Thoughts from Fr. Tom

Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. We hear these famous words of Jesus in the Gospel story today. Jesus visits the home of Martha and Mary and while Martha is busy about the tasks of hospitality, her sister Mary sits at the feet of Jesus and listens to him. A good question for us to ask ourselves this weekend is: Do we see ourselves as a Martha or Mary? How do others see us? As hospitality was seen as a critical virtue to practice in Jesus' culture, Martha would seem to be focused on the right thing. But Jesus says Mary has chosen the better part. It seems to be not so much about the activity each has chosen but the state of mind. As she is busy about her tasks, Martha is frustrated with her sister, which causes her to feel burdened. We can all relate to Martha in our lives. While Martha and Mary are often held up as examples of the active and contemplative aspects of faith, there is more to it than that. The goal is to find joy in whatever we are doing by staying focused on Christ. Whether we are busy about the tasks of daily life or sitting quietly in prayer, Jesus is there in our midst. We might ask ourselves: what worries and anxieties do I need to let go of in order to keep my focus on Christ?

This weekend we welcome Fr. Long Phi Nguyen from the Divine Word Missionaries for our annual Missionary Appeal. This is an opportunity for our parish community to support the missionary work of the universal church. There are people in many parts of the world who do not have access to basic needs as well as faith formation. The Divine Word Missionaries help spread the Word of God by providing health care, education, and access to a better life for those in need throughout the world. Please be generous with the second collection today. Please make checks payable to Presentation as we will forward one amount for the missionary appeal. You can also make a donation through our Online Giving. Thank you for your support.

Our annual School Supply Drive is going on during the month of July. There are bins in the Gathering Space during the week or you can bring items with you to Mass next weekend. A list of the school supplies needed can be found in the bulletin and on our website. The supplies will assist children in need, especially through our partnership with Lee's Summit Social Services. We appreciate you taking time to make the beginning of school less stressful for these children. Be sure to offer a prayer for the children who will receive them.

This Tuesday, July 19, at 6:30 p.m., we will be offering an End-of-Life/Funeral Pre-Planning seminar. The time of death is a difficult time for loved ones, so planning ahead is a wonderful gift to give. There is more information in the bulletin.

Many Blessings!

Stewardship

Today's readings speak of hospitality. Abraham, who cheerfully did for his guests all that desert hospitality required, was rewarded with his heart's desire — a son. Martha also busied herself with all the details of hospitality, but grudgingly and with complaint. Am I a cheerful or a grudging giver?

Our Lady of the Presentation Welcomes Deacon Dave Talken

Deacon Dave Talken was ordained to the Permanent Diaconate on June 18, 2022 and is assigned to Presentation Parish.

Dave and his wife Becky have been married 25 years and have three daughters: Hillary, Courtney and Kaitlyn. The Talkens were founding members of St. Margaret of Scotland Parish and were members of Presentation prior to the formation of St. Margaret's. They returned to Presentation in August, 2021.

Dave and Becky currently help with marriage preparation. They have also served as Confirmation small group leaders and catechists as well as helped with RCIA. Dave served as a member of the parish council and helped with the parish school of religion.

Their children have gotten them deeply involved in musical theater with a Christian organization, First Act Theatre Arts, formerly CYT. According to Deacon Dave, they get their musical gifts from God as their parents can't claim to have given it to them.

The family enjoys vacations in the mountains and quiet nights at home by a fire.

Our parish will officially welcome Deacon Dave at our Celebrating Stewardship Weekend in August.

End-of-Life Planning Seminar

Tuesday, July 19
6:30 - 8:30 p.m. in the Mulligan Room

When a loved one dies, it is often difficult for family members to focus or to know what questions to ask. Planning the funeral of a loved one at that grief-filled time can be very challenging. You can gift your family by pre-planning your funeral rite and by making other End-of-Life decisions for them in advance. Please RSVP by contacting Shelli Lange, Pastoral Care Director, 816-251-1102 or email slange@olpls.org.

Hispanic Ministry

¿Quién es mi hermano y hermana?

A simple vista parece una pregunta con una respuesta obvia más socialmente hablando es una respuesta ignorada, por distintos motivos, uno porque muchas veces se nos hace más fácil llamar hermano o hermana a la persona que nos cae bien, a la comadre o el compadre; segundo porque caemos en la tentación de llamar hermano o hermana a la persona con un estatus social más elevado; tercero porque reconocer que la persona más necesitada, la persona que está frente a mi es mi hermano o hermana requiere de humildad y amor desinteresado.

Nuestros hermanos y hermanas se encuentran frente a nosotros cada día. Nuestros hermanos y hermanas pueden ser nuestro propios padres, hijos o hermanos y hermanas de sangre. Yo les invito a que por lo menos esta semana llaman a algún miembro de su familia que ustedes sepan que necesita de su ayuda, no solo para saberlo, pero si para ayudarlo. Si hacemos lo que el evangelio nos invita esta semana seguramente estaremos siguiendo el mandato de Jesús; de tomarte el tiempo y pararte a la vera del camino para ayudar al necesitado.

Jesús se hace presente en el pan y vino eucarístico cada vez que un sacerdote católico pronuncia las palabras de consagración, pero también Jesús se hace presente en el más necesitado que encontramos en la calle, y vuelvo a repetirlo también él se hace presente en el hermano y hermana de sangre que necesita de nuestra ayuda. La ayuda que muchas personas necesitan no necesaria mente es económica pero si de caridad, amor, afecto, comprensión, y escucha activa.

NEWS FROM EL SALVADOR

A letter from Wendy

Warm greetings. I hope you're doing well and alongside your families.

First of all, I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for the effort your parishioners make for us everyday. May God and the Virgin Mary bless you. Thanks to you we are moving forward despite the hardships that our families have gone through. Many people have lost family members during this pandemic. I know it's devastating but we have to move on and accept those situations that will affect us in the future if we don't overcome them.

Thankfully, my family and I are doing well. In my studies, I have tried my best despite facing personal problems, because I know that through education I can achieve everything I want and desire. One of my dreams is to be a professional and I want to achieve that with intelligence and my effort.

In high school, I was frustrated because sometimes I didn't understand some of my classes. It was a challenge for me to be able to overcome my problems and frustrations, as I think sometimes my grades were not what I expected. But little by little, I have improved and given my best. I have to put more dedication into my studies in order to achieve my dream of graduating. Now, my biggest challenge is to study in the University, so I can continue with my education and get my university degree. Thanks again to all the people who are part of the great family of Our Lady of the Presentation.

Thank you very much for being part of my support with which I have been able to fulfill my dreams. May God and the Virgin Mary keep you safe. Many blessings to each of you. Sending hugs from El Salvador and the Family of the Center for Exchange and Solidarity (CIS).

Give the gift of education with donations through Online Giving.
