Pastor's Perspective

Brothers and sisters,

I am blessed to serve with a hardworking staff who works tirelessly for the good of our parish community. This week I have asked Monica Aguilar, Director of Pastoral Ministries, to offer a reflection. Thank you for reading it and for being a member of our flock. — Fr. Erik Esparza

Dear Holy Name Family,

As we enter into the holy season of Advent, I would like to reflect on the importance of community as part of the Christian journey of faith. During the initial uncertainty of the pandemic, we quickly learned the integral role community plays in our lives as Christians. When we were sheltered in our homes, unable to gather, it was as if a limb had been removed from our bodies. Our souls cried out for fellowship, for being in the presence of others.

Pope Benedict XVI beautifully explains this longing for community:

> Part of the essence of Christianity, and this is included in the concept of the church, is that our relationship with God is not just an inner one, one made up of my "I" and his "thou," but is also a matter of being spoken to, of being led.
> A meeting is part of every path to conversion. The church is there so that people who have searched for the door and found it can be in her. Among all the varieties of temperaments, there will always be someone who suits me and who has the right word to say to me.
> As human beings, we are there so that God can come to people by way of other people. He always comes to people through people. So, we too always come to Him through other people who are being led by Him… in whom He Himself meets us and opens us up to Him.
> If we could lift ourselves up to the ultimate degree simply by reading holy scripture, then this would be just another philosophical movement, without this element of community that is such a vital element in faith.
> (taken from Benedictus by Pope Benedict XVI)

We all felt the void that the shutdown brought with it. We were separated from family, friends, classmates, co-workers, clergy… all lost opportunities to encounter the holy in one another. Sure, we found other ways to connect, mostly through the screens of our phones or computers, but nothing substituted for the physical presence of another; the powerful effect of eye contact and physical touch that bring with them an overpowering certainty that we are loved… that we matter.

God comes to people through people.

Last weekend, we celebrated the Rite of Acceptance, the first step toward becoming Catholic for those souls journeying through the RCIA process. As the person privileged to accompany these good people on this journey, I can tell you that every one of them came to us because they encountered a Catholic who gave them hope that they, too, could belong to this amazing Church. It was through encounters with others that God spoke to their hearts.

God comes to people through people.

Today, we mark the first Sunday of Advent, a journey of spiritual preparation for the Incarnation… God humbling Himself to live in community with us.

When we sing O Come, O Come Emmanuel (meaning God with us), our hearts long to be with him… to kneel at the crèche and gaze upon his beauty, to dare to touch his tiny fingers, and see the eyes of God staring at us with deep and abiding love.

So how do we prepare ourselves for this amazing event?
Fr. Erik and the staff have worked to provide ways we can do this together as a community. This weekend, we offer an Advent and Christmas gift bag for your family. In it are ways in which we will continue to grow together as a community of believers. We are stronger when we are together, so please join us for the many opportunities to live this Advent to the fullest.

God comes to people through a Person.

Let us together prepare our hearts to welcome Him,

Monica Aguilar
Director of Pastoral Ministries

Perspectiva del Párroco

Hermanos y hermanas,

Estoy bendecido de servir con un personal trabajador que trabaja incansablemente por el bien de nuestra comunidad parroquial. Esta semana le he pedido a Monica Aguilar, Directora de Ministerios Pastorales, que ofrezca una reflexión. Gracias por leerlo y por ser miembro de nuestro rebaño. — Padre Erik Esparza

Estimada familia del Santo Nombre de Jesús:

Al entrar en este sagrado tiempo de Adviento, me gustaría reflexionar sobre la importancia de la comunidad como parte del caminar cristiano de la fe. En la incertidumbre inicial de la pandemia, rápidamente reconocimos el papel integral que juega la comunidad en nuestras vidas como cristianos. Cuando tuvimos que quedarnos en casa, sin poder reunirnos, fue como si nos hubieran amputado una de nuestras extremidades. Nuestras almas clamaban convivencia, estar en compañía de otros.

El Papa Benedicto XVI explica de manera hermosa este anhelo de comunidad:

> Parte de la esencia del cristianismo, incluido el concepto de la iglesia, es que nuestra relación con Dios no es solo una relación interior, una relación entre mi "yo" y su "tú", sino que también es cuestión de que nos hable, de ser guiados.
> El encuentro es parte de todo camino a la conversión. La iglesia está ahí para que quienes han buscado y encontrado la puerta puedan entrar en ella. Entre la gran variedad de temperamentos, siempre habrá alguien más acorde conmigo y que me diga lo que quiero escuchar.
> Como seres humanos, somos instrumentos para que Dios venga a las personas en otras personas. Dios siempre viene a las personas por medio de las personas. Así que, nosotros también venimos siempre a Dios por medio de otras personas que están siendo guiadas por el… en quienes Dios mismo se encuentra con nosotros y hace que le abramos nuestro corazón.
> Si pudiéramos alcanzar el máximo nivel leyendo simplemente las sagradas escrituras, entonces este sería solo otro movimiento filosófico, sin este elemento de comunidad que es un componente tan vital de la fe.
> (traducido de Benedictus por el Papa Benedicto XVI).

Todos sentimos el vacío que trajo consigo el cierre. Fuimos separados de la familia, los amigos, los compañeros de clase, los compañeros de trabajo, el clero... todos perdimos oportunidades de encontrarnos con la santidad del otro. Claro, encontramos otras formas de conectarnos, mayormente a través de las pantallas de nuestros teléfonos o computadoras, pero nada sustituyó a la presencia física del otro; el poderoso efecto del contacto visual y el roce físico que traen consigo una certeza abrumadora de que somos amados... que somos importantes.

Dios llega a las personas por medio de las personas.

El fin de semana pasado celebramos el Rito de Aceptación, el primer paso que toman quienes están en el proceso de RICA para la conversión al catolicismo. Como la persona que tiene el privilegio de acompañar a estas buenas personas en su caminar, puedo decirles que todos vinieron a nosotros porque se encontraron con un católico que les dio la esperanza de que ellos también podrían pertenecer a esta asombrosa Iglesia. Dios les habló a sus corazones en el encuentro con otros.

Dios viene a las personas por medio de las personas.

Hoy celebramos el primer domingo de Adviento, un camino de preparación espiritual para la Encarnación… Dios que se hizo humilde para vivir en comunidad con nosotros.

Cuando cantamos Oh ven, oh ven Emanuel (que significa Dios con nosotros), nuestros corazones anhelan estar con él… arrodillarnos frente al pesebre y contemplar su belleza, atrevernos a tocar sus pequeños dedos y ver los ojos de Dios que nos miran con un amor profundo y sin fin.

Entonces, ¿cómo nos preparamos para este increíble acontecimiento? El padre Erik y el personal han trabajado para ofrecer formas en las que podamos hacerlo juntos en comunidad. Este fin de semana, ofrecemos una bolsa con regalos de Adviento y Navidad para su familia. La bolsa contiene formas en las que continuaremos creciendo juntos como comunidad de creyentes. En la unión esta la fuerza, así que acompáñenos para disfrutar de las muchas oportunidades para vivir este Adviento al máximo.

Dios viene a las personas por medio de una Persona.
Preparemos juntos nuestros corazones para recibirlo,

Monica Aguilar
Directora de los Ministros Pastorales

Professionals say that most golfers grip the club too tightly. What difference does the tightness of the grip make? Simple. It affects the rest of the body. The forearms will be stiff, and that tends to tighten the shoulders and the upper body, even the legs.

A loose grip results in a fluid swing… and a fluid swing is a powerful swing!

The analogy with stewardship is not subtle. To be tight-fisted with our time and skills and money tightens up everything else in our life. To loosen our grip by freely and regularly giving a portion off the top to the Lord brings a sense of freedom and peace.

So, how does a person change their golf grip? He or she focuses on letting go and practices a lot! How does a person begin living a stewardship way of life? He or she focuses on letting go and practices a lot!

Here are a few ideas to help you start:

Look at next week's schedule. Then build in some time that you will give in gratitude as a return to God. It may be time in prayer, time in sharing your talents or skills, or both. It may only be a small amount of time; but do it and see what happens.

Look at your income. Then decide to take some off the top next week and give it to the Lord in the offertory. "Off the top" is the main thing. Decide on a percentage of your weekly income to give (e.g. 2-1/2% of gross income = the 1st paid hour of work). The amount is not as important as planned, consistent giving. Then do it, and see how it affects you… how it affects your belief in God.

Make a commitment to practice. Golfers practice their swing regularly. Many follow a regular schedule, adding this commitment to their calendars. The same is true of living a stewardship way of life. Make a plan to practice letting go and giving in gratitude to God. Then work the plan. The main thing is making it a priority, not something you try to squeeze in "when you get a chance".

A few weeks ago, I wrote about letting go of my Del Taco spending and giving it gratefully to God in the offertory. When I did it once or twice, I felt good. But it wasn't until I let go, added that amount to my online giving, and turned in my commitment card, that I felt peace and joy. Letting that money go meant something to me; I trust that God will use it to give meaning to someone else.

Try loosening your grip this week.

Thank you for attending the First of Grateful Speaker Series

On Friday, November 12th, we welcomed internationally reknown iconograher, Vivian Imbruglia. Vivian shared how icons are created, and how prayer is a necessary practice for "writing" each icon.

She also shared many images and devotions of our Blessed Mother, including the Seven Sorrows of Our Lady, Our Lady of Manaoag (Philippines), Our Lady of La Vang (Vietnam), and Our Lady of Kibeho (Rwanda).

This was a fascinating evening about our Catholic faith, artistry, and prayer. Each attendee received an small icon from Vivian; and 2 attendees won framed icons — one of St Joseph and one of Mary the Immaculate Conception.

We will soon share information about our next Speaker — coming in 2022.

Does the parish campus plan include environmentally sustainable features and landscaping? Will we keep the orange grove on the corner of Lugonia and Dearborn?

The 20-acre campus that includes the Church, the Hall / Office Complex, the Educational Classrooms, Youth Center, and Playfields is designed to meet the State's environmental building standards. These standards establish requirements for energy efficiency, water efficiency and conservation, material conservation and resource efficiency. For example, we reduced the amount of glass in the original design to improve energy efficiency and reduce operating costs. In addition, the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) requires the City of Redlands to conduct an environmental review in order to avoid, reduce or prevent environmental damage – prior to granting a permit to build. This review has been completed as part of the Conditional Use Permit (CUP) approval process.

Since the time the virtual tour was shared, the project's landscaping has been further developed to increase the amount of drought-tolerant and California native plants and trees. Although we are not planting fruit trees onsite, the orange grove on the corner of Lugonia Ave and Dearborn St will remain intact because it belongs to the City and is not part of our parish property.

¿Incluye el plano de las instalaciones parroquiales características y jardinería ambientalmente sustentables? ¿Mantendremos la huerta de naranjos en la esquina de Lugonia y Dearborn?

Las instalaciones de 20 acres que incluyen la iglesia, el complejo de oficinas/salón, las aulas educativas, el centro para jóvenes y los campos de juego están diseñadas para cumplir con las normas ambientales de construcción del estado. Estas normas establecen requisitos de eficiencia en el consumo de energía eléctrica, eficiencia y conservación del agua, conservación de materiales y eficiencia de recursos. Por ejemplo, redujimos la cantidad de vidrio en el diseño original para reducir el consumo de energía y los costos de operación. Además, la Ley de Calidad Ambiental de California (CEQA) requiere que la ciudad de Redlands lleve a cabo una inspección ambiental para evitar, reducir o prevenir el daño al medio ambiente, antes de otorgar el permiso para construir. Esta inspección se concluyó como parte del proceso de aprobación del Permiso de uso condicional (CUP).

Desde la fecha en que se ofreció el recorrido virtual, se ha urbanizado aún más la jardinería para aumentar la cantidad de plantas y árboles nativos de California y tolerantes a la sequía. Aunque no vamos a plantar árboles frutales en la propiedad, la huerta de naranjos en la esquina de Lugonia Ave y Dearborn St permanecerá intacta porque pertenece a la ciudad y no es parte de nuestra propiedad parroquial.

WHY IS IT
A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower
shaves with an ADVERTISED razor
brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste
washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup
