WHAT ALL THE WAITING HAS BEEN FOR

Today's readings are as familiar to most of us as the carols we sing and the commercials that overwhelm this holiday season. Often Christmas finds us tired, struggling with preparations and expectations. What we really want to feel is joy and peace. The stress of preparation, of waiting, is reflected in both Isaiah and Paul's letter to Titus. Luke tells us of the exhaustion that Mary and Joseph felt: a young pregnant wife and her husband, forced to travel just as she is about to give birth, unable even to find a room to stay in. It must have been miserable. They must have been afraid. In the midst of this exhaustion, misery, and fear, a child is born, a Son is given. The world is then filled with light and hope, joy and peace. In that moment they, and we, know what all the waiting has been for.

PARA QUÉ HA SERVIDO TODA LA ESPERA

Las lecturas de hoy son tan familiares para la mayoría de nosotros como los villancicos que cantamos y los anuncios publicitarios que abruman estas fiestas. A menudo la Navidad nos encuentra cansados, luchando con los preparativos y las expectativas. Lo que realmente queremos sentir es alegría y paz. El estrés de la preparación, de la espera, se refleja tanto en Isaías como en la carta de Pablo a Tito. Lucas nos habla del agotamiento que sintieron María y José: una joven esposa embarazada y su marido, obligados a viajar justo cuando ella está a punto de dar a luz, incapaces incluso de encontrar una habitación donde alojarse. Debió de ser miserable. Deben haber tenido miedo. En medio de este agotamiento, miseria y miedo, nace un niño, se da un Hijo. El mundo se llena entonces de luz y esperanza, de alegría y de paz. En ese momento ellos, y nosotros, sabemos para qué ha servido toda la espera.

HOLY FAMILIES

Learning to live like Jesus is hard. You need the help of many people. No matter what your family looks like or how many people it includes, each family member must be an example of love, care, joy, and holiness.

On the day you were baptized the priest or deacon prayed for all the people in your immediate family who would help you learn about God. He reminded them of their responsibility to take care of you, teach you about the place of Jesus and the Church in your life, and show you God's love and joy.

He prayed that you would grow to be more fully like Jesus. He prayed for your parents, and reminded them to thank God for you. They should remember that they would be your first and best teachers of the faith in everything they say and do.

Now you also belong to the whole Catholic Christian family around the world. Today is a great day to celebrate your family and the whole Christian family.

After dinner tonight make a Family Sunday Sundae dessert celebrating your family and the family of God. Start with your favorite ice cream. Set out several different toppings and label them with the names of people in your family, for example, Charlie's chocolate syrup, Gracie's granola, Mom's M&Ms, Steve's sprinkles, etc. Let everyone create their own dessert. It will be a reminder that when everyone in a family contributes, we create something wonderful! Add up the cost of all the ingredients for the sundaes. Contribute an equal amount or more to the Christian families around the world who need it most.

We celebrate the Holy _____ Family!
