
12th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?"

Pastor's Perspective

Brothers and Sisters,

Happy Father's Day to all the fathers in our parish community! This weekend we celebrate fatherhood by giving thanks to God for all of our fathers and father figures in our lives. I was recently reading an article on fatherhood and it shared 8 things every Catholic dad should know about fatherhood. I thought I would share this insight on this weekend we recognize the important and vital role fathers have in the lives of their children. There is no greater role a father can have than to lead his child to a relationship with the Heavenly Father. For the fathers and father figures in our parish, don't underestimate the importance of your presence and leadership in the family. Fathers, be not ashamed or afraid to lead your family to Jesus for He is the way, the truth and the life!

Let me share with you the 8 Things Every Catholic Dad Should Know About Fatherhood by Catholic writer, Garrett Johnson:

1. Encounter with God the Father: One can't give what he doesn't have. Many of us have been blessed with great fathers growing up but others haven't. In both cases, however, the source of Fatherhood must always come from above. Any man who seeks to be a good father, ignoring God the Father, will inevitably fall short. One must be aware that you aren't in control of your family, God is. Your leadership and service must be fruit of the obedience and humility that you live towards Him.

2. Conversion: A good father must be a converted man, or better yet, a man growing daily in conversion. Any man that abandons his efforts to live a Christian life, who doesn't allow the encounter with God the Father to transform him, abandons simultaneously the most fundamental testimony that he can give to his children.

3. Man of Prayer: Conversion breaths prayer. Without it, it suffocates. If your schedule is too busy to allow time for prayer, change it.

4. Understanding your True Vocation: For those that are blessed to be married and have children, you must recognize that helping your families get to heaven and being good husbands and fathers – not your business career – is your real vocation. Ask yourself: "Is my work serving my family? Or is my family serving my work?"

5. Presence not presents: Fatherhood means presence. Presence is "being with", "being for". This implies that you invest serious time with your family. Serious time refers to both quantity and quality. Have the courage to set the smartphone down and look your children in the eyes. Take a moment to marvel at who they are and who they are becoming. Look them in the eye, listen to them, speak to them about the things that matter. Share with them how you are doing, what's going on in your mind, in your heart, in your life.

6. Courage: Have the courage to love according to the truth. The truth is that life isn't easy and neither is being a good Catholic. This means that you can't be a blend-in kind of father. Have the courage to correct, to teach, to demand, to challenge. And then have the courage to allow them to do the same to you.

7. Love your wife: Men, you must love and cherish your wives, plain and simple. Your children will learn to love others by how they see you and your wife love each other. The husband-wife relationship is their first school in love. It is the first lesson in community, in communication, in sacrifice, and in service. To love your wife means to offer your life for her, every day. "Husbands, love your wives, as Christ also loved the church, and delivered himself up for it."

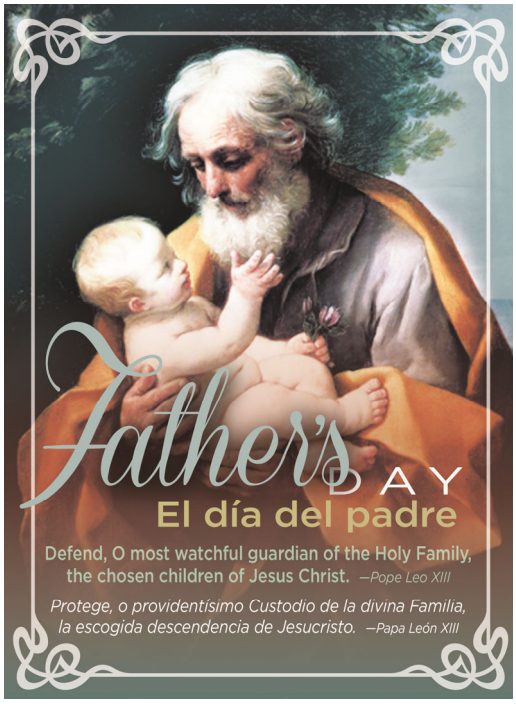
8. Be humble: In any relationship of service and authority, one quickly becomes aware of his or her own weaknesses. Don't be afraid, accept it with humility; it is perhaps one of the greatest displays of authority that exists.



Happy Father's Day! May the blessing of our Heavenly Father, come upon and be with our fathers so that they have the courage to lead their families.

Let us together glorify Christ's Holy Name!

Father Erik Esparza

Perspectiva del Párroco

Hermanos y hermanas:

¡Feliz Día del Padre a todos los padres en nuestra comunidad parroquial!

Este fin de semana celebramos la paternidad y damos gracias a Dios por todos nuestros padres y figuras paternas en nuestras vidas. Recientemente leí un artículo sobre la paternidad que compartía ocho cosas que todo padre católico debe saber al respecto. Decidí compartir estas ideas en este fin de semana en que reconocemos el papel importante y vital que tienen los padres en la vida de sus hijos. El papel más importante que puede desempeñar un padre es guiar a su hijo para que tenga una relación con el Padre Celestial. A los padres y figuras paternas en nuestra parroquia, les pido que no subestimen la importancia de su presencia y liderazgo en la familia. Padres, no se avergüencen ni tengan miedo de guiar a su familia hacia Jesús, ¡pues él es el camino, la verdad y la vida!

Ahora les comparto Las Ocho Cosas que Todo Padre Católico Debe Saber Sobre la Paternidad, en la opinión del escritor Garrett Johnson:

1. Encuentro con Dios Padre: Uno no puede dar lo que no tiene. Muchos de nosotros fuimos bendecidos con padres maravillosos que nos vieron crecer, pero otros no. En ambos casos, sin embargo, la fuente de la paternidad siempre debe venir de arriba. Cualquier hombre que trate de ser un buen padre, pero ignore a Dios Padre, inevitablemente se quedará corto. Uno debe ser consciente de que ustedes no tienen control sobre su familia, Dios sí. Su liderazgo y servicio deben ser fruto de la obediencia y humildad que ustedes tienen ante el Padre.

2. Conversión: Un buen padre debe ser un hombre converso, o mejor aun, un hombre cuya conversión aumenta diariamente. Todo hombre que abandona sus esfuerzos por vivir una vida cristiana, que no permite que el encuentro con Dios Padre lo transforme, abandona al mismo tiempo el testimonio más fundamental que puede dar a sus hijos.

3. Hombre de oración: La conversión respira oración. Se asfixia sin ella. Si su agenda está demasiado ocupada para permitir tiempo para la oración, cámbienla.

4. Entender su verdadera vocación: Quienes gozan de la bendición de estar casados y tener hijos, deben reconocer que ayudar a sus familias a ir al Cielo y ser buenos esposos y padres —no su carrera empresarial— es su verdadera vocación. Pregúntense: "¿Mi familia se beneficia de mi trabajo? ¿o mi trabajo se beneficia de mi familia?".

5. Su presencia, no regalos: Paternidad significa presencia. La presencia es "estar con" "estar cuando se necesita". Esto implica que dedican mucho tiempo a su familia. Dedicar tiempo se refiere tanto a la calidad como a la cantidad. Tengan el valor de dejar su teléfono y mirar a sus hijos a los ojos. Tomen un momento para maravillarse por lo que son sus hijos y en lo que se están transformando. Mírenlos a los ojos, escúchenlos, hablen con ellos sobre las cosas que realmente importan. Compartan con ellos cómo están, qué está pasando en su mente, en su corazón, en su vida.

6. Valor: Tengan el valor de amar según la verdad. La verdad es que la vida no es fácil y tampoco lo es ser buen católico. Esto significa que no deben perder su identidad de padres. Tengan el valor de corregir, enseñar, exigir, desafiar. Y luego, tengan el valor de permitir que ellos hagan lo mismo con ustedes.

7. Amen a su esposa: Hombres, deben amar y apreciar a sus esposas, así de sencillo. Sus hijos aprenderán a amar a los demás por la forma en que ven que ustedes y sus esposas se aman. La relación marido y mujer es su primera escuela en el amor. Es la primera lección de comunidad, comunicación, sacrificio y servicio. Amar a su esposa significa dar su vida por ella, todos los días. "Esposos, amen a sus esposas, como Cristo amó a la iglesia y se entregó por ella".

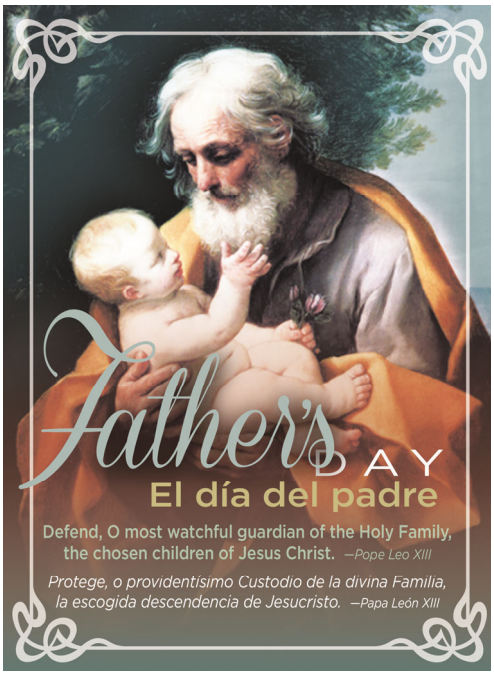
8. Sean humildes: En cualquier relación de servicio y autoridad, uno reconoce rápidamente sus propias debilidades. No tengan miedo, acéptenlo con humildad; es quizás una de las mayores demostraciones de autoridad que existen.



¡Feliz Día del Padre! Que la bendición de nuestro Padre Celestial descienda sobre nuestros padres y permanezca con ellos para que tengan el valor de guiar a sus familias.

¡Glorifiquemos juntos el Santo Nombre de Cristo!

Padre Erik Esparza

FEAST OF FAITH

The Collection: A Privilege

As the altar is prepared for the celebration of the Eucharist, the collection is taken up. In the early church, this part of the Mass must have been something to behold, as the people suddenly began to move, bringing forward to the deacons and priests freshly-baked bread and fine wine. Then, after the Eucharistic Prayer, that same community came forward again in the Communion procession, and they received back the very gifts they had given, now transformed into something infinitely more precious than bread and wine: the very Body and Blood of Christ.

Beginning around the eleventh century, it became the custom for people to present money instead of bread and wine, and the procession of the faithful gradually disappeared (it survives in the liturgy of Holy Thursday).

But the meaning is the same. We continue to bring the fruit of our labors and to offer them freely to God. And God continues to transform them into Christ. It is through our generous sharing of time, talent, and treasure that our parishes can preach the gospel, reach out to the sick and the imprisoned, and celebrate the sacraments.

FIESTA DE LA FE

Pan y vino

Presentamos pan y vino como ofrenda porque son elementos que encierran la vida en sí mismos. No son un producto único, sino el resultado de un proceso. En sí mismos, son simbólicos del misterio pascual que celebra la Eucaristía; hay un proceso de muerte y vida. El grano de trigo ha muerto, ha dado fruto, se ha triturado y ahora es pan para que todos coman. El vino ha salido de las parras generosas, trae en sí la espera del tiempo, la madurez de la uva, la extracción del jugo, la fermentación... hay un proceso de vida para llegar no sólo al vino, sino a un buen vino; a un vino que es la sangre misma de la vida, que dentro de sí lleva ya el aspecto festivo de algo que se celebra y se comparte. Es más que una bebida relajante o sabrosa, es la bebida sagrada porque en ella se acompaña una promesa, se marca un momento, se vive un juramento.

Comer y beber siempre han sido un gesto de solidaridad entre hombres y mujeres; se come y bebe con quien se tiene confianza, con quien se es familia, con quien se espera re-crear la propia vida a partir de algo que va más allá de nosotros mismos.
