The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)

Please join us after each Sunday Mass this weekend for a Eucharistic procession!

"In a world where there is so much noise, so much bewilderment, there is a need for silent adoration of Jesus concealed in the Host. Be assiduous in the prayer of adoration and teach it to the faithful. It is a source of comfort and light, particularly to those who are suffering."
- Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI

This week, make it a goal to take a brief moment out of your work day to stop and visit Jesus. He waits for you!

From the Pastor's Desk

Saint John Paul II reminded us that the Church "does not only celebrate the Eucharist but solemnly bears it in procession, publicly proclaiming that the sacrifice of Christ is for the salvation of the whole world." We rejoice in this post-Easter expression of our Eucharistic faith and devotion in order to deepen our attachment to the unique and unending Event that transforms our lives. As the Sequence for Corpus Christi begs: "Jesu, of your love befriend us…You refresh us, you defend us….Your eternal goodness send us…In the land of life to see."

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

Collection for the Holy Father

Next weekend, June 29th and 30th, we have our annual collection for Peter's Pence. Pope Francis has called each of us to be a witness of charity. He encourages us to "open our eyes and see the misery of the world, the wounds of our brothers and sisters who are denied their dignity, and let us recognize that we are compelled to heed their cry for help!" (Misericordiae Vultus [MV], no. 15). The Peter's Pence Collection unites us in solidarity to the Holy See and its works of charity to those in need. Your generosity allows the Pope to respond to our suffering brothers and sisters.

The purpose of the Peter's Pence Collection is to provide the Holy Father with the financial means to respond to those who are suffering as a result of war, oppression, natural disaster, and disease.

Thank you for your generosity!

WHAT HAVE YOU DONE FOR YOUR MARRIAGE LATELY? Give a gift to your marriage by allowing Deacon James Keating to lead you through a spiritual and joyful retreat experience, August 16-18th, 2019 at the Richardton Abbey. This retreat will remind us that we are brought together in Christ to help us get one another to heaven. The goal of the weekend is to remind us of our call to be saints in the making . . . Together! $200 per couple. Register to attend at bismarckdiocese.com/marriageretreat

THINKING ABOUT BECOMING CATHOLIC? WANT TO DELVE DEEPER INTO THE CATHOLIC FAITH?

St. Joseph's will begin RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) Thursday, September 12, 2019 for those interested in becoming Catholic and also for those who want to grow deeper in knowledge of the faith. Not many parishes are privileged to have their very own pastor teach these classes! Whether you are a baptized Catholic, a baptized Christian, or not baptized at all, join Fr. Kovash in exploring some of the greatest depths of the Catholic faith! The following topics will be discussed: creation, the existence of God, the role of Scripture in our Faith, sin and its consequences, how to pray, what is prayer, what are the Sacraments, why do we go to confession, marriage and the priesthood, contraception, homosexuality, death and the afterlife, purgatory, salvation, justification, Mary, the Saints, and the Eucharist. These classes will take place on Thursdays at 6:20pm in O'Neill Hall from September 12th, 2019 - April 30th, 2020. Invite a friend!

ST JOSEPH'S HISPANIC MINISTRY Our Sisters from Mexico (Daughters of Immaculate Mary of Guadalupe) are leaving at the end of June. We will continue our Hispanic program with the help of the laity. If you are interested in helping with the Hispanic Ministry this upcoming year, would like to register for religious education classes in Spanish, need the sacraments or any help, please email us at: HispanicMinistry@stjparish.com

Nuestras hermanas de México (Congregación de Religiosas Hijas de María Inmaculada de Guadalupe) aquí en la parroquia de San José se irán en los próximos meses. Continuaremos con nuestro programa hispano. Si está interesado en ayudar con el Ministerio Hispano este próximo año, si le gustaría inscribirse en clases de español, necesita los sacramentos o cualquier otra ayuda y no puede hablar inglés, háganoslo saber o envíe un correo electrónico a HispanicMinistry@stjparish.com

LITURGY AND FAITH CROSSROADS

SACRED LINENS

The Church uses white linen for the vast majority of the liturgy where fabric is concerned. The altar must be covered with linen. The corporal that the ciborium and chalice are laid upon on the altar must be linen. The priest's alb must also be made of white linen. What is the significance of this fabric? Besides symbolizing the linen that covered Christ's body in His burial, the fabric also bears witness to the nature of purity with which the priest—and we along with him—must offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. The altar we see covered in front of us really represents the altar of our souls which should be united to Christ's pure offering. And for this, the white linen makes a strong appeal to our souls. But we should not be discouraged if we have not always been clean in heart or are not yet, for the linen also speaks to the process of attaining purity. It was not always spotless, but at first was quite unsightly; it had to be washed and rewashed, and then bleached. Purity is often understood as a gift that is never tainted or shaken up in a person, but this is not so for the vast majority of cases. It is something we must work at and be courageous in attaining. Good linen is costly, strong-fibered, and finely woven. This represents well the fruitful labors of a soul having fought a battle. It is costly, but worth the cost. When we come to Mass, we can be reminded through seeing the white linens of our call to purity. And what a better time to be reminded of this call—when the very price for this purity is being paid in front of our eyes and is being offered to us!

~Mary Evinger, DRE

(Summary thoughts from Romano Guardini's, Sacred Signs, with edits and additional comments)

A Story of a Man's Simple Prayer

There was an old man named Jim who would go to church every day at noon for just a few minutes, and then he would leave. The sacristan was very curious about Jim's routine, and one day he asked Jim, "Why do you come here every day?"
"I come to pray," Jim answered.
"That's impossible! What prayer can you say in two minutes?"
"I'm an old and ignorant man. I pray to God in my own way."
"But what do you say?"
"I say, 'Jesus, here I am. It's Jim.' And then I leave."
After some years, Jim became ill and had to go to the hospital, where he was admitted to the ward for the poor. When it seemed that Jim was dying, a priest, a nurse, and a religious sister stood next to his bed. The priest asked him, "Jim, tell us how it is that from the day you came to this ward, everything changed for the better. How is it that the patients here have become happier, more content and friendlier?"
"I don't know. When I could walk around, I would try and visit everyone. I greeted them, small-talked with them. When I couldn't get out of bed, I called everyone over to me to make them laugh, to make them happy. With Jim, they are always happy."
"But why are you happy?"
"Well, aren't you happy when you receive a visitor?" replied Jim to the priest's question.
"Of course. But we've never seen anyone come visit you."
"When I came here, I asked you for two chairs. One was for you, Father, and one was reserved for my guest."
"But what guest?"
"I used to go to church to visit Jesus every day at noon. But when I couldn't do that anymore, Jesus came here."
"Jesus comes to visit you? What does he say?"
"He says, 'Jim, here I am. It's Jesus.'"
Before dying, Jim smiled and gestured with his hand toward the chair next to his bed, as if inviting someone to sit down. He smiled for the last time and closed his eyes.

Story told from Cardinal Francis Xavier Nguyen Van Thuan's book, Five Loaves & Two Fish.

PARISH TITHING SAFE AND SECURE THROUGH EFT

Electronic Funds Transferal for Offertory is available at St. Joseph's Parish. Worried about missing/lost envelopes, leaving them at home and in your car, or going on extended vacation? Automatically transferring funds is a safe, reliable, and efficient method of making your monetary gift to the church. Once enrolled, you can suspend, skip, or even cancel your scheduled transfers by simply calling the church office. Come by the parish office to register, or print the form from our stjparish.com website. If you have any questions, please email: manager@stjparish.com.

HAVE YOU EXPERIENCED THE LOVE OF THE HEART OF CHRIST FOR YOU???

Consider developing devotion to the Heart of Jesus. You may place an image of the Sacred Heart in your home, pray small invocations to Him, consecrate yourself and your family to the Sacred Heart and do the Nine First Friday's devotion as beginner ideas. Visit sacredheartdevotion.com for more info. The feast of the Sacred Heart is celebrated the Friday following Corpus Christi Sunday, this year on June 28th. The following are papal approved promises of Jesus given to the Church through St. Margaret Mary:

1. I will give them all the graces necessary for their state in life.
2. I will establish peace in their families.
3. I will comfort them in their trials.
4. I will be their secure refuge during life, and, above all, in death.
5. I will shed abundant blessings on all their undertakings
6. Sinners will find in My Heart an infinite ocean of mercy.
7. Lukewarm souls will become fervent.
8. Fervent souls will rapidly grow in holiness and perfection.
9. I will bless every place where an image of My Heart shall be exposed and honored.
10. I will give to priests the gift of touching the most hardened hearts.
11. The names of those who promote this devotion will be written in My Heart, never to be blotted out.
12. I promise thee, in the excessive mercy of My Heart, that My all-powerful love will grant to all those who receive Holy Communion on the First Friday of nine consecutive months, the grace of final penitence; they shall not die in My disgrace nor without receiving their Sacraments; My Divine Heart shall be their safe refuge in this last moment.

VOLUNTEER WITH ST. VINCENT DE PAUL Are you interested in helping individuals and families in need? Please contact Tony Fisher 580-0826 if you would like to help with our parish's new ministry to serve the poor. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is a Catholic lay organization that meets regularly to grow in friendship with God and each other. Springing from this spirituality, we see the face of Christ in those we serve in person-to-person encounters as we follow what Jesus taught us when he said, "Whatever you do to the least of my brothers and sisters you do to me."

SCRIP Business of the Week: FILLING UP?

Fill up with SCRIP and earn money for St. Joseph's Church & School. Did you know you can still make a contribution to our organization, even as you are spending more at the pump? Local gift cards are available for Horizon Resources (Cenex), Simonson's, Holiday Station Store, and M & H through our scrip program. Buy them from us for purchases you were going to make anyway. Pay face value, and help us with the fund-raising effort. You can purchase all the gift cards, over 600 both local & national, in O'Neill Hall after both weekend Masses.
