A Prayer for our Priests during COVID-19

Eternal God, Be with our priests this day as they seek to minister to your people. May you be a guiding and protective presence with them as they bring the consolation and hope of Your word and the grace and nourishment of Eucharist to those entrusted into their care. Grant them the strength of mind and body, keep them safe to do your will, And give them the courage and peace to face each day with trust and confidence in You. Into your hands O God, we commend them; fill them with your grace and healing. Amen.

Oración por los Sacerdotes durante COVID-19

Dios eterno, quédate con nuestros sacerdotes este día mientras buscan ministrar a tu pueblo. Que seas una presencia orientadora y protectora con ellos mientras traen el consuelo y la esperanza de Tu palabra y la gracia y el alimento de la Eucaristía a los encargados de su cuidado. Concédeles la fuerza de la mente y el cuerpo, mantenlos seguros para hacer tu voluntad, y dales el coraje y la paz para enfrentar cada día con confianza en ti. En tus manos, oh Dios, los encomendamos; llénalos con tu gracia y curación. Amén.

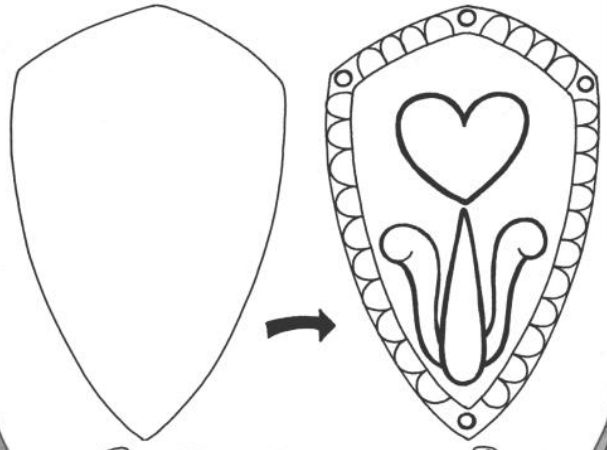
The Most Holy Trinity

The psalmist says that the Lord
"is our help and our shield"
(Psalm 33:20b).
Think of the times God has helped and protected your family.
Decorate the shield at the left so it looks like the one on the right.
Or make up your own design!



Color them both!

"Go therefore, and make disciples of all nations."
Matthew 28 : 19

CATHOLIC CORNER

"I AM WITH YOU ALWAYS"

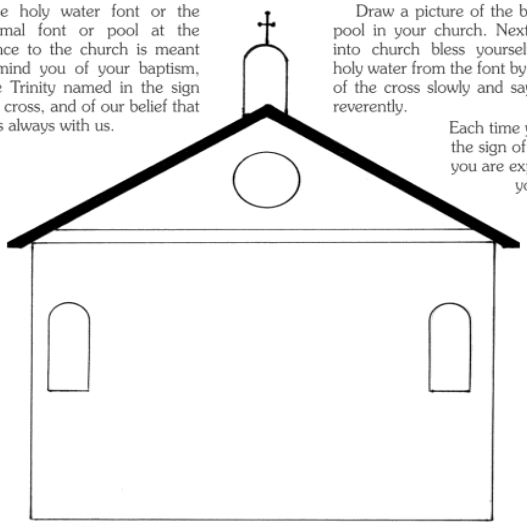
An interesting theme is contained in Matthew's Gospel. At the beginning, when Matthew writes about the birth of Jesus, he quotes the prophet Isaiah: " 'and they shall name him Emmanuel'/ which means, 'God is with us' " (Matthew 1:23). Today we hear the last words of Matthew's Gospel: "And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age" (Matthew 28:20).

Matthew's message, from beginning to end, is that God is always with us. And the God that we know, profess, and believe in is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—the Trinity. When you were baptized the priest or deacon poured water over you three times, saying, "I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit," pouring water with each name of the Trinity.

The holy water font or the baptismal font or pool at the entrance to the church is meant to remind you of your baptism, of the Trinity named in the sign of the cross, and of our belief that God is always with us.

Draw a picture of the baptismal font or pool in your church. Next time you walk into church bless yourself carefully with holy water from the font by making the sign of the cross slowly and saying every word reverently.

Each time you make the sign of the cross you are expressing your belief in the Trinity.



Jesus told his followers to
"make disciples of all nations"
(Matthew 28:19b).
He wanted the whole world to know that he had died and risen to save them.

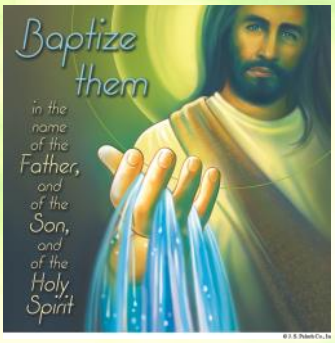
THE MYSTERY OF THE BLESSED TRINITY



Today we celebrate the solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. The Church sets aside this Sunday to focus our attention on the mystery of the Blessed Trinity, God who is one, but three persons—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The first reading from Deuteronomy emphasizes both God's awesome greatness and amazing nearness. It might seem beyond belief, but the God of all creation speaks to us, protects us, and guides us. The second reading from Saint Paul's Letter to the Romans describes how we are to relate to the three persons who are one God. We are led by the Spirit to meet God the Father as adopted children. Our adoption is such that we are even heirs with our brother, Christ, the second person of the Trinity, in whose sufferings we must also share. In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus speaks with his authority as God and sends us to teach and baptize in the name of the Trinity.

EL MISTERIO DE LA SANTÍSIMA TRINIDAD

Hoy celebramos la solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad. La Iglesia dedica este domingo a centrar nuestra atención en el misterio de la Santísima Trinidad, Dios, que es uno, en tres personas: Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo. La primera lectura de Deuteronomio hace énfasis en la grandeza imponente de Dios y su cercanía asombrosa. Puede parecer increíble, pero el Dios de toda la creación nos habla, nos protege y nos guía. La segunda lectura, tomada de la carta de San Pablo a los Romanos, describe la forma en que se relacionan las tres personas que son un solo Dios. El Espíritu nos guía para cumplir con Dios Padre como hijos adoptivos. Nuestra adopción es tal que somos incluso los herederos de nuestro hermano, Cristo, la segunda persona de la Trinidad, cuyos sufrimientos también debemos compartir. En el Evangelio según San Mateo, Jesús habla con la autoridad de Dios y nos envía a enseñar y bautizar en nombre de la Trinidad. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

CDC MASK GUIDELINES

May 17th, 2021

Brothers and Sisters,

Recently the CDC has eased the national recommendations on masks and social distancing for those who are vaccinated. However, at the guidance of local health officials, all those attending Mass are to continue to wear a mask and practice social distancing according to the established norms.

It brings joy to our parish communities that people are returning to Mass and we need to continue to do what we can to protect one another while worshiping.

As we await the lifting of the other restrictions, my Pastoral Center staff and I will keep the faithful updated as we decide to update diocesan guidelines.

For more information on how the COVID-19 vaccine is helping us protect one another, please visit our website.

In the Peace of Christ,

Bishop Myron J. Cotta

GUIA DEL CDC SOBRE LAS MASCARAS

17 de Mayo, 2021

Hermanos y hermanas,

Recientemente, el CDC han suavizado las recomendaciones nacionales sobre máscaras y distanciamiento social para quienes están vacunados. Sin embargo, bajo la guía de los funcionarios de salud locales, todos los asistentes a la misa deben continuar usando una máscara y practicando el distanciamiento social de acuerdo con las normas establecidas.

Trae alegría a nuestras comunidades parroquiales que la gente regrese a la misa y que tengamos que seguir haciendo lo que podamos para protegernos unos a otros mientras adoramos.

Mientras esperamos el levantamiento de las otras restricciones, mi personal del Centro Pastoral y yo mantendremos informados a los fieles mientras decidamos actualizar las pautas diocesanas.

Para obtener más información sobre cómo la vacuna COVID-19 nos ayuda a protegernos unos a otros, visite nuestro sitio web.

En la paz de Cristo,

Obispo Myron J. Cotta
