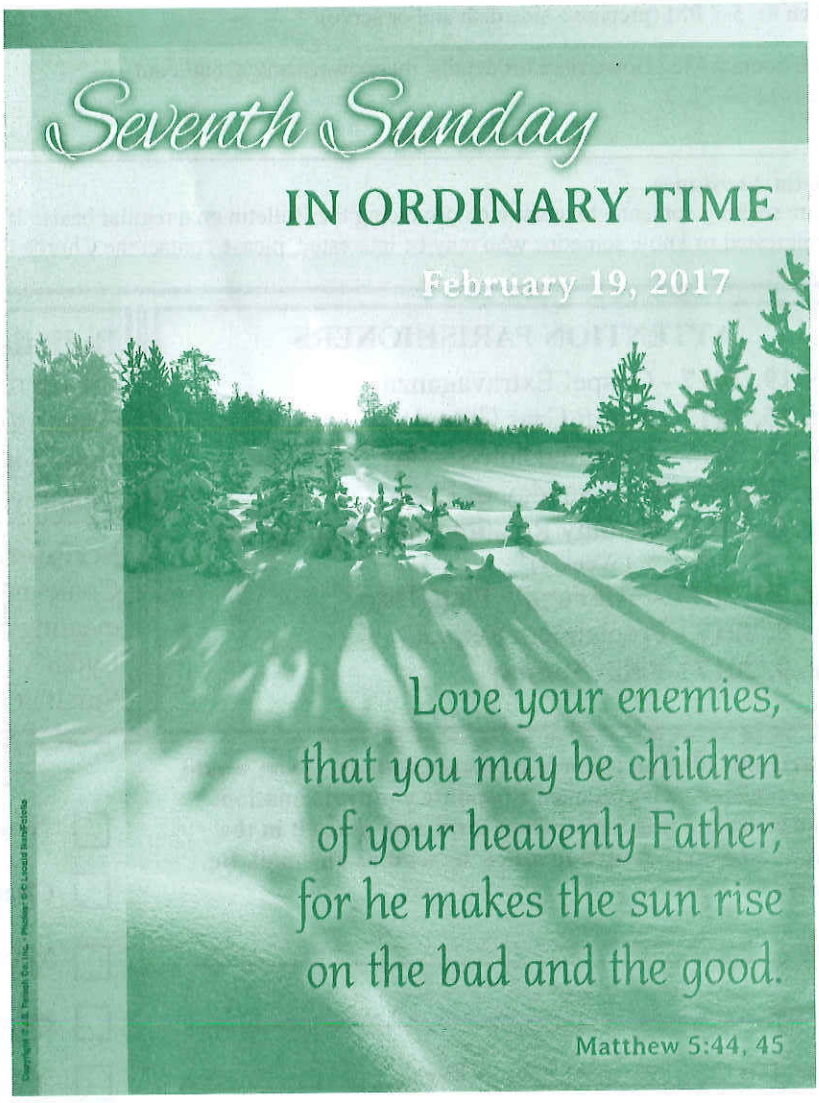
Mission & Vision

Through African American traditions, we are moved by the Spirit to serve.

"From Darkness, Light Shines for the Upright"



DIVINE WISDOM

The Lord's message, through Moses, was to "take no revenge and cherish no grudge . . . love your neighbor as yourself" (Leviticus 19:18). We might think, "Great in theory, but not always realistic!"

Then Jesus in today's Gospel goes even further. Take a slap in the face and then turn the other cheek? Treat enemies the same as friends? Again, we're tempted to think that those are nice ideals, but not very practical in the "real world."

Paul echoes Jesus when he tells the Corinthians that what passes for human wisdom is absurdity to God. Divine wisdom casts sunshine on the good and the bad, showers rain on the honest and the dishonest--without distinction. We must examine our wisdom and common sense to see how they compare to the wisdom of God, and make adjustments accordingly.

RCIA is the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

You are invited... How blest we are! Several people have come forward inquiring about joining the church. Are you seeking Baptism? Or wanting to become Catholic? Or wonder about what the Catholic Church stands for? Please contact Margaret Roncalli at 510-550-4058 or at stcolumbafaithformation@gmail.com if you have questions.

Please keep our catechumens in prayer: David Nguyen and Augustina Beltran, and candidate to complete initiation: Lisa Davis.

All-Family Faith Day

Sun Feb 26, at 12:30.

We celebrate the gift of faith and of our traditions.

Families of all shapes and sizes are invited!! Grandparents invited too!

We will explore the stories of two families in Africa who are benefiting from the help of Catholic Relief Service and what it means for us to be in solidarity with them. All this as we get ready for the beginning of Lent!

KEEPING OUR CHILDREN SAFE

Parents and Guardians: Get Involved

Parents and guardians play a key role in the success of parish programs for young people. Parents and guardians who are involved in parish programs and events will be in the best position to protect their own children as well as all the children in the parish community. Involvement and communication are important factors in helping to ensure safe environments for all of our children.

Faith Formation for Families and Students

Upcoming Dates

Feb 26 Children's Liturgy of the Word at 10:30
All-Family Faith Day — 12:30pm
Mar 5 Sac prep–Rel Ed rm (children) at 9am
" Sac prep–Reconc rm (older children) at 9am
" Sac prep– parish hall (parents) at 9am
" Children's Liturgy of the Word at 10:30

Faith Formation at St. Columba is a generation-integrated, family-based process for raising our children in the faith of our ancestors. There are three parts to Faith Formation (Religious Education): (1) Children's Liturgy of the Word (2) All-Family Faith Days and (3) Sacramental Preparation classes. Together all of these are necessary for the whole of helping our children grow in their faith.

All-Family Faith Days On the fourth Sunday of school months we gather families of any size, of all configurations (especially extended families) for a time of prayer, sharing, learning and food. The gathering includes break-out time for adults and for children. We begin at 12:30 with potluck lunch and finish by 2:30 pm.

Reflecting on the Word

From today's Gospel reading: Jesus said:
"But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you that you may be children of your heavenly Father for he makes his sun to rise on the bad and the good...."

Reflection:
When evil is done us we not only don't retaliate, we act positively towards the offender. Maybe that's what keeps us from being passive doormats. We take the initiative to return evil with good. It is possible that our non-retaliatory behavior will have a healing effect on the aggressor. It certainly will reflect the kind of love God has for the "bad and the good."

So we ask ourselves: How do I typically respond when I feel taken advantage of? What other way might I respond to the same situation?

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Customs surrounding the naming of babies are interesting, and over time the Church has tried to offer some motherly advice to direct parents in this necessary chore. The ritual book used for baptism from the sixteenth to the mid-twentieth centuries advised priests to guard against giving ridiculous or pagan names to babies consigned to their ministry. In 1666 the diocesan ritual of Bourges in France was even more exacting, telling the priests to see to it that boys were named after male saints, girls after female saints, and no one got named after a festival. Yet, records from that very diocese in later years shows a few babies named "Toussaint" (after All Saints Day) along with other creative expressions. In Spain, no one has ever hesitated to name babies after festivals, especially girls after Our Lady, and so there are names like Concepción, Asunción, and of course Dolores (after Our Lady of Sorrows). In Italy and Spain is it likely that a child will receive the name of the saint of the day of its birth.

Today's rites of initiation for adults and infants urge the giving of a Christian name, and in the case of an adult whose given name expresses a pagan or unseemly idea (Baal and Whiskey come to mind), there is a formal rite during the catechumenate for the giving of a Christian name. In such a case, it would make sense for the change to be registered with civil authorities as well. For all Christians, the idea of having a heavenly patron to pray to on life's journey is reason enough to pay attention to this treasure in our tradition.

Roland Martin
(November 14, 1968)

Journalist – columnist – author, Roland Martin is the managing editor of TV One's NewsOne Now, the first daily morning news program in history to focus on news and analysis of politics, entertainment, sports, and culture from an explicitly African American perspective.

Martin as born in Houston, Texas' Third Ward, the center of Houston's African American community. As a young teenager, he found his passion for communications when he became a part of the magnet program in communications at Jack Yates High School. On an academic scholarship to Texas A&M University, he studied journalism and worked for the Bryan-College Station Eagle and KBTX (Channel 3). After graduating with a B.S. in journalism, he obtained a master's degree in Christian communications from Louisiana Baptist University.

Over the course of his journalism career that has seen him interview multiple U.S. presidents to top athletes and Hollywood entertainers, Martin has always maintained a clear sense of his calling as a reporter. He spent six years as a news contributor for CNN from 2007-2013, appearing on numerous shows and earning accolades for his no-holds honesty, conviction, and perspective on various issues. He served as a radio talk show host and is the former executive editor/general manager of the Chicago Defender, the nation's most historic Black newspaper. When Jet Magazine readers voted in 2012 for who is "King of the Hill" in terms of who they turn to on issues of concern to African Americans, Martin came on top, ahead of the likes of the Rev. Al Sharpton and Donna Brazile.

During his stint with CNN, Roland Martin became the host of TV One's first Sunday News show Washington Watch with Roland Martin. It ran for four years and is currently off the air. He left CNN in 2013 to become the host of TV One's first live one hour, weekday morning news program News One Now. Martin has been named one of the top 50 political pundits by the Daily Telegraph in the United Kingdom, and has appeared numerous times on a variety of American networks, as well as media outlets in Canada, Columbia, Italy, Australia and South Africa. He is a nationally syndicated columnist with Creators Syndicate, and is senior analyst for the Tom Joyner Morning Show, where his daily segment is heard on more than 100 stations and 8 million people daily.

Martin is a life member of the National Association of Black Journalists, and a life member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. He has been awarded honorary degrees from Florida Memorial University, University of Maryland-University College and Lemoyne-Owen College.

ETHNIC HEALTH INSTITUTE

From St. Columba Health Cabinet:

(we are part of the Ethnic Health Institute at Sutter)

Do you know your blood pressure numbers? Nearly one out of three adults has high blood pressure and many people do not know that they have it. It is important to have your blood pressure checked regularly to reduce your chances of developing hypertension.

The good news is that hypertension can often be prevented when people make healthy life style choices and manage their health conditions.

To prevent hypertension, St. Columba will be participating in the Ethnic Health Institute's Frank E. Staggers, Sr., MD Hypertension Screening and Education:

- Saturday, February 25th after 4PM Mass near front of the church in reconciliation room
- Sunday on February 26th after 8am Mass (Parish Hall)
- Sunday on February 26th after 10:30am (Chapel)

Even if you check your blood pressure at home, please come!!!

You will have the opportunity to have your blood pressure checked and to speak with a doctor or a nurse! Please join us immediately after each service on February 25th and 26th to have your blood pressure checked and get free resources and information to help you!

OAKLAND COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS

Unlocking the Power of Oakland

OCO Credential

ST. COLUMBA CATHOLIC CHURCH

Oakland Community Organization's (better known as OCO) is part of PICO, a national network of faith based community organizations working to create innovative solutions to problems facing urban, suburban and rural communities. Our vision as a local congregation of OCO is to become a group or agency that reflects the diversity of Oakland.

We recognize that in ourselves, in our organization, and in our city, we will be more powerful and effective if we have the tools to overcome oppression in every form and more fully understand one another.

Our vision for Oakland is a community where every family can afford a decent home, live a safe environment, have health insurance, send their children to good schools, and become fully engaged citizens regardless of zip codes, language, color, class status or sexual orientation.

OCO's mission is to develop leaders. Building a multicultural organization is the work of leaders and it is hard work. We use power to cause systems to change. Power is in our relationships, which we seek with one another and our public leaders. The goal is to change those systems which cause division and inequality. We in OCO live, breathe and fight for justice.

Would you like to join us?

Reminder: Our next LOC (Local Organizing Committee) of OCO (Oakland Community Organizations) meeting will be Sunday, February 19, 2017 at 9:30am in the Parish Hall located at 6401 San Pablo at Alcatraz. Please bring a friend!

We will be discussing becoming a Sanctuary Church. ALL are welcome!
