Adoration

Time Becomes Light

"… your light shall break forth like the dawn …" (Isaiah 58:8).

These words from the prophet Isaiah are about 3,000 years old. That is a long time. God does incredible things with time.

The phrase "light shall break forth" here can be translated, "the bright illumination will ripen in such a way that it tears through the darkness."

It is important to give space to light in our lives. We are so busy. We have an endless array of errands to run, we go from the store, to practice, to an appointment. We have relatives to care for as our job pulls us in odd long hours. It is often one thing after another.

Take time for light. Don't let light become another task.

Of course, light is ultimately prayer.

Take time to pray. We can often think that pray is just saying the words. Words are important. Let prayer start with words such as the Our Father or the Hail Mary. Then wait. Let prayer be more than words. Let prayer consume some time just as a flame consumes the wax of a candle.

Because we have so much to do, it is even more important that we give time to God – extended time. And God, over time, will transform our prayer into something. He will, without our knowing it, turn it into light.

And watch slowly, gently … as God turns time into light.

God bless,
Msgr. Bransfield

Restoration of 40 Hours

Parish life is exciting and inviting.

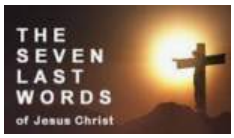
The Lord Jesus is at the center of our life as a parish and as Catholics. There are many distractions in our world that we can easily lose track of our spiritual life. We also have wounds that can lead us off track. Jesus Christ invites us to return to the source and summit of our faith in the celebration of the Eucharist.

We celebrate the Holy Eucharist every day in our parish. We gather for the Lord's Day each weekend to celebrate Holy Mass. Jesus is close to us. We have an opportunity to step even closer to Him.

The 40 Hours devotion is a time of prayer before the Lord in the Holy Eucharist. The number 40 has a key significance in the Bible. Moses remains on Mount Sinai for 40 days and nights (Ex. 24:18). The Israelites wander in the desert for 40 years. The prophet Elijah went 40 days without food or water on Mount Horeb. Jesus fasts in the desert for 40 days and 40 nights" (Mt. 4:2). Forty hours is a time for us to have a pronounced period of time with God in prayer.

The celebration of 40 Hours will take place from April 30 to May 2 over the Feast of Saint Joseph the Worker. Reverend Eric Banecker, pastor of Saint Francis de Sales Parish in Philadelphia, will be our guest preacher.

7 Last Words



The Liturgies of the Sacred Paschal Triduum take place over Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Sunday. Having consulted with various members of the team, this year our liturgies will remain similar to last year with some customization.

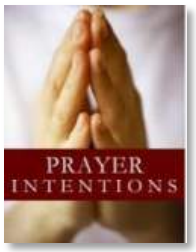
One adjustment is that the Seven Last Words is retained as a devotion on Good Friday. At the same time, the Church does emphasize The Celebration of the Passion of the Lord as the liturgy of the day for Good Friday. To give principal focus to The Celebration of the Passion of the Lord, the Seven Last Words will be adjusted in three (3) ways.

First, the Seven Last Words will take place on an adjusted time schedule. This will ensure that The Celebration of the Passion of the Lord begins at 3:00 pm as indicated by The Roman Missal. Further details on schedules are forthcoming.

Second, the preaching during the Seven Last Words will be condensed. Deacon Jack will serve as the homilist this year.

Third, the devotion of the Seven Last Words should remain subdued and somber as is fitting to a Good Friday devotion. On that basis, hymns and musical accompaniment will be reserved to The Celebration of the Passion of the Lord beginning at 3:00 pm.

Call to Prayer & Prayer Intentions



Lent is right around the corner. Before long, Ash Wednesday will dawn. We will come to Church for ashes and see the Cross of ash on each other's foreheads. That is our reminder that we are united in Jesus and under His Cross.

The Cross comes in many forms: loneliness, addiction, relapse, unemployment, underemployment, mental illness, violence, all forms of hurt and fear … We don't lift our Crosses alone. We can lift our Cross with one another. Ash Wednesday is the great reminder to connect and share the weight of the Cross in charity.

Ash Wednesday begins Lent – the time to focus on three things: Prayer; Fasting; Almsgiving. We do all three: we pray; we give up a certain food as a sacrifice; and we give to the poor through sharing our time, talent, and our treasure. While we each do all three in Lent, this Lent and beyond, let's focus on prayer in a special way.

Beginning the first weekend of Lent there will be cards in the gathering space for our parishioners and guests to write down prayer requests. These are meant to be anonymous – no need to sign your name. These intentions will be collected in a basket, brought up with the offertory and placed near the altar for Mass. This is a sign of our sharing our prayer requests with one another and with God.

On the Wednesdays of Lent, March 1, 8, 15, 29, and April 5 we will have a faith series on Prayer. The presentations will be held in Church from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. with time for questions. All details are on our parish website.

Lent is right around the corner – let's turn that corner together, united in prayer!

The Scrutinies

From the earliest times of the Church, adults who seek to become Catholic have learned about and entered the Church through a series of sacred rites.

We are blessed this year with several adult Catechumens who have expressed a desire to become Catholic. They are scheduled to receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist at the Easter Vigil Mass. One of the preparatory ancient rites is known as "The Scrutinies." These brief rites take place within Sunday Mass on Sundays during Lent. The Scrutinies are a time in which the Catechumens can complete their conversion to Christ and when these adults deepen their resolve to strengthen their decision to place God at the center of their lives.

Please join us at the 9:30 am Mass on March 12th, 19th and 26th as the Scrutinies take place. Join with those adults who seek to become Catholic and support them with your prayers!

New! Alpha Youth Faith Program

We share the exciting news that our parish will offer Youth Alpha for 8th to 12th grade students. Alpha is a youth faith program that emphasizes and "Introduction to Christianity" course and is conducted over a series of nine meetings. Each evening begins with a meal and then a video or talk is show, followed by discussion.

As many have experienced in their own upbringing, it is possible to be raised in a strong Catholic or Christian environment without fully, personally embracing the death and resurrection of Christ and living in the strength of the Holy Spirit. Youth Alpha, in a very comfortable setting, presents these truths and invites the individual to consider and act on these truths.

The program starts Tuesday, February 28th from 6:30 to 8:30 pm and continues to meet on March 7, 14, 21, 28, April 11, 18 and 25. An extended "retreat" will take place on Saturday, April 15 from 3:00 to 9:00 pm. All meetings are in Donnelly Hall. Look for registration and details on our parish website.

Presentation of Offertory Gifts

Taking Up the Offertory Gifts is a special way to be a part of the Mass. Anyone who would like to present the Offertory Gifts at Mass should see one of the ushers before Mass.
