TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 6-8
Moses tells the people to always observe the statutes God has given them, without adding or subtracting from these laws. He reminds them that the law is just, and that any nation who heard their statutes would consider them a wise nation.

Second Reading: James 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27
James discusses the gifts that God has given to all people and implores them to respond by welcoming the words of truth that can save them. He emphasizes that through good deeds and pure conduct, our faith in God is proven to him.

Gospel: Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23
The Pharisees observed some of Jesus' disciples eating without first purifying their hands and ask the disciples why they are going against their ancestor's traditions. Jesus responds that nothing from the outside can make a person impure. The only true evil, acts such as fornication, murder, and greed among others, come from within and make a person impure.

ITE AD JOSEPH! "GO TO JOSEPH!"

Genesis 41:55

Each Wednesday after the daily Masses, we recite prayers in honor of St Joseph in this year dedicated to him. Join us in placing yourself under the patronage of Our Spiritual Father. May he do for us what he did for Our Lord and Our Lady. Expect miracles!

SUB TUUM PRAESIDIUM

We fly under your protection
O Holy Mother of God:
Despise not our petitions
in our necessities,
but deliver us always from all danger.
O Glorious and Blessed Virgin Mary!

(Oldest Hymn to Christ's Mother, Egypt 250 A.D, a witness to the great devotion of the early Christians to Our Lady.)

In these times of spiritual warfare between Christ and the spirit of the anti-Christ, between the Church and the anti-church, between loyal disciples of Christ Jesus and those of Satan, we must as St. Paul tells us "put on the full armor of God, so that you may stand against the wiles of the devil." Do you want to come to conquer with Christ our King? Use the weapon in the arsenal God has given us. One of them is devotion to Our Lady, who is more terrible than an army arrayed for battle against the enemies of her Son's disciples. Pray the rosary daily and use this powerful ancient prayer!

RESPECT LIFE

A RESPECT LIFE MEDITATION

Dry Wood: The VIII Station

Meditating on the Stations of the Cross, the 8th Station has been very applicable regarding our culture becoming more anti-life, especially in light of the case with Alta Fixsler. Jesus, in consoling the women who were weeping for Him said, "Weep for yourselves and for your children…for if these things are done when the wood is green what will happen when it is dry?" The wood seems very dry right now. Let us pray for the Lord to rain down His compassion and wisdom on leaders, both religious and civic, to speak truth and life in love and against all evils that are plaguing us here and abroad. Also, pray for the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe, the patroness of the preborn; under the title of Our Lady of Fatima, she promised that her Immaculate Heart would triumph.

Regina Molinelli, Respect Life Committee Chair

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

St. Therese, the Little Flower ("Little Tess" as I like to call her because she is a dear friend), longed to draw people to Jesus. Let her tell you the story of how Jesus confirmed her desire to help Him to save souls when she was only 13 years old:

"As I closed my Missal after Mass one Sunday, a picture of the Crucifixion slipped out a little way, and I could just see one of the wounds in Our Lord's hands, with blood flowing from it…It pierced my heart with sorrow to see His Precious Blood falling…

The cry of Jesus as He died, 'I thirst,' echoed in my soul…I longed to satisfy His thirst for souls; I was consumed myself with the same thirst, and yearned to save them from the everlasting fires of Hell, no matter what the cost. Then Jesus stirred up my love even more by letting me see how pleased He was with these longings of mine. I had been hearing people talk about a notorious criminal called Pranzini, who had been condemned to death for several brutal murders, and as he was unrepentant, it was thought he was going to lose his soul. I longed to save him from this final tragedy, but though I did use every spiritual means in my power, I knew that by myself there was nothing I could do to ransom him; and so I offered for him Our Lord's infinite merits and all the treasures of the Church. Needless to say, deep down in my heart I was sure that he would be reprieved, but I wanted some encouragement to go on in my search for souls, so I said very simply 'My God, I am sure You are going to forgive this wretched Pranzini, and I have so much confidence in Your mercy that I shall go on being sure, even though he does not go to Confession or show any sign at all of being sorry; but because he is my first sinner, please give me just one sign to let me know.' He answered me to the letter. Father never used to let me read the papers, but I didn't think I was being disobedient when I rushed to La Croix the day after he was executed and turned to the bit about Pranzini. Guess what I found! I was so moved that tears came to my eyes and I had to rush out of the room. He had gone to the scaffold without Confession or absolution and was being led to the block by the executioner when he suddenly turned around. The priest had been holding out a crucifix to him, and as if moved by some inspiration, he had seized it and kissed the Sacred Wounds three times. This was my sign, and it touched me very much, since it had been the sight of the Blood flowing from one of these very Wounds that had given me my thirst for souls. I had wanted to give them His Precious Blood flowing from one of these very Wounds that had given me my thirst for souls. I had wanted to give them His Precious Blood to drink to wash their sins away, and here was my 'first-born' pressing his lips to His Wounds. What a wonderful answer! After this, my desire to save souls grew day by day. Our Lord seemed to be whispering to me 'Give Me to drink.'" (Jn 4:7).

Does this not show us how important it is to pray for the salvation of sinners and to have a deep desire to help others to come to know Jesus? Many, many today die unrepentant and are headed for eternal damnation. Mary has indicated this at Fatima. With St. Therese as our example, let's pray and do penance for the conversion of poor sinners…before it's too late.
