FROM THE DESK OF FR. RICH

Today we celebrate the Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

The book of Wisdom was written about 50 years before Christ. In one lengthy section of this book, the author looks back to the wonderful things God did for the Jewish people during the exodus. In today's passage from that section, the author speaks directly to God with words of praise.

In our second reading today, we continue with the eighth chapter of the letter to the Romans, in which Paul discusses the role of God's spirit in our life. Today's brief reading gives us a remarkable insight into prayer.

Next weekend the second collection will be taken up for our Annual Summer Mission Appeal. This year, the mission society we will be hearing about and asked to support will be: "The Society of the Catholic Apostolate", which is led by the Pallottines. Below you will find a brief description of the work and mission of the Pallottines. Fr. John Christopher, SAC will be here next weekend to tell us all about their work and mission. Our parish has always been so generous in supporting these Summer Mission Appeals. Please welcome him next weekend. Envelopes were provided in your monthly stewardship packet and can also be found at the doors of our worship sites.

We Are the Pallottines: "The Society of the Catholic Apostolate" Founded in 1835 by St. Vincent Pallotti, a Roman priest, the Pallottines are a Catholic religious congregation serving the Church through apostolic works in 45 countries across 6 continents.

St. Vincent Pallotti dedicated his life to helping the poor, sick, marginalized, and orphans, and to educating underprivileged children. Inspired by his vision, Pallottines today serve in parishes, schools, hospitals, missions, and charitable ministries—driven by the love of Christ (2 Cor 5:14).

FROM THE DESK OF OPERATION DIRECTOR

Greetings Queen of Peace:

I am writing to apologize for the uncomfortable heat situation at Our Lady, Mother of the Church.

I have been working on a daily basis with the Arch and contractor to get an update on the condenser and coil replacement for the unit that has aged beyond its years.

Unfortunately, the leaks of the freon were progressively getting worse throughout the last season, based on the rusting-through in multiple parts of the condenser unit. This in turn caused the compressor to then shut down, based on the loss of the fuel contained.

I met with the contractors last Thursday, and I am now waiting for them to confirm a start-date of installation to get the church back up and running.

At this point, I do not have an exact date and time for these repairs, but they are coming. I will update you when I know more.

I really apologize for this inconvenience.

Thank you for your attention!

Lisa Keeney
Operations Director

Question:

I accept on faith that God is a Trinity of Persons, and I know it's something we can't fully understand. Should I just accept that, or should I try to learn more?

Answer:

There's a legend from the life of St. Augustine. As the early Church grappled with the identity of Christ and his relation to the other Persons in the Trinity, the holy theologian wrote a book about the Trinity. The story goes that, while he worked on the piece, he took a break to walk along the seashore. He came upon a small boy who had dug a hole in the sand. He was carrying a bucket, which he'd fill up with seawater and pour into the hole. Back and forth he walked. St. Augustine gently chided the young boy, "You can't pour the whole ocean into that hole." The boy responded, "And you cannot fit the whole Trinity into your mind."

The Trinity is a mystery! Our finite mind can't comprehend the infinite God. Of course, the lesson isn't about giving up trying to understand God. St. Augustine did write that treatise, after all. The hunger to know more about God is good. We can read books about the Trinity or about the fatherly love of God, the life of Christ, and the movement of the Holy Spirit in our lives. More than that, we can deepen our life of prayer. The heart of our Trinitarian teaching is "God is love." The Three Persons are an infinite relation of love between one

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A man recently told me he was losing patience with the Church. "It's supposed to be God's Kingdom on earth," he said, "but it's full of contradictions and hypocrisy. Why can't the Church just be better?" That last word landed with a judgmental thud. It hurt. Because at times the Church can look painfully ordinary, even disappointing.

But Jesus' parables in today's Gospel meet that frustration head-on. He says, "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field," yet the weeds grow up with the wheat, and the master allows both to grow together until harvest. To his listeners, this sounded strange, even offensive. They expected God's reign to be pure, powerful, and glorious, anything but mixed up, hidden, or small.

Jesus is showing us something essential. The Kingdom always begins small and grows amid imperfection. Grace and weakness exist side by side until the harvest. That is why the Church often looks messy. Yet within that mess, God's quiet work continues. The weeds do not stop the wheat from growing.

When we see the Church's flaws or our own, it helps to remember that this is exactly the field in which Christ chose to plant. The miracle is not that everything looks perfect, but that his Word keeps taking root anyway.

Lord, give me patience with Your field, the Church. Help me see Your hidden life growing even among the weeds. Amen.

— Father John Muir

Virtues, Explained!

Generosity is a hallmark of Christian discipleship. Christ placed our needs above his own, so we likewise place the needs of others above our own. Our concern for our brothers and sisters must be evident not just in what we do but in how we do it — with cheerfulness and love.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

For your might is the source of justice;
 your mastery over all things makes you lenient to all.
 (Wis 12:16)

Psalm:

Lord, you are good and forgiving. (Ps 86)

Second Reading:

And the one who searches hearts
 knows what is the intention of the Spirit,
 because he intercedes for the holy ones
 according to God's will. (Rom 8:27)

Gospel:

"The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed
 that a person took and sowed in a field.
 It is the smallest of all the seeds,
 yet when full-grown it is the largest of plants."
 (Mt 13:31-32)
