PASTOR'S DESK

Thank You!

Fr. Yakkel and I wish to say "Thank you!" to those who have given us Christmas gifts at the rectory. Your kindness is much appreciated!

Stay healthy, and have a great week!

In Christ,
Fr. Lehigh

NEW SACRAMENTAL EMERGENCY PHONE NUMBER: 740-343-0045 – After office hours, you may call this number directly if you or a family member are in serious need of the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick or need the Last Rites. Please leave a brief message with your name and a call back number, and one of the priests will return your call.

GOD, OUR SPOUSE AND LORD OF LIFE: "As a bridegroom rejoices in his bride, so shall your God rejoice in you." Today's first reading from Isaiah shows us how much God delights in human life. He rejoices in us as in a bride. He gives Himself to us as a bridegroom is called to do for his beloved. He protects and defends us, and leads us to the life that never ends. His commitment to humanity is the source of ours. Like Him, we are to give ourselves for the good of others, starting with the most vulnerable lives – children at the very beginning of their development in the womb.

This week, January 22nd, marks the sad anniversary of the Roe vs Wade Supreme Court decision that legalized the killing of those children by abortion throughout all nine months of pregnancy. This remains the single most destructive and barbaric public policy in our nation, and hundreds of thousands of Americans march in Washington, in San Francisco, and in many other cities at this time of year calling for a change. Moreover, this coincides with our nation's honoring of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., whose dream of equality for all under the law needs to be applied now to the children in the womb. This is a work around which Christians of all denominations should unite, and this week also marks the week of prayer for Christian Unity.

CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

PART FOUR: CHRISTIAN PRAYER

CHAPTER THREE, THE LIFE OF PRAYER

SECTION TWO, THE LORD'S PRAYER (Continued).

Article 4 THE FINAL DOXOLOGY

2855: The final doxology, "For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours, now and forever," takes up again, by inclusion, the first three petitions to our Father: the glorification of His name, the coming of His reign, and the power of His saving will. But these prayers are now proclaimed as Adoration and thanksgiving, as in the liturgy of heaven. The ruler of this world has mendaciously attributed to Himself the three titles of kingship, power, and glory. Christ, the Lord, restores them to His Father and our Father, until He hands over the kingdom to Him when the mystery of salvation will be brought to its completion and God will be all in all.

2856: "Then, after the prayer is over you say 'Amen,' which means 'So be it,' thus ratifying with our 'Amen' what is contained in the prayer that God has taught us." [St. Cyril of Jerusalem]

IN BRIEF

2857: In the Our Father, the object of the first three petitions is the glory of the Father: the sanctification of His name, the coming of the kingdom, and the fulfillment of His will. The four others present our wants to Him: they ask that our lives be nourished, healed of sin, and made victorious in the struggle of good over evil.

2858: By asking "hallowed be thy name," we enter into God's plan, the sanctification of His name – revealed first to Moses and then in Jesus – by us and in us, in every nation and in each man.

2859: By the second petition, the Church looks first to Christ's return and the final coming of the Reign of God. It also prays for the growth of the Kingdom of God in the "today" of our own lives.

2860: In the third petition, we ask our Father to unite our will to that of His Son, so as to fulfill His plan of salvation in the life of the world.

2861: In the fourth petition, by saying "give us," we express in communion with our brethren our filial trust in our heavenly Father. "Our daily bread" refers to the earthly nourishment necessary to everyone for subsistence, and also to the Bread of Life: the Word of God and the Body of Christ. It is received in God's "today," as the indispensable, (super) essential nourishment of the feast of the coming Kingdom anticipated in the Eucharist.

2862: The fifth petition begs God's mercy for our offenses, mercy which can penetrate our hearts only if we have learned to forgive our enemies, with the example and help of Christ.

2863: When we say "lead us not into temptation" we are asking God not to allow us to take the path that leads to sin. This petition implores the Spirit of discernment and strength; it requests the grace of vigilance and final perseverance.

2864: In the last petition, "but deliver us from evil," Christians pray to God with the Church to show forth the victory, already won by Christ, over the "ruler of this world," Satan, the angel personally opposed to God and to His plan of salvation.

2865: By the final "Amen," we express our "fiat" concerning the seven petitions: "So be it".

We have now completed part IV of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Next week, we begin part I, paragraph nos. 26 to 1065.

DEATHS: Our love, prayers, and sympathy to the family of James Alan Downs. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

THE NATIONAL PRAYER VIGIL FOR LIFE will take place from January 20-21 at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C. The January 20th Opening Mass will begin at 5:30 p.m. and will be followed by a 7:00-8:00 p.m. Holy Hour for Life, concluding the evening portion of the Vigil program. Both the Mass and Holy Hour will be televised live by EWTN. The Closing Mass on January 21st will take place once again at the Basilica at 8:00 a.m. and will also be televised by EWTN.
