St. André's Parish Welcomes Everyone!!

No matter what your present status is in the Catholic Church; no matter your family or marital status; no matter where you are in the practice of faith; no matter what your self-image may be; you are invited, welcomed and loved at St. André's.

Welcome to St. André's Parish!

No matter who you are, where you've come from, or what brings you here, we're so glad to have you with us. St. André Bessette (1845-1937) spent much of his life serving as the doorkeeper of his religious community; like him, we strive to open doors for our neighbors to experience the loving mercy of God. May Jesus fill your heart with his grace and peace!

From Fr. Steve…..

Faith Formation is a life long project, it is not completed with Confirmation even though many think that is the case. Faith Formation begins with Baptism, when we as church begin a process in conjunction with parents to raise the child in the practice of the faith. We practice our faith so that we are aware of God's presents in our lives and to be aware of His plan for our salvation. Raising our young people in the practice of the faith is the responsibility of the entire parish because we are always teaching our children, they constantly observe our words and actions and learn from us. So adult Faith Formation ought to be a part of our whole program. For this reason we provide all sorts of materials for your on-going formation at the church; books, pamphlets, and periodicals, please take advantage of them. Also, sacramental prep for each of the sacraments is really faith formation. St. André's Brothers and Sisters provide opportunities for adult faith sharing that you might want to take advantage of. Teaching or being an aid in our youth formation program is a wonderful way to deepen your own faith and help our parents to make faith formation real for their children. Please consider being more active in your faith formation.

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
 August 28, 2022 *****

FIRST READING
Sir 3:17-18, 20, 28-29

A reading from the Book of Sirach

My child, conduct your affairs with humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts. Humble yourself the more, the greater you are, and you will find favor with God. What is too sublime for you, seek not, into things beyond your strength search not. The mind of a sage appreciates proverbs, and an attentive ear is the joy of the wise. Water quenches a flaming fire, and alms atone for sins.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM
Ps 68:4-5, 6-7, 10-11

R. God, in your goodness, you have made [a home,] a home for the poor.

The just rejoice and exult before God; they are glad and rejoice. Sing to God, chant praise to his name, whose name is the Lord.

R. God, in your goodness, you have made [a home,] a home for the poor.

The father of orphans and the defender of widows is God in his holy dwelling. God gives a home to the forsaken; he leads forth prisoners to prosperity.

R. God, in your goodness, you have made [a home,] a home for the poor.

A bountiful rain you showered down, O God, upon your inheritance; you restored the land when it languished; your flock settled in it; in your goodness, O God, you provided it for the needy.

R. God, in your goodness, you have made [a home,] a home for the poor

SECOND READING
Heb 12:18-19, 22-24a

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

Brothers and sisters: You have not approached that which could be touched and a blazing fire and gloomy darkness and storm and a trumpet blast and a voice speaking words such that those who heard begged that no message be further addressed to them. No, you have approached Mount Zion and the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and countless angels in festal gathering, and the assembly of the firstborn enrolled in heaven, and God the judge of all, and the spirits of the just made perfect, and Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and the sprinkled blood that speaks more eloquently than that of Abel.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

R. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Take my yoke upon you, says the Lord, and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart.

R. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL
Lk 14:1, 7-14

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke. Glory to you, O Lord.

On a sabbath Jesus went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees, and the people there were observing him carefully. He told a parable to those who had been invited, noticing how they were choosing the places of honor at the table. "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not recline at table in the place of honor. A more distinguished guest than you may have been invited by him, and the host who invited both of you may approach you and say, 'Give your place to this man,' and then you would proceed with embarrassment to take the lowest place. Rather, when you are invited, go and take the lowest place so that when the host comes to you he may say, 'My friend, move up to a higher position.' Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at the table. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Then he said to the host who invited him, "When you hold a lunch or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your wealthy neighbors, in case they may invite you back and you have repayment. Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive
You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Is God Calling YOU

"Make straight paths for your feet." Will your path of holiness be as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life? If you think you may have a vocation to follow the Risen Lord as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life , let the grace of prayer encourage you, call Fr. Steve at 483-1300, Fr. Christopher Carrara, ccarrara@rcdony.org or Fr. Matt Conger, the Diocesan Associate Vocation Director at (315) 393-2920, ext 7, mconger@rcdony.org. See us also on Facebook or at www.myvocation.net..

Check Out Our Website

Please take a moment to go to our website (www.standres.org) and see the links such as: FORMED and Integrity Restored. Just click on them and enjoy the information that they provide.

Low gluten hosts are available at each of our churches. If you or a loved one require a low gluten host for medical reasons, please see the priest at least 5 minutes before Mass to make arrangements for Holy Communion.

Sacrament of Baptism

Parents who wish to have a child baptized should contact Rev. Steven Murray to make arrangements for the date and for a program of preparation. Parents are highly encouraged to make arrangements at least three months before the child is born, as the Catholic Church encourages Baptism for infants as soon as possible after birth. Adults and older children (seven years or older) interested in Baptism or entering into full communion with the Catholic Church should inquire about the program of preparation (R.C.I.A.: the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults).

Sacrament of Matrimony

A Catholic wishing to be married in one of our churches should contact one of the priests at least six months prior to the desired date in order to begin making arrangements. A program of preparation is required. The parish should be contacted before any other plans are made—for example, the wedding reception.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

For those preparing for surgery, nursing home residents, or the homebound, contact one of the parish priests to make arrangements to be anointed. For those in the hospital (especially in the event of an emergency), ask the hospital staff to contact the priest on call.
