of the Church from date enrolled to April.

PLEASE CALL THE MAIN OFFICE AT (773)763-2235.

Happy Summer!

Here are a few tips to keep yourself well this summer:

Hydrate, Hydrate, Hydrate

(unless placed on a fluid restriction by your physician) 2 waters to 1 Gatorade or Pedialyte bottle (when active outside)

Sunscreen/ Sunblock, SPF > 50 UVA/UVB

Sunscreen absorbs UV rays before they hit your skin, while sunblock prevents them from reaching you.

Basic information regarding Heat exhaustion and Sun/Heat Stroke

Heat exhaustion is the body's response to an excessive loss of water and salt, usually through excessive sweating.

This presents itself with one or more of the following symptoms:

- muscle cramping
- a rapid, weak pulse
- a general sense of weakness
- nausea or vomiting
- excessive sweating
- cold, clammy skin
- dizziness and sometimes fainting
- dark-colored urine
- headaches

Anyone who suspects that they have heat exhaustion should immediately rest and rehydrate. If symptoms do not improve, seek medical attention to prevent heatstroke.

Heatstroke, also called sunstroke, is the most serious heat-related illness. Heatstroke may begin with symptoms of heat exhaustion. It can be life-threatening, and symptoms may rapidly worsen, to include:

- a temperature of 104°F or higher
- hot, dry skin
- a racing heartbeat
- confusion
- agitation
- slurred speech
- seizures
- loss of consciousness
- coma

If not treated immediately, heatstroke can damage multiple organs and systems.

There are two types of heatstroke: exertional and non-exertional.

Non-exertional heatstroke occurs in those who cannot adapt well to increasingly hot temperatures. Older adults, people with chronic illnesses, and infants are often affected.

A person typically experiences this type of heatstroke when they are indoors without air conditioning, and they may not be engaging in any physical activity. It can take several days of high temperatures for non-exertional heatstroke to occur, and it is common during extreme heat waves.

Exertional heatstroke occurs in people whose bodies can no longer adapt to rising temperatures while exercising or working. This condition can develop within a few hours, and it usually affects people who are spending time outdoors.
