Pastor's Perspective

Brothers and Sisters,

Today's Gospel Acclamation is taken from the Gospel of John and reads, "I have chosen you from the world, says the Lord, to go and bear fruit that will remain" (15:16).

We tend to believe the call from the Lord is for somebody else – for the "chosen few". Ordinarily, the Latin term, vocare (in English, vocation) which means "to call" is thought to be in reference to those discerning the priesthood, religious life or diaconate. While there is no doubt that the Lord will call some people to serve in these particular ways, His call is not reserved for them alone. The Lord chooses and calls every Christian! The call is an invitation to be intimately connected and in relationship with our Lord, Jesus. Although it is true Jesus calls us at varying times for diverse reasons and tasks, the call itself does not wait until we believe we are desirable enough, or fully qualified, or until we have everything ready to respond. The Lord calls us at a time of His choosing, often for purposes beyond our vision.

Jesus knows exactly whom He is calling. We may commonly respond with: "Who me? You have the wrong person! I'm not holy enough! I've made too many mistakes! Certainly there is someone better! I don't how to… (fill in the blank)." We make excuses and more excuses. The Prophet Jeremiah tried to claim that he was too young to answer God's call, but do you recall the Lord's response to Jeremiah? The Lord did not say, "maybe you are right; I chose the wrong person, sorry for the mistake!" No, the Lord reminded Jeremiah, "For I know the plans that I have for you… plans for welfare and not for calamity to give you a future and a hope." Jesus knows exactly whom He is calling! He calls us to get up from where we are in the midst of the sin, excuses, comfort, fear, and complacency to follow Him into a future of hope.

I must admit it is not always easy to follow the Lord. He expects us to bear good fruit. He expects us to look forward and not to look back. He expects us to trust Him to reach our heavenly home. Despite our own apprehension, Jesus is faithful. He forgives us when we fall short, encourages us when we want to turn back, and walks with us through every twist and turn.

We can look to those who Jesus called and reflect on their stories: Peter, Andrew, Paul and the other Apostles; Mary Magdalene, Zacchaeus, the woman at the well, and Nicodemus. Remember the Saints: John Paul II, Mother Teresa, Padre Pio, Teresa of Avila, and Francis of Assisi, to name a few. The Communion of Saints includes numerous people who were not great or remarkable because they were perfect unto themselves. But, they became great and did remarkable things because they acknowledged themselves as sinners and trusted the Lord to provide them with what they needed as they answered His call. Imagine how the world would be if every Christian truly fully embraced his or her mission!

We are blessed to be members of the Holy Name of Jesus parish, especially in this time. Our world needs the truth and hope of the Gospel to counter the messages of division and despair. Our society needs to witness Christians inviting others to encounter the living Christ, teaching and sharing our faith, and nurturing others with acts of loving support. Christ needs you to "bear good fruit that will remain". There are so many ways to share your gifts through time, talent and treasure.

Time: Most of the Saints dedicated additional time in prayer during the busiest times of their lives. Give yourself that gift! Pray every day for clarity about your personal call, and, the graces you need to fulfill your call.

Talent: What are you "known for" or passionate about? Perhaps you are a good listener, or you can fix just about anything, or you understand technology that others struggle with, or you find meeting new people enjoyable. Maybe you have an eye for design or photography, or enjoy sewing or making crafts. Maybe you love creating software templates, Excel formulas, database queries. Maybe you enjoy calling people, sending cards by mail, or telling stories to children. All of these Talents, and many more I have not listed, can be shared in service to others.

Treasure: It takes money to share the mission… but more importantly, it takes commitment. Have you looked at your weekly or monthly budget lately? Where is your parish on the budget list – first, fifteenth, or last? Are you giving the same amount you gave last year or the year before? Finally, do you put your name on your gift? This is not about letting others know what you are giving. It is about two things: 1) God calls each one of us by name, not anonymously. Giving Treasure is one way we thank the Lord for our blessings. Writing your name on your envelope is like signing a thank you card. 2) God works through people and calls us to work as a community of believers. Writing your name on your envelope tells us that you are committed to funding our community's missionary work. Stand up and be counted.

You and I have the honor of sharing in the mission of Jesus Christ and experiencing the beautiful adventure along His way. Please pray about how you can share your Time, Talent, and Treasure to further Christ's mission. Remember, the grace of God will never lead you where the grace of God cannot keep you… He is with you. Never underestimate the power of one person's yes to follow the Lord. One yes to God can truly change the world! Let that YES be yours… our parish office looks forward to hearing from you.

Together, let us go and bear fruit that will remain!
Father Erik Esparza

Perspectiva del Párroco

Hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

La aclamación antes del Evangelio para el día de hoy viene del Evangelio de san Juan y dice: "Yo los he elegido del mundo, dice el Señor, para que vayan y den fruto, y su fruto permanezca" (15:16).

Tendemos a creer que el llamado del Señor es para otros, para los "pocos elegidos". Por lo general, se piensa que el término en latín vocare (en español, vocación) que significa "llamar" se refiere a quienes disciernen el sacerdocio, la vida religiosa o el diaconado. Si bien no hay duda de que el Señor llamará a algunos a servir de esta manera en particular, su llamado no está reservado solo para ellos. ¡El Señor elige y llama a todo cristiano! El llamado es una invitación a estar íntimamente unidos a nuestro Señor Jesús y tener una relación con Él. Si bien es cierto que Jesús nos llama en diferentes momentos por diversas razones y para diferentes tareas, el llamado en sí no espera hasta que sintamos que somos lo suficientemente gratos, o que somos completamente aptos, o hasta que tengamos todo listo para responder. El Señor nos llama en un momento de Su elección, a menudo con propósitos que van más allá de nuestra visión.

Jesús sabe exactamente a quién está llamando. Comúnmente podemos responder diciendo: "¿Quién, yo? ¡Te equivocaste de persona! ¡No soy lo suficientemente santo! ¡He cometido demasiados errores! ¡De seguro hay alguien mejor que yo! No sé cómo ... (complete el espacio en blanco)". Ponemos excusas y más excusas. El profeta Jeremías trató de afirmar que era demasiado joven para responder al llamado de Dios, pero ¿recuerdan lo que le contestó el Señor a Jeremías? El Señor no dijo, "quizás tengas razón; elegí a la persona equivocada, ¡perdón por el error!" No, el Señor le recordó a Jeremías: "Porque solo yo sé los planes que tengo para ti... planes de prosperidad y no de desgracia, pues te daré un provenir lleno de esperanza". ¡Jesús sabe exactamente a quién está llamando! Él nos llama a levantarnos de donde estamos, en medio del pecado, las excusas, la comodidad, el temor y la complacencia para seguirlo a un porvenir de esperanza.

Debo admitir que seguir al Señor no siempre es fácil. Él espera que demos buen fruto. Él espera que miremos hacia adelante y no hacia atrás. Él espera que confiemos en Él para llegar a nuestra morada celestial. A pesar de nuestra propia aprensión, Jesús es fiel. Él nos perdona cuando no damos la medida, nos anima cuando queremos dar marcha atrás y camina con nosotros en todos los altibajos.

Podemos pensar en los que Jesús llamó y reflexionar sobre sus historias: Pedro, Pablo y los otros apóstoles; María Magdalena, Zaqueo, la mujer en el pozo. Recuerden a los santos: Juan Pablo II, Madre Teresa, Padre Pío y Francisco de Asís, por nombrar algunos. La Comunión de los Santos incluye a numerosas personas que no fueron grandes ni notables porque eran perfectas. Pero llegaron a ser grandes e hicieron cosas extraordinarias porque reconocieron que eran pecadores y confiaron en que el Señor les daría lo necesario al responder a Su llamado. ¡Imagínense cómo sería el mundo si cada cristiano aceptara plenamente su misión!

Tenemos la bendición de ser miembros de la parroquia del Santo Nombre de Jesús, especialmente en este momento. Nuestro mundo necesita la verdad y la esperanza del Evangelio para contrarrestar los mensajes de división y desesperanza. Nuestra sociedad necesita ver a los cristianos invitando a otros a encontrar al Cristo vivo, enseñando y compartiendo nuestra fe, y alimentando a otros con actos de apoyo cariñoso. Cristo necesita que "den buen fruto que permanezca". Hay muchas formas de compartir sus dones dando de su Tiempo, Talento y Tesoro.

Tiempo: La mayoría de los santos dedicaron tiempo adicional a la oración durante los momentos más ocupados de sus vidas. ¡Dense ese regalo! Oren todos los días para tener claridad sobre su llamado personal y las gracias que necesitan para cumplir con su llamado.

Talento: ¿Hay algo "por lo que se les conoce" o que les apasiona? Quizás son buenos para escuchar, o pueden arreglar casi cualquier cosa, o entienden la tecnología que a otros les resulta difícil, o disfrutan conocer gente nueva. Quizás tienen buen ojo para el diseño o la fotografía, o disfrutan la costura o hacer manualidades. Quizás les gusta crear plantillas de software o consultas de bases de datos. Tal vez les gusta llamar a la gente, enviar tarjetas por correo o contar historias a los niños. Todos estos talentos, y muchos más que no he enumerado, se pueden compartir al servicio de los demás.

Tesoro: Se necesita dinero para compartir la misión... pero lo que es más importante, se necesita compromiso. ¿Han mirado su presupuesto semanal o mensual últimamente? ¿Dónde está su parroquia en la lista de presupuestos: primero, décimo o último lugar? ¿Están dando la misma cantidad que dieron el año pasado o el año anterior? Finalmente, ¿ponen su nombre en su donativo? No se trata de que otros sepan cuánto están dando. Se trata de dos cosas: 1) Dios llama a cada uno por nuestro nombre, no de forma anónima. Dar de nuestro tesoro es una forma de agradecer al Señor por las bendiciones que él nos da. Escribir su nombre en su sobre es como firmar una tarjeta de agradecimiento. 2) Dios obra a través de otros y nos llama a trabajar como comunidad de creyentes. Escribir su nombre en su sobre nos dice que se han comprometido a financiar la obra misionera de nuestra comunidad. Salgan del anonimato y háganse contar.

Ustedes y yo tenemos el honor de compartir la misión de Jesucristo y vivir la experiencia de la hermosa aventura que es Su camino. Oren y pidan la guía del Señor para discernir cómo pueden compartir su Tiempo, Talento y Tesoro para promover la misión de Cristo. Recuerden, la gracia de Dios nunca los llevará a donde la gracia de Dios no pueda sustentarlos… Dios está con ustedes. Nunca subestimen el poder del sí de una persona para seguir al Señor. ¡Un sí a Dios realmente puede cambiar el mundo! Que ese Sí sea el suyo... nuestra oficina parroquial espera saber de ustedes. Juntos, ¡vayamos y demos fruto que permanezca!

Saint Francis of Assisi (1182-1226) October 4

When Franco Zeffirelli's Brother Sun, Sister Moon was released (1972), people were shocked by the movie's graphic nudity in the dramatic conversion scene. Son of a wealthy merchant, Francis' aimless adolescence ended when a failed military expedition led to his imprisonment and complete breakdown. Once home, Francis rediscovered God in the beauty of nature and the ugliness of human suffering, caring for lepers, praying in the little church of San Damiano, whose crucified Jesus he heard calling, "Repair my house, Francis, which is falling into ruins." Francis sold his possessions—and his father's—to fulfill this command. When his father objected, Francis disrobed: "I return the clothes, your name, and all you gave me: God alone is my Father now." Later, the pope would dream of a ragged friar stretching forth a single hand to prop up the crumbling papal Cathedral of Saint John Lateran. Francis indeed helped rebuild the universal Church, founding the Friars Minor (Franciscans), dying at a young forty-four, bearing the stigmata of the Christ whose living icon he remains—in the Church and far beyond it.

Baptism

Baptism is the FIRST of the 3 Sacraments of Initiation into the Catholic Christian faith... the other two are Confirmation and Eucharist. All three create the foundation of every Christian life. We believe that the faithful are born 'anew' by Baptism. Through Baptism, we become brothers and sisters of Jesus Christ - members of the Body of Christ.

In other words,* through Baptism we become Christians!

We offer "OUTDOOR" Rite of Baptism for all children from birth through 6 years old on the First Saturday of the month at the Olive Avenue location and at selected masses within the liturgical year! We offer safe and convenient Baptism Preparation Classes for parents and godparents on the Fourth Wednesday of the month on ZOOM.
PRE-REGISTRATION is REQUIRED.

To baptize your child, please:

1)Visit the Baptism Webpage www.theholynameofjesus.org/baptism

2) Email your completed form and other documents to Karen Grozak.

3) payment for the baptism class can be made by Credit Card on the same page on our Parish website.

Pictured is a Baptism Preparation Zoom Session with Karen Grozak and some parents and godparents from July.

God's Grace poured down....

We Celebrated our postponed Easter Vigil Sacraments for the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults adapted for Children on August 21st, 2020.

(7) Children and (3) Teens received the sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation.

RCIC and RCIT are for children who may have missed receiving their infant Baptism, Eucharist which is usually celebrated in the 3rd grade, and Confirmation at the age of 16.

We form and guide the families in their encounter with Jesus through the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation, becoming fully initiated in the Catholic church.

Please contact Karen Grozak at 909.798.4167 ext 135 if your child is over the age of 7 and under the age of 17 and in need of receiving the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist or Confirmation. It is a two year minimal process of individual formation and family formation!

The light of Christ!

All the newly baptised were robed in white - a sign of being reborn. They each received a candle to remind them to carry the light of Christ (received through baptism) out into the world. How do you carry your light?

San Francisco de Asís (1182-1226) 4 de octubre

Francisco nació en Asís, Italia, en la familia Bernardone, una familia rica dedicada al comercio de telas. A los veinte años se unió al ejército y cayó prisionero y enfermo; durante su recuperación algo cambió en él y comenzó a descubrir a Dios en lo ordinario de la vida. Sus encuentros con Dios en la contemplación de la naturaleza fueron cada vez más frecuentes hasta que descubrió que los verdaderos tesoros están en el cielo. Regaló los bienes de su padre a los pobres, pero su padre, Pietro, estaba tan molesto que después de golpearlo lo llevó frente al obispo. Ahí, Francisco se desnudó y le dio su ropa, pues pertenecía a su padre y se fue a vivir a una pequeña iglesia llamada Porciúncula. Dios le pidió que renovara la Iglesia, pero no materialmente, sino espiritualmente. ¡Y lo hizo! Recordó la esencia de vivir pobre para abrazar así a los pobres, que son la única riqueza. Fundó la Orden de los Frailes Menores (Franciscanos) y murió a los 44 años llevando en su cuerpo los estigmas de la Pasión .

I love this photo! Look at the Joy!
It brings back great memories of an incredible mountain top experience.
People were tired, but filled with the Spirit.
Unbreakable bonds were made in family groups.
No masks. No social distancing. No threat of a terrible virus.
I share this not as a sad story about the "good ol' days", but as a vision of hope. This group of young people experienced God is a very real way. It was life changing and is the kind of thing we need to be reminded of every once in a while.
God is good! He is Always working!
And He is blessing us all in ways we could never imagine.
My hope is that you can look at this picture and see God's grace, love, and many blessings, as well as hope for the future.
Keep your eyes on the Lord and watch how He blesses you!

May the angels lead them into paradise,
May the martyrs welcome them to heaven.

Que los ángeles les llevan al paraiso,
Que los santos les reciban en el cielo.

Catholic Divorce Ministry "Journey of Hope" 6-week Program

A 6-week program to support those going through the emotional pain of divorce and separation. Key challenges and unique family dynamics as a result of this unexpected journey will be addressed as well as a safe environment to share concerns and reconnect with understanding and a new hope.

Groups strive to provide:
* Hope that there is a life after divorce
* A place to come and share your story
* Help in how a once-married person participates in the church
* Available resources to help in the process of recovery
* A place to come and learn from others

Topics include: Dealing with Anger, Letting Go & Forgiveness, Gratitude & Hope, and Healing.

Wednesdays,
November 4, 2020 - December 16, 2020
from 7:00 to 8:30 pm

WHY IS IT
A man wakes up after sleeping
under an ADVERTISED blanket
on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower
shaves with an ADVERTISED razor
brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste
washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee
drives to work
in an ADVERTISED car and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
